Lament For An African Pol:

Lament for an African Pol Mongo Beti, 1985 This is a sequel to Mongo Beti's Remember Ruben It continues the story of the revolutionary partisan Mor Zamba after the defeat of the Rubenists The narrative argues that the mere granting of independence does not sweep away the consequences and corruptions that developed under colonialism

A Theology of Traumatic Affect Alice Kim, 2024-10-21 A Theology of Traumatic Affect offers theological tools language and framework to victims survivors of trauma and their communities Seen through the lens of affect theory the social dimensions of trauma emerge even for individual trauma Using an interdisciplinary approach Alice Kim argues that due to interconnectedness of individuals a communal effort is necessary for trauma work Living in a different world as imagined by public imagination is possible now with collective planetary engagement of all creatures participating in co creation

Born from Lament Emmanuel Katongole, 2017-04-25 There is no more urgent theological task than to provide an account of hope in Africa given its endless cycles of violence war poverty and displacement So claims Emmanuel Katongole an innovative theological voice from Africa In the midst of suffering Katongole says hope takes the form of arguing and wrestling with God Such lament is not merely a cry of pain it is a way of mourning protesting and appealing to God As he unpacks the rich theological and social dimensions of the practice of lament in Africa Katongole tells the stories of courageous Christian activists working for change in East Africa and invites readers to enter into lament along with them

Student Encyclopedia of African Literature Douglas Killam, Alicia L. Kerfoot, 2007-12-30 African literature is a vast subject of growing output and interest Written especially for students this book selectively surveys the topic in a clear and accessible way Included are roughly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on writers genres and major works Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Africa is a land of contrasts and of diverse cultures and traditions It is also a land of conflict and creativity The literature of the continent draws upon a fascinating body of oral traditions and lore and also reflects the political turmoil of the modern world With the increased interest in cultural diversity and the growing centrality of Africa in world politics African literature is figuring more and more prominently in the curriculum This book helps students learn about the African literary achievement Written expressly for students this book is far more accessible than other reference works on the subject Included are nearly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on authors such as Chinua Achebe Athol Fugard Buchi Emecheta Nadine Gordimer and Wole Soyinka major works such as Things Fall Apart and Petals of Blood and individual genres such as the novel drama and poetry Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Encyclopedia of African Literature Simon Gikandi,2003-09-02 The most comprehensive reference work on African literature to date this book contains over 600 entries that cover criticism and theory its development as a field of scholarship and studies of established and lesser known writers The Issue of Political Ethnicity in Africa E Udogu,2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2001 The central characteristics of political ethnicity and its dysfunctional attributes in African politics is vexing to Africa s policy makers Moreover as a conflictive ideology in national and international politics many political actors would rather avoid it In the past nationalists have blamed ethnic chauvinists for fanning the embers of ethnicity but today they realize they may have underestimated its prominence in African politics African Film Josef Gugler,2003 In African Film Re imagining a Continent Josef Gugler provides an introduction to African cinema through an analysis of 15 films made by African filmmakers These directors set out to re image Africa their films offer Western viewers the opportunity to re imagine the continent and its people As a point of comparison two additional films on Africa one from Hollywood the other from apartheid South Africa serve to highlight African directors altogether different perspectives Gugler s interpretation considers the financial and technical difficulties of African film production the intended audiences in Africa and the West the constraints on distribution and the critical reception of the films Christianity and the African Counter-Discourse in Achebe and Beti Ali Yiğit,2024-05-15 Christianity and the African Counter Discourse in Achebe and Beti Cultures in Dialogue Contest and Conflict intervenes in light of African literary products the history of Christianity in Africa in late 19th and early 20th centuries goes beyond the existing clichés about the operations of the European Christian missionaries whether Protestant or Catholic in Africa and opens alternative ways to read the chain of missionary native African and missionary European colonists relationships Christian missionaries did not come to Africa for their own interests the Christianization of Africa European colonial projects the interests of Africans the establishment of European civilization in Africa but came for all Once there was a dialogue between the Christian missionaries and pagan Africans which was in time replaced by contest for superiority and finally by conflict Accordingly the countenance of the continent has changed forever A Christian and African Ethic of Women's Political Participation Léocadie W. Lushombo,2022-11-30 This book surveys a broad panorama of Christian and African traditions to discover and assess the components that will illuminate and motivate a Christian and African ethic of women s political participation The author s primary lens for diagnosing the problems faced by women in Africa is Engelbert Mveng s concept of anthropological poverty that results from slavery and colonialism It affects women in unique ways and is exacerbated by the religious and cultural histories of women s oppression The author advocates an interplay between the sacredness of every individual's life a salient principle of Christian ethics and the collective consciousness of solidarity distinctive to African cultures This interplay can in turn foster a more enlightened approach to African masculinity Using a sophiological hermeneutic this in depth study undertakes a moral imagination through narrative criticism It argues that the existential reality of African women must be addressed as an essential element in the development of Christian socio political ethic The righteous solidaristic and resistant anger of women can transform patriarchy and inform Catholic social teaching The author draws on The Circle of concerned African women theologians postcolonial theorists inculturation theology African males and Jon Sobrino's liberation theology to present an innovative Christian ethic that will radically affect the lives of African women and inform feminist theology

