Lamentations Of A Child:

Lamentations of a Child y Joyce Wyche, 2012-02-07 Some people believe that giving themselves to God is a life of blessings and euphoria In truth the people of God will experience a wealth of emotions and sometimes guilt will accompany those feelings The challenge is in how we deal with those emotions In Lamentations of a Child author Joyce Wyche helps readers discover they are subject to all emotions as were the prophets of old Her writings explore the importance of navigating through your emotions and finding the inspiration to come out on the other side with a new or renewed sense of strength Lamentations of a Child reminds us that the adversary should never be allowed to make one feel guilty or inadequate Although the adversary may believe he has control over us he is wrong After all we are created in Gods image We are more than conquerors we have ultimate victory in Christ Give Me Children Or I Shall Die Laurel W. Koepf-Taylor, 2013-11-01

In the subsistence agricultural social context of the Hebrew Bible children were necessary for communal survival In such an economy children s labor contributes to the family s livelihood from a young age rather than simply preparing the child for future adult work Ethnographic research shows that this interdependent family life contrasts significantly with that of privileged modern Westerners for whom children are dependents This text seeks to look beyond the dominant cultural constructions of childhood in the modern West and the moral rhetoric that accompanies them so as to uncover what biblical texts intend to communicate when they utilize children as literary tropes in their own social cultural and historical context The Holy Bible: Isaiah, Jeremiah, Lamentations, Ezekiel, Daniel, and the Minor prophets, 1825

Lamentations Jill Middlemas, 2020-12-10 In this guide Jill Middlemas introduces students to the Book of Lamentations by examining the book s structure and characteristics covering the latest in biblical scholarship on Lamentations including historical and interpretive issues and considering a range of scholarly approaches In particular the guide provides students with an introduction to Hebrew poetry as it relates to Lamentations and includes insights from the field of trauma and postcolonial studies With suggestions of further reading at the end of each chapter this guide will be an useful accompaniment to study of Lamentations Surviving Lamentations Tod Linafelt, 2000-07 Most contemporary interpretations of the biblical book of Lamentations focus on the figure of the suffering man as a role model for submission in the face of God s punishment for sin Yet such a model offers small consolation to survivors of the Holocaust or other mass atrocities and also ignores chapters 1 and 2 of Lamentations in which the personification of Zion laments her sufferings and demands a response on behalf of her dying children In Surviving Lamentations Tod Linafelt offers an alternative reading of Lamentations in light of the literature of survival works written by survivors of catastrophe as well as literary and philosophical reflections on the survival of literature He refocuses attention on the figure of Zion as a manifestation of a basic need to give voice to suffering and traces the afterlife of Lamentations in Jewish literature in which text after text attempts to provide the response to Zion s lament that is lacking in Lamentations itself Seen through Linafelt s eyes Lamentations emerges as uncannily relevant to contemporary discourse on survival

The Child's Bible, 1883 Nurturing Child and Adolescent Spirituality Karen-Marie Yust, 2006 Nurturing Child and Adolescent Spirituality Perspectives from the World's Religious Traditions provides a forum for prominent religious scholars to examine the state of religious knowledge and theological reflection on spiritual development in childhood and adolescence Featuring essays from thinkers representing the world's major religious traditions the book introduces new voices challenges assumptions raises new questions and broadens the base of knowledge and investment in this important domain of life It specifically and intentionally focuses on theological and philosophical perspectives from within religious traditions creating space for the religious traditions to find their voices Nurturing Child and Adolescent Spirituality is firmly grounded in the language and priorities of religious studies and helps stimulate explorations of whether and how religious communities are tapping their own wisdom and strengths in nurturing today's young people in a complex and changing world Nurturing Child and Adolescent Spirituality will set the stage for new waves of scholarship and dialogue within and across traditions disciplines and cultures that will enrich understanding and strengthen how the world's religious traditions and others understand and cultivate the spiritual lives of children and adolescents around the globe

The Singers of Lamentations Nancy Lee, 2021-10-01 The author analyzes the poetic songs of biblical Lamentations with oral poetic folkloric method for the first time with surprising results Contemporary lament poems are then compared from recent post war Croatia and Bosnia Herzegovina about suffering in cities under siege Oral poetic and socio rhetorical methods illumine two lead singers in dialogue in a mourning context employing formulas and themes of dirge psalmic and prophetic traditions in their compositions but infusing these with their individual artistry to respond to Jerusalem's destruction Poets through history and across cultures share common ground in how they render the suffering of their war torn cities The prophet Jeremiah emerges in Lamentations as one lead singer by virtue of how he modifies traditional formulas imagery themes terms in response to the context A woman emerges as another lead singer who pushes the limits of current theology in crisis

T&T Clark Handbook of Children in the Bible and the Biblical World Sharon Betsworth, Julie Faith Parker, 2019-05-16 This ground breaking volume examines the presentation and role of children in the ancient world and specifically in ancient Jewish and Christian texts With carefully commissioned chapters that follow chronological and canonical progression a sequential reading of this book enables deeper appreciation of how understandings of children change over time Divided into four sections this handbook first offers an overview of key methodological approaches employed in the study of children in the biblical world and the texts at hand Three further sections examine crucial texts in which children or discussions of childhood are featured presented along chronological lines with sections on the Old Testament Hebrew Bible the Intertestamental Literature and the New Testament and Early Christian Apocrypha Relevant not only to biblical studies but also cross disciplinary scholars interested in children in antiquity

