Meek, 1968 Land Law and Custom in the Colonies Alexander Duncan Campbell Peterson, 1949 Nigerian Land Law and Custom T. Olawale Elias, 2024-10-31 Originally published in 1951 Nigerian Land Law and Custom now with a new preface by Olusoji Elias the first of its kind is an excellent comparative study of the whole system of land tenure in Nigeria There are of course a few anthropological attempts almost invariably designed as or inspired by Government Reports on some specific areas of the country and their aim is therefore often administrative or fiscal This book is accordingly an attempt to create a legal order out of the chaos of lay approaches and to examine and systematize as far as possible such principles of indigenous tenure as are discernible in available materials in the light of the growing body of case law This book will be of value to students and researchers of African law and custom and of comparative jurisprudence Land law and custom in the colonies, with an introd Charles Kingsley Meek, Land Law and Custom in the Colonies ... Second Edition Charles Kingsley Meek, 1949 Land Law and Custom in the Colonies ... With an Introduction by Lord Hailey. Second Edition Charles Kingsley Meek, 1968 LAW, CUSTOM AND PROPERTY RIGHTS AMONG THE ?MA/NYIMA? OF THE NUBA MOUNTAINS IN THE SUDAN Hunud Abia Kadouf, 2014-11-18 This book is based on an extensive field work in which the author tried to study the customary law of property of an African agrarian tribal community of ma also known as Nyima of the Nuba Mountains in the northern Sudan The writer has tried to explain the nature of property holding in the light of the people's philosophy evidenced in their social structure and their traditional beliefs Special attention is paid to the traditional structure of political leadership in this highly segmented society that was prone not only to inter tribal wars but was also in a constant fission and fusion among themselves when not at war with other neighboring tribes In discussing jurisdictional issues and traditional settlement mechanisms based partly on law and custom both adopted by this egalitarian society the study is made currently relevant by keen observation on the effect of modernity on traditional ethics and morality of the ma society that was once described by some authors as being impervious to foreign influence Furthermore the reception and assimilation of the state law together with the Shari ah laws in various areas such as that relating to property devolution family institution and burial rites is treated as being of great significance in the overall development of the tribal customary laws Like any other Nuba tribe the consciousness of the ma people of their ethos of identity marks their ferociously guarded customs and traditions prevalent up to date The book is not only a precious academic endeavor full of keen observations in depth study and analysis of tribal customary laws of property but is also a memoir for the author to commemorate formidable tribal group of the ma people in the Nuba Mountains of the Sudan

Essays in African Land Law Robert Home (College teacher),2011 Before the Rise of the Modern Copperbelt Mwelwa C. Musambachime,2017-11-27 In Zambia the history of industrial and commercial mining is over 115 years The earlier period from 1900 to 1920 is least known It is ignored passed over or referred to in passing by academics and non academics The earlier period forms the building blocks on which the later more successful mining enterprise in the mid 1920s was anchored This study looks at this period and discusses the beginning of mining enterprises from the beginning Colonial rule began with the British South Africa Company administering the two territories acquiring mining the Barotse concessions in North Western Rhodesia followed by an assortment of treaties with a number African chiefs in North Eastern Rhodesia As the country did not have geological maps mineral deposits had to be found by amateur prospectors employed by a number of mining companies With this support prospectors fanned parts of the country looking for valuable and economically exploitable minerals deposits in various parts of the country Copper deposits were dominant Some deposits located on sites of ancient mines in the Kafue Hook Kansanshi and Bwana Mkubwa were pegged with the help of African chiefs and citizens as guides Others such as the zinc and lead found at Broken Hill mine and the Sassare gold in Petauke were found by sheer luck and chance

The State and the Legacies of British Colonial Development in Malawi Gift Wasambo Kayira,2023-01-09 What were the origins of British ideas on rural poverty and how did they shape development practice in Malawi How did the international development narrative influence the poverty discourse in postcolonial Malawi from the 1960s onwards In The State and the Legacies of British Colonial Development in Malawi Confronting Poverty 1939

