God And Freedom Essays In Historical And Systematic Theology:

God and Freedom , A new theological approach to a subject central for both Christian belief and human life Colin Gunton's Trinitarian Theology of Culture Andrew Picard,2024-06-27 Whilst upholding some of the criticisms of Colin Gunton's work this incisive book argues that there is a Hauptbriefe in Gunton reception that assumes his early classic works The One the Three and the Many and The Promise of Trinitarian Theology 1st ed are definitive of his project and fail to engage adequately with the progressions in Gunton's later thought Instead this book offers a fresh reading of Gunton by giving greater prominence to his later writings which are centred in the mediation of the Son and the Spirit in creation Andrew Picard argues that Gunton's trinitarian theology of culture emerges from his later trinitarian theology of mediation creation Christology pneumatology and ecclesiology Exploring these doctrinal foci enables an understanding of Gunton's account of faithful human culture as embodied worship a living sacrifice of praise which contributes to the divine redemption and perfection of creation It is the church's particular calling to embody such praise through its visible life in community The study concludes by intersecting Gunton's theology with the social sciences to critique ableism and consider the politics of the church's belonging in community Divine Freedom and the Doctrine of the Immanent Trinity Paul D. Molnar,2017-02-23 Divine Freedom and the Doctrine of the Immanent Trinity is widely acclaimed by scholars in the field of Christian systematic theology Molnar's quest to place the doctrine of the immanent Trinity on the agenda of the Christian doctrine of God has proven to be a signal contribution to the debate in contemporary Christian theology The material in this second edition has been thoroughly updated it contains a new preface and a new introduction as well as a revised bibliography The book includes a brand new chapter titled Divine Freedom Revisited which addresses those questions that have arisen in connection with Molnar's original presentation of the divine freedom Molnar revisits here his discussion of the Logos Asarkos the theologies of Karl Rahner and Wolfhart Pannenberg He sheds new light on Rahner's and Torrance's discussions of the Resurrection and incorporates modern discussions by contemporary theologians to offer new insights into Eberhard Jüngel's thinking Doctrine of Creation Colin E. Gunton,2004-07-09 This study by leading scholars from around the world engages with central hermeneutical philosophical and theological dimensions of the doctrine of creation Particular prominence is given to discussion of creation out of nothing in the relation of eternal creator to temporal creation the Trinitarian construction of the doctrine and its ethical implications The essays comprise Robert Jenson on the doctrine of creation Paul Helm on eternal creation Colin Gunton on Genesis and on the Reformers Alan Torrance on spatio-temporal dimensions Daniel Hardy on creation and eschatology Brian Horne on divine and human creativity Christoph Schwobel on God creation and the Christian community These expert contributions open up new dimensions to an important topic currently receiving renewed attention The Tragedy of Human Freedom Martien E. Brinkman,2021-11-15 Human freedom has been the source of both the high points of humanity as well as of its low points thus giving rise to the impression that it is a somewhat ambivalent concept According to Martien Brinkman the major factor in this ambivalence is the rather narrow meaning that the concept has received in the course of history Freedom is for the most part understood as freedom from or freedom to but only rarely as freedom for However it is precisely this latter understanding that is closest to the Christian understanding of freedom which Brinkman defines as internal attachment In his view Christian freedom is at bottom characterized by that to which one commits oneself in trust He sees primarily the Christian theology of baptism with its accent on dying and rising with Christ as the model for the way in which one acquires freedom Brinkman illustrates this in this study by means of a great number of biblical images and images borrowed from the historical debates between

Augustine and Pelagius and Luther and Erasmus Religion and the Good Life Marcel Sarot, W. Stoker, 2022-01-04

