Land Behind Baghdad Robert McCormick Adams,1994 Land Behind Baghdad Robert McC. Adams,1965 Land Behind Baghdad Ruth Adams,1965 Prehistoric Settlement Patterns and Cultures in Susiana, Southwestern Iran Abbas Alizadeh,1992-01-01 This book reports the results of an archaeological survey undertaken in southwestern Iran by a remarkable researcher Dr F G L Gremliza The author Abbas Alizadeh presents Gremliza s survey data and provides an analysis of the developmental implications Settlement Patterns in the Chifeng Region Chifeng International Collaborative Archaeological Research Project,2011 This volume and the accompanying online dataset provide the complete results of a regional settlement study of 1 234 square kilometers in the Inner Mongolia Autonomous Region of northeastern China Results of systematic study of the relationship between surface and subsurface remains are presented based on sites that were surveyed as part of the regional survey and subsequently intensively surface collected and test excavated The volume concludes with a comprehensive synthesis of the regional trajectory of social change from 6000 BCE to 1300 CE offered as a basis for comparison with those of other regions where complex societies developed Settlement Ecology of the Ancient Americas Lucas C. Kellett,Eric Jones,2016-10-04 In this exciting new volume several leading researchers use settlement ecology an emerging approach to the study of archaeological settlements to examine the spatial arrangement of prehistoric settlement patterns across the Americas Positioned at the intersection of geography human ecology anthropology economics and archaeology this diverse collection showcases successful applications of the settlement ecology approach in archaeological studies and also discusses associated techniques such as GIS remote sensing and statistical and modeling applications Using these methodological advancements the contributors investigate the specific social cultural and environmental factors which mediated the placement and arrangement of different sites Of particular relevance to scholars of landscape and settlement archaeology Settlement Ecology of the Ancient Americas provides fresh insights not only into past societies but also present and future populations in a rapidly changing world The Emergence of Civilisation Charles Keith Maisels,2003-12-16 The Emergence of Civilisation is a major contribution to our understanding of the development of urban culture and social stratification in the Near Eastern region Charles Maisels argues that our present assumptions about state formation based on nineteenth century speculations are wrong His investigation illuminates the changes in scale complexity and hierarchy which accompany the development of civilisation The book draws conclusions about the dynamics of social change and the processes of social evolution in general applying those concepts to the rise of Greece and Rome and to the collapse of the classical Mediterranean world Authority and Control in the Countryside Alain Delattre,Marie Legendre,Petra Sijpesteijn,2018-11-26 Authority and Control in the Countryside looks at the economic religious political and cultural instruments that local and regional powers in the late antique to early medieval Mediterranean and Near East used to manage their rural hinterlands The New Cambridge History of Islam: Volume 1, The Formation of

the Islamic World, Sixth to Eleventh Centuries Chase F. Robinson, 2010-11-04 Volume One of The New Cambridge History of Islam which surveys the political and cultural history of Islam from its Late Antique origins until the eleventh century brings together contributions from leading scholars in the field The book is divided into four parts The first provides an overview of the physical and political geography of the Late Antique Middle East The second charts the rise of Islam and the emergence of the Islamic political order under the Umayyad and the Abbasid caliphs of the seventh eighth and ninth centuries followed by the dissolution of the empire in the tenth and eleventh Regionalism the overlapping histories of the empire's provinces is the focus of Part Three while Part Four provides a cutting edge discussion of the sources and controversies of early Islamic history including a survey of numismatics archaeology and material culture The Geography of Trade: Landscapes of competition and long-distance contacts in Mesopotamia and Anatolia in the Old Assyrian Colony Period Alessio Palmisano, 2018-10-31 A reassessment of the Old Assyrian trade network in Upper Mesopotamia and Central Anatolia during the Middle Bronze Age this volume examines exchange networks and economic strategies continuity and discontinuity of specific trade circuits and routes and the evolution of political landscapes throughout the Near East Collective Action in the Formation of Pre-Modern States Richard Blanton, Lane Fargher, 2008 Anthropological archaeology and other disciplines concerned with the formation of early complex societies are undergoing a theoretical shift Given the need for new directions in theory the book proposes that anthropologists look to political science especially the rational choice theory of collective action The authors subject