The African Imagination F. Abiola Irele, 2001-09-27 This collection of essays by one of Africa's leading scholars examines African literary traditions in the broad sense and places the work of individual authors in context Here F Abiola Irele presents probing critical readings of the works of Chinua Achebe Kamau Brathwaite Amadou Hapae Ba and Amadou Kourouma among others In addition to discussing texts central to the evolving canon of African literature The African Imagination addresses both the growing presence of African writing in the global literary marketplace and the relationship between African intellectuals and the West

Recognizing Other Subjects Katherine E Lassiter, 2017-01-26 How do we care justly when the self suffers because of the identity that they inhabit Pastoral theologian Katharine E Lassiter approaches this interdisciplinary question from a feminist perspective in order to understand how suffering subject formation and social injustice are connected Lassiter identifies the challenges of identity in developing a pastoral theological anthropology reflecting on tensions in her own experiences of caring for selves Drawing from theories of recognition she argues that doing just care requires recognizing the need for recognition as well as acknowledging the impediments to receiving interpersonal social and theological recognition Bringing together resources from pastoral theology and social theory she develops a feminist pastoral theology and praxis of encounter in order to advance a care that does justice Scholars social justice practitioners and pastoral caregivers will be able to use this resource to discover not only how and why recognition affects human development but also how we might implement a liberative theological praxis that is attentive to the role of recognition in subject formation

Africa's Future Duncan Clarke, 2012-02-09 Many seek to fix Africa economists experts politicians gurus cognoscenti and glitterati But the continent conceals multiple secrets including the Holy Grail explanations of its saga over the previous centuries Africa's Future tells the tale of Africa's economic evolution revealing unique prisms for understanding the continent's panoramic story one of triumph over the lasting influences of nature and multiple political tragedies Modern Africa developed diverse economic pathways to betterment yet survivalist economies litter the landscape Its paradox of subsistence with many faces coexists amidst the tiny middle class growing rich and many more poor expected in the future Clarke provides fresh and challenging insights into Africa's economies and future offering seasoned views on a continent of unlocked potential which has witnessed many false dawns Not poor but poorly managed Africa holds greater promise its destiny revealed by its history

Critical Perspectives on African Politics Clive Gabay, Carl Death, 2014-05-09 Strong states and strong civil societies are now increasingly hailed as the twin drivers of a rising Africa Current attempts to support growth and democracy are part of a longer history of promoting projects of disciplinary regulatory and liberal rule and values beyond the West Yet this is not simply Western domination of a passive continent Such an interpretation misses out on the complexities and nuances of the politics of state building and civil society promotion and the central role of African agency Drawing upon critical theory including postcolonial and governmentality approaches this book interrogates international practices of state building and civil society support in Africa It seeks to develop a theoretically informed critical approach to discourses and interventions such as those associated with broadly Western initiatives in Africa In doing so the book highlights the power relations inequalities coercion and violence that are deeply implicated within contemporary international interventions on the African continent Providing a range of empirical cases and theoretical approaches the chapters are united by their critical treatment of political dynamics in Africa This book will be of interest to students and scholars of African politics development studies postcolonial theory International Relations international political economy and peacekeeping making The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1985 Rethinking Development Challenges for Public Policy K. Hanson,G. Kararach,T. Shaw,2012-04-05 Covers topical issues for Africa s development economics and politics of climate change water management public service delivery and delivering aid The authors argue that these issues should be included in the post MDG paradigm and add an important voice to recent moves by academics and practitioners to engage with each other Rights and the Politics of Recognition in Africa Harri Englund,Francis B. Nyamnjoh,2004-09-18 Publisher Description The Palgrave Handbook of Religion, Peacebuilding, and Development in Africa Susan M. Kilonzo,Ezra Chitando,Joram Tarusarira,2023-10-17 This Handbook explores the ways in which religion among the African people has been applied in situations of conflict and violence to contribute to sustainable peace and development It analyzes how peacebuilding inspired and enabled by religion serves as the foundation for sustainable development in Africa while also acknowledging that religion can also be a tool of destruction and can be used to fuel violence and underdevelopment Contributors to this volume offer theoretical discussions from existing literature as well as experiences of practitioners to deepen the readers understanding on the role of religion and religious institutions in peacebuilding and development in Africa The Handbook provides reflections on possible future developments as well thereby aligning with the goals of SDG 16
