A Scriptural Theology of Eucharistic Blessings Susan I. Bubbers, 2013-09-12 This study examines the scriptural justification for believers to expect the Eucharist to be a place where God will come and bless them with freedom and formation Bubbers focus is not on liturgy but rather on the biblical message of the benefits of participation in the Eucharist Why keep this Feast Why is Eucharist important Bubbers interpretive approach is a synthesis of historical literary aspects of Biblical Theology and canonical creedal aspects of the Theological Reading of Scripture taking into account the biblical historical place of Eucharist as well as its ongoing presence within the Church Bubbers begins by displaying the Last Supper

as a Passover meal which bridges between Old Testament motifs and the New Testament Feast She then shows that the Exodus context reveals a paradigm which links blessing with remembrance and suggests that the remembrance motif describes these blessings Finally Bubbers gathers a catalogue of specific blessings summarized by freedom and formation Her conclusion is that the Feast is a divinely designed paradigm for worship which is accompanied by a promise of transformational encounters

Nuptial Symbolism in Second Temple Writings, the New Testament and Rabbinic Literature André Villeneuve, 2016-05-02 In Nuptial Symbolism in Second Temple Writings the New Testament and Rabbinic Literature Andr Villeneuve examines the ancient Jewish concept of the covenant between God and Israel portrayed as a marriage dynamically moving through salvation history This nuptial covenant was established in Eden but damaged by sin it was restored at the Sinai theophany perpetuated in the Temple liturgy and expected to reach its final consummation at the end of days The authors of the New Testament adopted the same key moments of salvation history to describe the spousal relationship between Christ and the Church In their typological treatment of these motifs they established an exegetical framework that would anticipate the four senses of Scripture later adopted by patristic and medieval commentators

The Self-Donation of God Jack D. Kilcrease, 2013-03-20 In The Self Donation of God Jack Kilcrease argues that the speech act of promise is always an act of self donation A person who unilaterally promises to another is bound to take a particular series of actions to fulfill that promise Being that creation is grounded in God's promising speech the divine human relationship is fundamentally one of divine self donation and human receptivity Sin disrupts this relationship and therefore redemption is constituted by a reassertion of divine promise of salvation in the face of the condemnation of the law Gen 3 15 As a new and effective word of grace the promise of a savior begins the process of redemption within which God speaks forth a new narrative of creation In this new narrative God gives himself in an even deeper manner to humanity By donating himself through a promise first to the protological humanity and then to Israel he binds himself to them At the end of this history of self binding God in Christ enters into the condemnation of the law neutralizes it in the cross and brings about a new creation through his omnipotent word of promise actualized in the resurrection

The Bible and Art Janet Mellor, 2016-02-29 This book explores the revelation of God s love in the mystery of the covenant and shows how this potent theological concept has inspired artists through the ages to reflect on the nature of divine interaction with mankind It traces the development of the covenantal relationship between God and the Jewish people as given in the Hebrew Scriptures and examines the Christian concept of the New Covenant portrayed by Gospel writers and those of the early Church in the New Testament Alongside this the book matches a variety of artistic work in which these texts are made visible The reference to over 300 works of art is a mere sample and will inspire readers to research this hugely rich resource both for their own interest and for use in teaching about the Christian faith and its important Jewish roots Learning in the contemporary world often lifts the emphasis from mere words to illustration and this book shows clearly that throughout history the Christian world has sought to use art to aid understanding of biblical texts Art continues to be used hand in hand with the Scriptures in present day classrooms as well as in group and individual study This volume provides a basis for the exploration of God s love in his covenantal relationship with the People of God ancient and modern and will serve to inspire an investigation of the huge range of artistic interpretation which is available through twenty first century technology

Divine Marriage from Eden to the End of Days Andre Villeneuve, 2021-10-12 In Divine Marriage from Eden to the End of Days Andr Villeneuve explores the mystery of God s love in the Bible and ancient Jewish tradition Scripture portrays the covenant between God and his people as a divine human marriage spanning through all of human history For the ancient Jewish interpreters God married humanity at the dawn of creation in the Garden of Eden but the union was broken by human sin The Lord restored the relationship when he betrothed Israel at Mount Sinai yet the covenant was wounded again with the transgression of the golden calf The nuptial bond was healed anew commemorated and reenacted through liturgical worship in Israel's tabernacle and temple This worship in God's nuptial chamber in turn anticipated the ultimate fulfillment of the divine human marriage in the messianic age at the end of history The first part of the book explores the marriage through Israel's biblical history in light of ancient Jewish exegesis The second part unveils the marriage in the ancient interpretation of the Song of Songs and in wisdom literature The third part reveals how the same symbolism is taken up in the New Testament and applied to the marriage between Christ and the Church
