Go Now:

"The" Works Francis Beaumont, 1866 The Art and Craft of Play Directing David Stevens, 2013-03-13 Theatre is an interpretive art based upon a director's emotional reaction to reading a play and imagining a production of that play Before the audience experiences the production the director must go through a process part art and part craft to create it This book is intended to introduce undergraduate students with a solid theatre background to that process Stevens includes chapters covering theatre and art the interpretation of the script composition and movement working with actors and matters of style Each chapter contains exercises in order for students to consolidate what they have learned The complete text of John Millington Synge's Riders to the Sea is included as an example and study text and Stevens relates many examples from his own rich directing background Twenty production photos two sample floor plans and numerous diagrams round out the text The study of directing is a life long project and in this book Stevens provides a basis for that study Children In Time - Hardback Lizzy Riddle, 2012 Two young sisters Verity and Gabrielle Pryce and their cousin Emma embark on an incredible adventure when they come across a mysterious door that leads them into a different century When they pass through the door for the first time they encounter a Victorian workman whose life hangs in the balance can they save him with modern medicines This is the first of several encounters with the Griffiths family and each time they return through the door many years have passed on the Victorian side With each of their adventures their very presence and actions could change history and all the while their relationship with the Griffiths family strengthens until it ultimately and profoundly affects the lives of the girls and their family in 1999 This is an exciting and intriguing story where fact and fiction intertwine Records and Briefs of the United States Supreme Court, 1832 The Guide to the Perplexed Moses Maimonides, 2024-05-28 A landmark new translation of the most significant text in medieval Jewish thought Written in Arabic and completed around 1190 the Guide to the Perplexed is among the most powerful and influential living texts in Jewish philosophy a masterwork navigating the straits between religion and science logic and revelation The author Rabbi Moses ben Maimon commonly known as Maimonides or as Rambam was a Sephardi Jewish philosopher jurist and physician He wrote his Guide in the form of a letter to a disciple But the perplexity it aimed to cure might strike anyone who sought to square logic mathematics and the sciences with biblical and rabbinic traditions In this new translation by philosopher Lenn E Goodman and historian Phillip I Lieberman Maimonides' warm conversational voice and clear explanatory language come through as never before in English Maimonides knew well the challenges facing serious inquirers at the confluence of the two great streams of thought and learning that Arabic writers labeled aql and naql reason and tradition The aim of the Guide he wrote is to probe the mysteries of physics and metaphysics But mysteries to Maimonides were not conundrums to be celebrated for their obscurity They were problems to be solved Maimonides' methods and insights resonate throughout the work of later Jewish thinkers rationalists and mystics and in the work of philosophers like Thomas Aquinas Spinoza Leibniz and Newton The Guide

continues to inspire inquiry discovery and vigorous debate among philosophers theologians and lay readers today Goodman and Lieberman s extensive and detailed commentary provides readers with historical context and philosophical enlightenment giving generous access to the nuances complexities and profundities of what is widely agreed to be the most significant textual monument of medieval Jewish thought a work that still offers a key to those who hope to harmonize religious commitments and scientific understanding

Mr Todd's Reckoning Iain Maitland,2019-04-25 Behind the normal door of a normal house in a normal street two men are slowly driving each other insane One of them is a psychopath The father Mr Todd is at his wits end He s been robbed of his job as a tax inspector and is now stuck at home with him Frustrated Lonely Angry Really angry The son Adrian has no job no friends He is at home all day obsessively chopping vegetables and tap tap tapping on his computer And he s getting worse disappearing for hours at a time sneaking o to who knows where The unholy spirit in the safety of suburbia one man has developed a taste for killing And he ll kill again