1983 Gift Wasambo Kayira addresses these questions Although by no means rehabilitating colonialism the book argues that the intentions of officials and agencies charged with delivering economic development programs were never as ill informed or wicked as some theorists have contended Raising rural populations from poverty was on the agenda before and after independence How to reconcile the pressing demand of stabilizing the country s economy and alleviating rural poverty within the context of limited resources proved an impossible task to achieve Also difficult was how to reconcile the interests of outside experts influenced by international geopolitics and theories of economic development and those of local personnel and politicians As a result development efforts always fell short of their goals Through a meticulous search of the archive on rural and industrial development projects Kayira presents a development history that displays the shortfalls of existing works on development inadequately grounded in historical study

Imperial Justice Bonny Ibhawoh, 2013-10-03 Imperial Justice explores the imperial control of judicial governance and the adjudication of colonial difference in British Africa Focusing on the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council and the colonial regional Appeal Courts for West Africa and East Africa it examines how judicial discourses of native difference and imperial universalism in local disputes influenced practices of power in colonial settings and shaped an evolving jurisprudence of Empire Arguing that the Imperial Appeal Courts were key sites where colonial legal modernity was fashioned the book examines the tensions that permeated the colonial legal system such as the difficulty of upholding basic standards of British justice while at the same time allowing for local customary divergence which was thought essential to achieving that justice The modernizing mission of British justice could only truly be achieved through recognition of local exceptionality and difference Natives who appealed to the Courts of Empire were entitled to the same standards of justice as their civilized colonists yet the boundaries of racial ethnic and cultural difference somehow had to be recognized and maintained in the adjudicatory process Meeting these divergent goals required flexibility in colonial law making as well as in the administration of justice In the paradox of integration and differentiation imperial power and local cultures were not always in conflict but were sometimes complementary and mutually reinforcing The book draws attention not only to the role of Imperial Appeal Courts in the colonies but also to the reciprocal place of colonized peoples in shaping the processes and outcomes of imperial justice A valuable addition to British colonial literature this book places Africa in a central role and examines the role of the African colonies in the shaping of British Imperial jurisprudence

Brazilian-African Diaspora in Ghana Kwame Essien, 2016-10-01 Brazilian African Diaspora in Ghana is a fresh approach challenging both pre existing and established notions of the African Diaspora by engaging new regions conceptualizations and articulations that move the field forward This book examines the untold story of freed slaves from Brazil who thrived socially culturally and economically despite the challenges they encountered after they settled in Ghana Kwame Essien goes beyond the one dimensional approach that only focuses on British abolitionists funding of freed slaves resettlements in Africa The new interpretation of reverse migrations examines the paradox of freedom in discussing how emancipated Brazilian

Africans came under threat from British colonial officials who introduced stringent land ordinances that deprived the freed Brazilian Africans from owning land particularly Brazilian land Essien considers anew contention between the returnees and other entities that were simultaneously vying for control over social political commercial and religious spaces in Accra and tackles the fluidity of memory and how it continues to shape Ghana's history The ongoing search for lost connections with the support of the Brazilian government inspiring multiple generations of Tabom offspring of the returnees to travel across the Atlantic and back especially in the last decade illustrates the unending nature of the transatlantic diaspora journey and its impacts

Deeds, Titles, and Changing Concepts of Land Rights David Rens, 2020-12-09 This book explores the history of public land tenure records which first began in colonial Massachusetts as English settlers and Native Americans tried to resolve differing ideas about rights to land in the seventeenth century In South Australia a similar method of state certification of land ownership arose in the nineteenth century through Torrens system title registration a process that would be widely adopted in British and American colonies as a particularly effective way of guaranteeing absolute fee simple ownership over indigenous peoples land This book explores the similarities between these two record systems highlighting how similar settlement patterns and religious beliefs in both places focused attention on recording land tenure and illustrating how these record systems encouraged new ways of thinking about rights to and on land

The Crown Colonist, 1947 Imperialism and Human Rights Bonny Ibhawoh, 2008-01-03 2007 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title In this seminal study Bonny Ibhawoh investigates the links between European imperialism and human rights discourses in African history Using British colonized Nigeria as a case study he examines how diverse interest groups within colonial society deployed the language of rights and liberties to serve varied socioeconomic and political ends Ibhawoh challenges the linear progressivism that dominates human rights scholarship by arguing that in the colonial African context rights discourses were not simple monolithic or progressive narratives They served both to insulate and legitimize power just as much as they facilitated transformative processes Drawing extensively on archival material this book shows how the language of rights like that of civilization and modernity became an important part of the discourses deployed to rationalize and legitimize empire