collective action theory to a methodologically rigorous evaluation using systematic cross cultural analysis based on a world wide sample of societies Archaeology of Iran in the Historical Period Kamal-Aldin Niknami, Ali Hozhabri, 2020-05-22 This collection of twenty eight essays presents an up to date survey of pre Islamic Iran from the earliest dynasty of Illam to the end of Sasanian empire encompassing a rich diversity of peoples and cultures Historically Iran served as a bridge between the earlier Near Eastern cultures and the later classical world of the Mediterranean and had a profound influence on political military economic and cultural aspects of the ancient world Written by international scholars and drawing mainly on the field of practical archaeology which traditionally has shared little in the way of theories and methods the book provides crucial pieces to the puzzle of the national identity of Iranian cultures from a historical perspective Revealing the wealth and splendor of ancient Iranian society its rich archaeological data and sophisticated artistic craftsmanship most of which has never before been presented outside of Iran this beautifully illustrated book presents a range of studies addressing specific aspects of Iranian archaeology to show why the artistic masterpieces of ancient Iranians rank among the finest ever produced Together the authors analyze how archaeology can inform us about our cultural past and what remains to still be discovered in this important region Creating an Islamic City Rana Mikati, 2024-03-04 In Creating an Islamic City Beirut Jihad and the Sacred Rana Mikati examines for the first time the role and contribution of Beirut to the Umayyad and early Abbasid caliphates This book traces the transformation of Beirut from a

Byzantine metropolis to a place of rib weaving previously unpublished archaeological material and narrative sources By examining Beirut's transformation into a frontier town the rise of a scholarly community around the Syrian jurist al Awz d 157 773 774 and its integration in an Islamic sacred landscape Creating an Islamic City shows how a provincial frontier town was integrated and participated in the early caliphate Archaeological Geography of the Ganga Plain Dilip K. Chakrabarti, 2001 This Book Discusses The Ancient Historical Geography Of The Lower And Middle Sections Of The Ganga Plain Its Basis Is A Field Study Of The Distribution Of Archaeological Sites In The Region This Extremely Significant Work Of Scholarship Has Detailed Maps And A Large Plate Section The Invisible Hand? Bas van Bavel, 2019-04-29 The Invisible Hand offers a radical departure from the conventional wisdom of economists and economic historians by showing that factor markets and the economies dominated by them the market economies are not modern but have existed at various times in the past They rise stagnate and decline and consist of very different combinations of institutions embedded in very different societies These market economies create flexibility and high mobility in the exchange of land labour and capital and initially they generate economic growth although they also build on existing social structures as well as existing exchange and allocation systems The dynamism that results from the rise of factor markets leads to the rise of new market elites who accumulate land and capital and use wage labour extensively to make their wealth profitable In the long term this creates social polarization and a decline of average welfare As these new elites gradually translate their economic wealth into political leverage it also creates institutional sclerosis and finally makes these markets stagnate or decline again This process is analysed across the three major pre industrial examples of successful market economies in western Eurasia Iraq in the early Middle Ages Italy in the high Middle Ages and the Low Countries in the late Middle Ages and the early modern period and then parallels drawn to England and the United States in the modern period These areas successively saw a rapid rise of factor markets and the associated dynamism followed by stagnation which enables an in depth investigation of the causes and results of this process The Origins and Character of the Ancient Chinese City Paul Wheatley, 2017-07-12 These two volumes elucidate the manner in which there emerged on the North China plain hierarchically structured functionally specialized social institutions organized on a political and territorial basis during the second millennium b c They describe the way in which during subsequent centuries these institutes were diffused through much of the rest of North and Central China Author Paul Wheatley equates the emergence of the ceremonial center as evidenced in Shang China with a functional and developmental stage in urban genesis and substantiates his argument with comparative evidence from the Americas Mesopotamia Egypt Southeast Asia the Mediterranean and the Yoruba territories The Origins and Character of the Ancient Chinese City seeks in small measure to help redress the current imbalance between our knowledge of the contemporary Western style city on the one hand and of the urbanism characteristic of the traditional world on