Lament Death And Destiny Studies In Biblical Literature V 68:

The City Lament Tamar M. Boyadjian, 2018-12-15 Poetic elegies for lost or fallen cities are seemingly as old as cities themselves In the Judeo Christian tradition this genre finds its purest expression in the book of Lamentations which mourns the destruction of Jerusalem In Arabic this genre is known as the ritha al mudun In The City Lament Tamar M Boyadjian traces the trajectory of the genre across the Mediterranean world during the period commonly referred to as the early Crusades 1095-1191 focusing on elegies and other expressions of loss that address the spiritual and strategic objective of those wars Jerusalem Through readings of city laments in English French Latin Arabic and Armenian literary traditions Boyadjian challenges hegemonic and entrenched approaches to the study of medieval literature and the Crusades The City Lament exposes significant literary intersections between Latin Christendom the Islamic caliphates of the Middle East and the Armenian kingdom of Cilicia arguing for shared poetic and rhetorical modes Reframing our understanding of literary sources produced across the medieval Mediterranean from an antagonistic orientalist model to an analogous one Boyadjian demonstrates how lamentations about the loss of Jerusalem whether to Muslim or Christian forces reveal fascinating parallels and rich cross cultural exchanges

Lament, Death, and Destiny Richard Hughes, Richard A. Hughes, 2004 Lament a natural healthy response to unfair suffering and death has largely disappeared from modern life and thought This book reaffirms ancient Greek and Hebrew conceptions of lament as a protest against death as fate Richard A Hughes finds lament to be basic in the Bible and he traces the decline of lament beginning with Plato's antifeminist critique and early Christian theodicy through the church fathers and the Protestant reformers He shows that lament was displaced by classical doctrines of providence but recaptured in the modern existentialist revolt against unjust suffering Hughes discusses the need for lament in the present age of mass catastrophic death Elenchus of Biblica, 2004 Bibliographic Index, 2004
