Ted Rulseh, 2003 In this love letter disguised as an anthology author Ted Rulseh expresses his deep affinity with that singular body of water we call Lake Michigan In a collection of 107 seasonally grouped essays that first appeared in his regular column in the Manitowoc Herald Times Reporter his easy prose is at once rich and satisfyingly restrained While he waxes nearly poetic in some passages he never allows his writing to wallow in cheap sentimentality Instead he lets the life of the Lake his hometown of Two Rivers and adjoining lakeshore communities speak for itself with quietly compelling results On the Pond evokes a sense of place strong enough to take a rightful position alongside the works of the most celebrated American writers With the eye of a writer the soul of an outdoorsman and the heart of a small town boy Ted Rulseh brings home the essence of life next to one of the most fabled of the Great Lakes in all its many moods From the sudden and unpredictable storms of autumn and shrieking winter gales to the tentative warmth of spring and summer s full glory Lake Michigan is revealed as an alternately soothing and tempestuous but never dull neighbor A pleasing chronicle of small town life that manages to hang on amid the relentless march of time and technology this book is also a keenly observant naturalist s journal Let it take you away for a while to a place where gulls wheel above steel gray waves and dune walkers pull their jackets a
