Colonial Adventures: Commercial Law and Practice in the Making ,2020-11-04 Colonial Adventures Commercial Law and Practice in the Making addresses the question how and to what extend the development of commercial law and practice from Ancient Greece to the colonial empires of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries were indebted to colonial expansion and maritime trade Illustrated by experiences in Ancient Europe the Americas Asia Africa and Australia the book examines how colonial powers whether consciously or not reshaped the law in order to foster the prosperity of homeland manufacturers and entrepreneurs or how local authorities and settlers brought the transplanted law in line with the colonial objectives and the local constraints amid shifting economic commercial and political realities Contributors are Alain Cl ment Alexander Claver Oscar Cruz Barney Bas De Roo Paul du Plessis Bernard Durand David Gilles Petra Mahy David Mirhady M C Mirow Luigi Nuzzo Phillip Lipton Umakanth Varottil and Jakob Zollmann

Copyright, Creativity, Big Media and Cultural Value Kathy Bowrey,2020-11-23 As the publishing film and music industries are dominated by Big Media conglomerates there is often recourse to simplistic ideological and conspiratorial readings of industry dynamics Copyright Creativity Big Media and Cultural Value Incorporating the Author explains why copyright is much more than a creator s private property right or a mechanism through which corporations control cultural production and influence mass consumption choices The volume is grounded in extensive painstakingly detailed and colourful original archival research into business histories of major successful artists including Conan Doyle Hall Caine Margaret Atwood Dame Nellie Melba Radiohead and Banksy and the industries and genres that grew up around their activities Chapters address big questions about how copyright generates income and how distributions of profits are allocated in the publishing film and music industries It includes discussion of the creation of new formats the interplay between old media and new technologies international copyright reform and cross industry relations Copyright Creativity Big Media and Cultural Value is a wide ranging and important resource for students and practitioners of law and policy media studies cultural studies and literary history

Contemporary Australian Corporate Law Stephen Bottomley, Kath Hall, Peta Spender, Beth Nosworthy, 2020-10-28 Contemporary Australian Corporate Law is a highly regarded introduction to corporate law in Australia that provides an authoritative contextual and critical analysis of the law governing Australian corporations and financial markets It explores the rules principles doctrines and policies that constitute corporate law in Australia within their legal social economic and political contexts Clearly and precisely written this edition has been thoroughly updated and refined to reflect current Australian corporate law including recent case law changes to the Corporations Act 2001 and the impact on the corporate sector of the Financial Services Royal Commission Written by leading legal scholars Contemporary Australian Corporate Law will assist students to develop a critically informed understanding of corporate law and the role of corporations in contemporary society

The Road to Batemans Bay Alastair Greig, 2023-11-16 The Road to Batemans Bay is the story of competing ventures to create the Great Southern Township on the South Coast of New South Wales in the early 1840s The idea of developing the furthest reaches of settlement was linked to the hopes of southern woolgrowers for a road from their properties to the coast over the Great Dividing Range The township proponents dreamed that having a quicker and cheaper connection to Sydney would allow them to open a port second only to Port Jackson The scene begins with the proposed coastal township of St Vincent in an age of optimism settlement is expanding exports are growing and land prices are soaring generating Australia's first land boom Before long however the colony experiences a catastrophic economic depression whose pestilential breath infects those with a stake in the coastal townships Alastair Greig follows the fate of these individuals while also speculating on the broader fate of South Coast development during the mid nineteenth century Greig gives a unique insight into many aspects of colonial life including the worlds of Sydney's merchants auctioneers land speculators surveyors map makers and lawyers as well as its maritime challenges The Road to Batemans Bay is a chronicle of how Australia first developed its land gambling habit and how land speculation led to the road to ruin

Historical Dictionary of the British Empire Kenneth J. Panton, 2015-05-07 For much of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Britain was the dominant world power its strength based in large part on its command of an Empire that in the years immediately after World War I encompassed almost one quarter of the earth's land surface and one fifth of its population

Writers boasted that the sun never set on British possessions which provided raw materials that processed in British factories could be re exported as manufactured products to expanding colonial markets The commercial and political might was not based on any grand strategic plan of territorial acquisition however The Empire grew piecemeal shaped by the diplomatic economic and military circumstances of the times and its speedy dismemberment in the mid twentieth century was similarly a reaction to the realities of geopolitics in post World War II conditions Today the Empire has gone but it has left a legacy that remains of great significance in the modern world The Historical Dictionary of the British Empire covers its history through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Britain

Foundations of Anglican Evangelicalism in Victoria Wei-Han Kuan,2019-05-20 For more than half a century the Anglican Diocese of Melbourne was unquestionably the most rigorously evangelical and missions oriented diocese in Australia The Diocese of Sydney in that same period was decidedly broader in theological and liturgical practice How and why did Melbourne move in one direction while Sydney in the other This study suggests that the answers are to be found in four vital contributors local churches evangelical societies theological colleges and diocesan bishops For three broad periods of history between 1847 and 1937 the presence of these four contributors is uncovered described and evaluated for the Diocese of Melbourne Evangelical activism theological reflection and leadership are each shown in their contemporary contexts to help us understand how people with gospel passion sought to respond faithfully to their times This is the question of vision leadership and strategy at the heart of this study What makes for long term evangelical continuity over a hundred year period

