

International Literacy Day

15th September

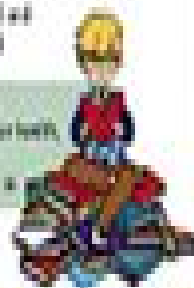

What is Literacy?

Literacy is all about being able to read and understand if you are literate, you know what written or printed text or numbers mean.

Literacy, teaches all through your life. Literacy tells you when you are ill what you need to do to feel better.

Literacy is a human right! Being able to read and write is a powerful tool for any human being.

- It allows us to learn about many things
- It helps us to make decisions about our health, our work and our lives
- It allows us to think for ourselves
