A Tale of the Nine Lands J. K. F. Sandham, 2024-03-23 The magic within will set you free Spread your wings through the fire and fly Powerless and weak humans and dwarves have suffered under the whip and wand of giants and witches for centuries Built upon the blood of slaves the Nine Lands is a world of unimaginable wealth and power but something is shifting on the mythical continent An ancient forgotten magic stirs in the veins of those bound by its evil chains Brought together by fate an unlikely trio holds the key to release the Nine Lands from the shadows Theo a young rebellious human slave searches for courage to free the ones he loves When the cruel taskmaster harbours a sinister affection for his best friend they must find a way to escape the prison they have always called home Ash a palace servant finds her mere thoughts can kill those who hurt her She only wished the apple was poisoned So how did the prince die Exiluk a horned keradin should return home But the Nine Lands call to him for one last adventure that threatens to darken his destiny Abandoning his humble upbringing he is entranced by the treasures of the Nine Lands On separate journeys connected by destiny the three must face their inner shadows and draw on their deepest powers to spread their wings and fly In A Tale of the Nine Lands discover the uprising of ancient magic that could topple the empires of witches and giants once and for all Read J K F Sandham s debut novel in the Elderworld series

The African Skies Recollected Pasquale De Marco, 2025-07-12 In the annals of aviation history the tales of those intrepid pilots who dared to conquer the skies of Africa in the early 20th century occupy a place of honor This book is a tribute to their remarkable journeys a chronicle of their exploits and a celebration of the enduring spirit of exploration From the early days of aviation Africa beckoned as a vast and mysterious frontier The vastness of the continent its rugged terrain and its diverse climates presented formidable obstacles to air travel Yet these challenges only served to ignite the imagination of a daring few who saw in Africa a land of endless possibilities These pioneers took to the skies in flimsy aircraft often little more than modified crop dusters or converted military planes They flew without the benefit of modern navigation aids relying on their wits their instincts and the stars above to guide them They faced treacherous weather mechanical failures and the ever present danger of becoming lost in the trackless wilderness Despite the risks they persevered They established air routes that connected remote villages and opened up new frontiers for trade and exploration They transported cargo and passengers delivered medical supplies to far flung communities and played a vital role in the development of Africa Their stories are filled with adventure danger and human drama They tell of close calls and narrow escapes of triumphs over adversity and of the unyielding determination of the human spirit They are stories of courage resilience and the enduring power of dreams In this book you will encounter these remarkable aviators men and women who risked their lives to open up the African continent to the world You will learn of their motivations their struggles and their achievements You will witness their triumphs and their setbacks and you will come to appreciate the extraordinary contributions they made to the history of aviation and to our understanding of Africa Through their eyes you will glimpse a world that is long gone a world of wide open spaces untouched wilderness and endless possibilities You will be reminded of the indomitable spirit of those who dared to dream and you will be inspired by their courage and their unwavering belief in the power of human flight If you like this book write a review