Planning in an Uncanny World Nicholas A. Phelps,Judy Bush,Anna Hurlimann,2022-12-23 This book places Australian conditions and urban planning centrally within comparative analysis of planning systems and cultures around the world to address issues including urban governance climate change transportation planning regional development and migration planning Australian urban conditions and their associated planning responses can and often have been seen as unique or exceptional They are seldom discussed in the same breath as conditions and associated planning systems internationally Yet as well as being somewhat different from those elsewhere in the world Australian urban conditions and planning responses are also somewhat similar They are uncanny strangely familiar yet unfamiliar In this book Australian urban conditions and their planning policies and practices are informally compared and contrasted with those existing internationally If Australian urban planning policy and practice have had limited influence internationally the partial familiarity of challenges posed by its urban conditions ensure that Australia is a more important global reference point for scholarship and practice than commonly is appreciated In this book the authors assert the potential and actual originality of urban planning scholarship arising from the Australian context It will be useful for students and faculty planners working in Australia as well as anyone interested in international planning debates

Cities in the Pacific Rim James Berry, Stanley McGreal, 2002-11 This book considers the interactive relationships between the operation of planning system and the role and performance of property development and real estate markets in 14 Pacific Rim Cities drawn from both Eastern and Western perspectives

Networked Community Sue Silberberg, 2020-04-28 In 1835 a renegade group of Tasmanians wishing to expand their landholdings disembarked in what was to become Melbourne This colonising expedition was funded by a group of investors including the Jewish emancipist Joseph Solomon Thus in Melbourne as in the settlement of the continent itself Jews were at the foundation of colonisation Unlike many other settlers these Jews predominantly came from urban backgrounds Although principally from London some of them had experienced other forms of Jewish urbanism in central and eastern Europe the Ottoman Empire and the Caribbean and applied their experience to the formation of a new emancipated conceptualisation of urban Judaism In Victoria as in the other new Australian colonies there were no civil or political restrictions on the Jewish community With the establishment of Melbourne Jewish settlers were required to create new communal frameworks and the religious bodies of an active Jewish life The community's structure and the institutions they founded were a pragmatic response to the necessities of communal formation and the realities of maintaining Judaism within this colonial outpost As with other Jewish communities in the large centres of the world they responded to the freedoms of an emancipated society while the political and social environment of a new city such as Melbourne provided a unique set of opportunities Unlike in other cities where Jewish property ownership was restricted here Jews could live and work where they chose becoming from the first land sales investors in property Subsequently as the city expanded as developers and builders they influenced the formation of the urban fabric while their intellectual and economic connections brought new political and intellectual ideas and networks to the colonial experience

The Colonial Journals Ken Gelder, Rachael Weaver, 2014 Colonial Australia produced a vast number of journals and magazines that helped to create an exuberant literary landscape They were filled with lively contributions by many of the key writers and provocateurs of the day and of the future Writers such as Marcus Clarke Rolf Boldrewood Ethel Turner and Katharine Susannah Prichard published for the first time in these journals This book offers a fascinating selection of material a miscellany of content that enabled the free play of intellect to thrive and matched with wry visual design made attractive artifacts that demonstrate the role this period played in the growth of an Australian literary culture Gelder and Weaver arrange this anthology of excerpts from the journals of Australia in the later 19th century to show off the rich contents of these journals The excerpts refute the stereotype that Australia in this era was rousing nationalist The book features color illustrations of magazine covers which show how accomplished the pre 1900 publishing industry in Australia was Recommended Choice Vol 52 No 4 December 2014

Critical Realism and Housing Research Julie Lawson, 2013-01-11 Since the nineteenth century various housing solutions have evolved such as sprawling Australian home ownership and compact Dutch social rental housing This phenomenon cannot be adequately explained with simple descriptions of key events politics and housing outcomes Critical Realism and Housing Studies pushes debate forward arguing that a new ontological perspective is required to address fundamental issues in housing and comparative research This book is clearly organized into three parts which evaluate ontological and methodological alternatives for comparative housing research provide two historical case studies inspired by critical realist ontology compare the causal tendencies that explain diverging housing pathways in Australia and the Netherlands Lawson proposes that we turn to critical realism for the solution From this perspective the causal tendencies of complex open and structured housing phenomena are highlighted With this insight we are able to extract the key social arrangements which promote different housing solutions from the historical case studies Social arrangements which are found to influence alternative pathways in housing history concern the property rights circuit of savings and investment as well as labour and welfare relations As they develop differently over time and space they affect where when and how housing solutions develop
