The Encyclopedia of Fantasy John Clute, John Grant, 1999-03-15 Like its companion volume The Encyclopedia of Science Fiction this massive reference of 4 000 entries covers all aspects of fantasy from literature to art Who Owns England?:

How We Lost Our Green and Pleasant Land, and How to Take It Back Guy Shrubsole, 2019-05-02 A formidable brave and important book Robert Macfarlane Who owns England Behind this simple question lies this country's oldest and best kept secret This is the history of how England's elite came to own our land and an inspiring manifesto for how to open up our countryside once more Beyond Borders Agnieszka Adamowicz-Pośpiech, Renata Dampc-Jarosz, Andrzej

Rabsztyń, 2023-02-07 This trilingual volume focuses on acts of transgressive acting writing in selected texts of European literatures whose authors differ in gender nationality and time frame Thus the contributions collected here consider a double questioning of difference and transgression of norms Both concepts are set in relation to each other in order to be able to embed any transition in cultural social historical contexts The analyses and interpretations of selected texts from German French Polish Russian and ancient literature presented in chronological order show exemplary acts of transgression in different cultures and under changing time circumstances and document aesthetic attempts to revise the existing order and create a new one The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2007 The colonies of the United Kingdom

Augustus Cooper, 1888 Laughing at the Gods Allan C. Hutchinson, 2012-02-20 Any effort to understand how law works has to take seriously its main players judges Like any performance judging should be evaluated by reference to those who are its best exponents Not surprisingly the debate about what makes a great judge is as heated and inconclusive as the debate about the purpose and nature of law itself History shows that those who are candidates for a judicial hall of fame are game changers who oblige us to rethink what it is to be a good judge So the best of judges must tread a thin line between modesty and hubris they must be neither mere umpires nor demigods The eight judges showcased in this book demonstrate that if the test of good judging is not about getting it right but doing it well then the measure of great judging is about setting new standards for what counts as judging well Laughing Now Irene Staunton, 2007-05-15 Weaver Press's previous collections of short stories Writing Now and Writing Still were highly praised for the quality of their prose and the imagination of their writers They confirmed for one reviewer the paradoxical truth that troubled societies somehow produce some of the most interesting writing available Laughing Now goes further and demonstrates the enduring capacity of Zimbabweans to find humour in even the most difficult of circumstances The stories embrace funerals dancing competitions family tensions rampant inflation and endless queues for scarce goods They take a wry look at pompous politicians foreign filmmakers and the aspirations of the so called new farmers Those by Gappah Chingono and Eppel won the first three prizes in the recent Mukuru com short story competition Zimbabwean fiction in English has become world renowned in recent decades but its concerns war trauma and the trials of independence have chronicled the pain of those periods Laughing Now suggests that we are finding new ways to reflect our reality that however many zeros we add to the rate of inflation and however hungry we may become humour is as good a response as any     Books in Print ,1991     Argonaut ,1900     The Contemporary British Historical Novel M. Boccardi,2009-06-25 A detailed study of an increasingly popular genre this book offers readings of a group of significant and representative works drawing on a range of interpretative strategies to examine the ways in which the contemporary historical novel engages with questions of nation and identity to illuminate Britain's post imperial condition     Decolonizing Educational Relationships fatima Pirbhai-Illich,Fran Martin,Shauneen Pete,2023-12-06 The authors present a novel way of thinking and a robust foundation for de colonizing educational relationships in Higher and Teacher Education illustrated by examples of applications to practice A hybrid style of writing weaves their own narratives into the text drawing on their experiences in a range of educational settings     ,     The Farm as Natural Habitat Dana L. Jackson,Laura Jackson,2002-04 The Farm as Natural Habitat is a vital new contribution to the debate about agriculture and its impacts on the land Arising from the conviction that the agricultural landscape as a whole could be restored to a healthy diversity the book challenges the notion that the dominant agricultural landscape bereft of its original vegetation and wildlife and despoiled by chemical runoff is inevitable if we are to feed ourselves Contributors bring together insights and practices from the fields of conservation biology sustainable agriculture and environmental restoration to link agriculture and biodiversity farming and nature in celebrating a unique alternative to conventional agriculture Rejecting the idea that ecological sacrifice zones are a necessary part of feeding a hungry world the book offers compelling examples of an alternative agriculture that can produce not only healthful food but fully functioning ecosystems and abundant populations of native species Contributors include Collin Bode George Boody Brian DeVore Arthur Tex Hawkins Buddy Huffaker Rhonda Janke Richard Jefferson Nick Jordan Cheryl Miller Heather Robertson Carol Shennan Judith Soule Beth Waterhouse and others The Farm as Natural Habitat is both hopeful and visionary grounded in real examples and guided by a commitment to healthy land and thriving communities It is the first book to offer a viable approach to addressing the challenges of protecting and restoring biodiversity on private agricultural land and is essential reading for anyone concerned with issues of land or biodiversity conservation farming and agriculture ecological restoration or the health of rural communities and landscapes     Never Let The Tears, Stop You From Laughing D.