the other Those aspects of urban theory which have been derived predominantly from the investigation of Western urbanism are tested against rather than applied to ancient China The Origins and Character of the Ancient Chinese City examines the cosmological symbolism of the Chinese city constructed as a world unto itself It suggests with a wealth of argument and evidence that this cosmo magical role underpinned the functional unity of the city everywhere until new bases for urban life began to develop in the Hellenistic world Whereas the majority of previous investigations into the nature of the Chinese city have been undertaken from the standpoint of elites The Origins and Character of the Ancient Chinese City has adopted a point of view closer to that of the social scientist than the geographer

Agricultural Strategies Joyce Marcus, Charles Stanish, 2006-12-31 This volume brings together a diverse set of new studies archaeological ethnohistoric and ethnographic that focus on agricultural intensification and hydraulic systems around the world Fifteen chapters written by many of the world s leading experts combine extensive regional overviews of agricultural histories with in depth case studies In this volume are chapters on agriculture in the Middle East South Asia Europe Oceania Mesoamerica and South America A wide range of theoretical perspectives and approaches are used to provide a framework for agricultural land use and water management in a variety of cultural and historical contexts This book covers the co evolutionary relationships among sociopolitical structure agriculture land use and water control Agricultural Strategies is an invaluable resource for those engaged in ongoing debates about the role of intensification and agriculture in the past and present The Age of Agade Benjamin R. Foster, 2015-12-14 The Age of Agade is the first book length study of the Akkadian period of Mesopotamian history which saw the rise and fall of the world's first empire during more than a century of extraordinary political social and cultural innovation It draws together more than 40 years of research by one of the world's leading experts in Assyriology to offer an exhaustive survey of the Akkadian empire Addressing all aspects of the empire including its statecraft and military territory and cities arts religion economy and production The Age of Agade considers what can be said of Akkadian political and social history material culture and daily life A final chapter also explores how the empire has been presented in modern historiography from the decipherment of cuneiform to the present including the extensive research of Soviet historians summarized here in English for the first time Drawing on contemporaneous written and artifactual sources as well as relevant materials from succeeding generations Foster introduces the reader to the wealth of evidence available Accessibly written by a specialist in the field this book is an engaging examination of a critical era in the history of early Mesopotamia Sasanian Persia Touraj

Daryaee, 2014-08-15 I B Tauris in association with the Iran Heritage Foundation Of profound importance in late antiquity the Sasanian Empire is almost completely unknown today except as a counterpoint to the Roman Empire What are the reasons for this ignorance and why does the Sasanian Empire matter In this brilliant and highly readable new history Touraj Daryaee fills a huge gap in our knowledge of world history He examines the Sasanians complex and colourful narrative and demonstrates their unique significance not only for the development of Iranian civilisation but also for Roman and Islamic history The Sasanians were the last of the ancient Persian dynasties and are best known as the preeminent practitioners of the Zoroastrian religion From its foundation by Ardashir I in 224 CE the Sasanian Empire was the dominant force in the Middle East for several centuries until its last king Yazdgerd III was defeated by the Muslim Arabs whose horsemen swept away his seemingly far more powerful empire in the 7th century Theirs was the first post Hellenic civilisation in the Near East to operate on an imperial scale and its sphere of influence and contact was unparalleled from India to the Levant and from the Arabian Peninsula to the Caspian Sea In this concise yet comprehensive new book Touraj Daryaee provides an unrivalled account of Sasanian Persia Drawing on extensive new sources he paints a vivid portrait of Sasanian life and unravels the divergent strands that contributed to the making of this great Empire religion not just Zoroastrianism but also Manichaeism the economy administration the multiple languages and their literature as well as the Empire's often neglected social history Daryaee also explores for the first time in an integrated book on the Sasanians their descendants attempts for more than a century after their defeat to establish a second state and reveals how their values and traditions have endured both in Iranian popular culture and in the literary tradition of the Persian language and literature to the present day Sasanian Persia is a unique examination of a period of history that still has great significance for a full understanding of modern Iran
