Twilight Mist Ann Justice,1992      Little Folk of Many Lands Louise Jordan Miln,1899      Hamilton Literary Magazine ,1920      Land of the Twilight Mist Carol Weakland,2011-10-17 Imagine that you are an angel whose soul purpose is to create miracles How would you feel if a curse placed restrictions on this gift Locked within a land of impenetrable mist by day you anxiously await twilight It is then the gateway opens setting you free It is then you may attend the children who so desperately call your name until the sun rises and the gateway closes once more Land of the Twilight Mist focuses on a group of angels that are far from the perfect beings often represented in historic text A mischievous prankster a fiery rebel and an ashy woodland guardian are just a few of the earthbound angels who possess idiosyncrasies that color their miracles in unique ways Each is magic to behold until the deadly Bran enacts his spell Trapped inside a dimension that opens only at night they await the arrival of a highly anticipated guardian Selene When a series of events thrust Diana Sherwood through the gateway she becomes the guardian foretold in prophesy It is her task to lead the angels on a quest that will pit them against Bran and a myriad of inner demons who have held them captive for so long