Lament for a Son Nicholas Wolterstorff, 1987-05-18 Well known Christian philosopher Nicholas Wolterstorff has authored many books that have contributed significantly to scholarship in several subjects In Lament for a Son he writes not as a scholar but as a loving father grieving the loss of his son In brief vignettes Wolterstorff explores with a moving honesty and intensity all the facets of his experience of this irreversible loss Though he grieves not as one who has no hope he finds no comfort in the pious sounding phrases that would diminish the malevolence of death The book is in one sense a narrative account of events from the numbing telephone call on a sunny Sunday afternoon that tells of 25 year old Eric's death in a mountain climbing accident to a graveside visit a year later But the book is far more than narrative Every event is an occasion for remembering for meditating for Job like anguish in the struggle to accept and understand A profoundly faith affirming book Lament for a Son gives eloquent expression to a grief that is at once unique and universal a grief for an individual irreplaceable person Though it is an intensely personal book Wolterstorff decided to publish it he says in the hope that it will be of help to some of those who find themselves with us in the company of mourners

Mixing Metaphors Sarah J. Dille, 2004-07-01 While most treatments of biblical metaphor examine individual metaphors in isolation Sarah J Dille presents a model for interpretation based on their interaction with one another Using Lakoff and Johnson's category of metaphoric coherence she argues that when nonconsistent or contradictory metaphors appear together in a literary unit the areas of overlap coherence are highlighted in each Using the images of father and mother in Deutero Isaiah as a starting point she explores how these images interact with others for example the divine warrior the redeeming kinsman the artisan of clay or the husband The juxtaposition of diverse metaphors common in Hebrew prophetic literature highlights common entailments enabling the reader to see aspects of the image which would be overlooked or invisible if read in isolation Dille argues that any metaphor for God can only be understood if it is read or heard in interaction with others within a particular cultural context

The holy ways of the Cross; or, A short treatise on ... trials and afflictions, tr. by E.H. Thompson Henri Marie Boudon, 1875

Enacting a Public Theology Clive Pearson, 2019-12-13 The practice of a public theology is to identify issues that require attention for the sake of a civil society and the flourishing of all In diverse ways the writers of Enacting a Public Theology recognise that the present is a volatile moment in time The publication explores the loss of confidence in the contemporary expressions of democracy the climate emergency accompanies the dawn of the Anthropocene the migration of people raises concerns to do with identity belonging and where is home the invasion of land wrongly described as terra nullius and then invaded demands a deepened praxis of reconciliation between first and second peoples and lastly there is an urgent need to speak into the situation of those pushed to the margins because of HIV Aids Enacting a Public Theology represents the thinking of writers from Australia and Aotearoa New Zealand It is both local and global in its concern Each one of the contributors participated in the triennial gathering of the Global Network of Public Theology held in Stellenbosch in 2016 Loneliness & Lament Patricia J. Huntington,2009 The author poses that loneliness does not only consist of the heartfelt absences of a friend partner spouse or child but rather stems from a radical breach in one s life journey She develops a philosophy of receptivity and a portrait of redemptive suffering By fully exploring notions of pain she also examines how the relation between the heart s musical attunement and meaning filled life passages can lead one to a more spiritual philosophy and a more independent life

Power of the Pen Elizabeth Padillo Olesen,2024-11-14 Synopsis It is a book of 136 poems with illustrative art of the author s own paintings and drawings It is divided into 4 sections Defining poetry its process and its voice from the heart inspiring readers to write Giving tributes to poets survivors heroes and victims in our time Delving into the valley of death personally experienced or seen in our common history of diseases pandemics climate changes violence and wars and the tragedy over quick human response by hate and vengeance Finding hope in our time in the spirituality of faith love and peace May this book lead to a deeper reflection on events and situations in history that affect us as persons as local communities and as one humanity in our one earth The author s intention is to bring the message of hope in our time through poetry as part of our own human sanity This book Power of the Pen Poetry of Hope and Peace for our Time of 136 poems in 4 sections is put together within our context of pandemics climate crises raging violence and wars Here is an attempt to present the reality in our own local and global history as one people with deep challenges in life and with a common longing for peace I hope this collection will bring hope I look at joy as something innate in every human heart and can be experienced as we daily celebrate life with love and faith These are poems from my heart also meant to encourage all those who have interest in writing to just get a pen and write Happy reading Jeremiah and Lamentations Hetty Lalleman,2015-03-24 Lifting out the understated themes of love grace promise and renewal in Jeremiah and Lamentations this commentary by Hetty Lalleman opens our eyes to an important chapter in salvation history A Mother's Lament Lee Gander,2021-06-15 Imagine an expectant mother being able to live a full and intimate life with her child before choosing to have an abortion It would make all the difference in the world In this first volume of a trilogy of books that brings the reader into the heart of those silent voices A Mother s Lament strives through living out the relationship between mother and child to clearly establish the child she carries as an individual person just as alive unique and special as you and I Share Gloria and Jeni s story as they discover a special and unique love that transcends all boundaries and time Lament in Jewish Thought Ilit Ferber,Paula Schwebel,2014-10-10 Lament mourning and the transmissibility of a tradition in the aftermath of destruction are prominent themes in Jewish thought The corpus of lament literature building upon and transforming the biblical Book of Lamentations provides a unique lens for thinking about the relationships between destruction and renewal mourning and remembrance loss and redemption expression and the inexpressible This anthology features four texts by Gershom Scholem on lament translated here for the first time into English The volume also includes original essays by leading scholars which interpret Scholem's texts and situate them in relation to other Weimar era Jewish thinkers including Walter Benjamin Franz Rosenzweig Franz Kafka and Paul Celan who drew on the textual traditions of lament to respond to the destruction and upheavals of the early twentieth century Also included are studies on the textual tradition of lament in Judaism from biblical rabbinic and medieval lamentations to contemporary Yemenite women's laments This collection unified by its strong thematic focus on lament shows the fruitfulness of studying contemporary and modern texts alongside the traditional textual sources that informed them