Studies in Theology and Religion 10 In this volume fourteen philosophers of religion reflect on religious views of the good life Some authors focus on positive religion and its specific religious representations of the good life while others abstract from these and focus on philosophical religion and its conceptual articulations of the good life The tension between positive religion and philosophical religion between representation and concept is itself also analyzed This volume is a result of the co operation of the philosophers of religion who are senior members of the Netherlands School for Advanced Studies in Theology and Religion NOSTER Religion and the Good Life Religion and the Good Life Introduction Marcel Sarot Utrecht and Wessel Stoker Amsterdam PART I THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN REPRESENTATION AND CONCEPT The Tension between Representation and Concept as a Challenge for Philosophy of Religion Peter Jonkers Utrecht Beyond Representation and Concept The Language of Testimony R D N van Riessen Kampen PART II THE TENSION BETWEEN REPRESENTATION AND CONCEPT Seduction and Guidance Some Remarks on the Ambiguities of Reason and Reflective Thought in Connection with Religion and the Good Life W Dupr Nijmegen The Good Life is Historical Ben Vedder Nijmegen The Quality of Life Comic Vision in Charles Dickens and Iris Murdoch Henry Jansen Amsterdam Narrative Atonement and the Christian Conception of the Good Life Gijsbert van den Brink Leyden Myths and the Good Life Ricoeur s Hermeneutical Approach to Myth Wessel Stoker Amsterdam Bhajans and their Symbols Religious Hermeneutics of the Good Life Hendrik M Vroom Amsterdam PART III REPRESENTATIONS OF THE GOOD LIFE Models of the Good Life Marcel Sarot Utrecht The Highest Good and the Kingdom of God in the Philosophy of Kant A Moral Concept and a Religious Metaphor of the Good Life Donald Loose Tilburg Rotterdam Jacques Derrida and Messianity Victor Kal Amsterdam Skepticism and the Meaning of Life Michael Scott Manchester Ultimate Happiness and the Love of God Vincent Br mmer Utrecht Human Being and the Natural Desire for God Reflections on the Natural and the Supernatural Eef Dekker Utrecht Createdness and Ethics Hans Schaeffer, 2012-02-13 This book contains a systematic description of the theologies of Colin E Gunton 1941 2003 and Oswald Bayer b 1939 Their use of the doctrine of creation in systematic theology has remarkable consequences for late modern theological ethics This book explores those consequences from the example of the theological doctrine of marriage The author also contributes to the ecumenical debate by building on the Neo Calvinist theological heritage      The Theology of Colin Gunton Lincoln Harvey, 2010-06-09 In The Theology of Colin E Gunton a number of contemporary theologians from across the world critically engage with the work of this influential British theologian Gunton's handling of the gospel of Jesus Christ is celebrated key doctrines critically examined and his contribution to the ongoing theological task carefully evaluated Contributors address key issues at the centre of Gunton's understanding of the Christian gospel thereby enabling readers to appreciate how Gunton's fundamental analysis of the relation between God creation and Jesus Christ impacts the church's ongoing task of faithful theological enquiry In this volume of essays contributors explore Gunton's constructive thinking on a range of doctrinal topics as well as critically analyze Gunton's theological method and use of the Christian tradition As such this collection of essays provides the Christian theological community with its first wide ranging and carefully argued examination into the influential work of Colin E Gunton      Practical Predestinarians in England, c. 1590-1640 Leif Dixon, 2016-04-08 The belief that God eternally and unalterably decrees the election of one part of humankind and the reprobation of the rest has not aged well but in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries the doctrine of predestination was publicised and popularised to an extent unparalleled in the history of Christianity Why was this How successfully was the doctrine able to mix with other ideas and to what effect And did belief in predestination encourage confidence or despair Practical Predestinarians is a study of the ways in which the doctrine of predestination was understood and communicated by churchmen in late Tudor and early Stuart England It connects with debates about the popularity of Protestantism during England's long reformation as well as with the question of whether predestination tended toward inclusive or divisive and conformist or subversive applications Intersecting with recent debates about the popular reception of Protestant preaching this book focusses upon the pastoral message itself it is therefore an investigation into the public face of English Calvinism

T&T Clark Handbook of Colin Gunton Andrew Picard, Murray Rae, Myk Habets, 2021-01-14 The T T Clark Handbook of Colin Gunton is a theological companion to the study of Gunton's theology and a resource for thinking about Gunton's importance in modern theology Each of the essays brings Gunton's depth to a broad range of contemporary theological concerns The volume unveils cutting edge Gunton scholarship for a new generation and at the same time enables readers to see the timely significance of Gunton today Each of the essays not only introduces readers to key themes in the Gunton corpus but also provides readers with fresh interpretations that are fully conversant with the contemporary theological problems facing the church Designed as both a guide for students and a reference point for scholars the companion seeks both to outline the frameworks of key Gunton debates while at all times pushing forward fresh interpretative strategies concerning his thought      Colin Gunton and the Failure of Augustine Bradley G Green, 2012-01-26 The British systematic theologian Colin Gunton argued that Augustine bequeathed to the West a theological tradition with serious deficiencies According to Gunton Augustine's particular construal of the doctrine of God led to fundamental errors and problems in grasping the relationship between creation and redemption and in rightfully construing a truly Christian ontology In Colin Gunton and the Failure of Augustine Bradley G Green s close reading of Augustine challenges Gunton s understanding Gunton argued that Augustine s supposed emphasis of the one over the many severed any meaningful link between creation and redemption contra the theological insights of Irenaeus and furthermore that because of Augustine s supposed emphasis on the timeless essence of God at the expense of the three real persons he failed to forge a truly Christian ontology effectively losing the insights of the Cappadocian Fathers For all of Gunton s many insights Green argues that on the contrary Augustine did not sever the link between creation and redemption but rather affirmed that the created order is a means of genuine knowledge of God that the created order is indeed the only means by which redemption is accomplished that the cross of Christ is the only means by which we can see God and that the created order is fundamentally oriented toward a telos redemption Concerning ontology Augustine s teaching on the imago Dei and the prominent role that relationship plays in Augustine s doctrines of man and God provides the kind of relational Christian ontology that Gunton sought In short Green argues Augustine could have provided Gunton key theological resources in countering the modernity he so rightfully challenged

Christianity and Critical Realism Andrew Wright, 2013-05-07 One of the key achievements of critical realism has been to expose the modernist myth of universal reason which holds that authentic knowledge claims must be objectively pure uncontaminated by the subjectivity of local place specific time and particular culture Wright aims to address the lack of any substantial and sustained engagement between critical realism and theological critical realism with particular regard to a the distinctive ontological claims of Christianity b their epistemic warrant and intellectual legitimacy and c scrutiny of the primary source of the ontological claims of Christianity namely the historical figure of Jesus of Nazareth As such it functions as a prolegomena to a much needed wider debate guided by the under labouring services of critical realism between Christianity and various other religious and secular worldviews This important new text will help stimulate a debate that has yet to get out of first gear This book will appeal to academics graduate and post graduate students especially but also Christian clergy ministers and informed laity and members of the general public concerned with the nature of religion and its place in contemporary society

Stricken by Sin, Cured by Christ Jesse Couenhoven, 2013-06-07 According to Augustine s doctrine of original sin Adam s progeny share a collective guilt which like an infection spreads through wayward sexual desires passing from parent to child But is it fair to blame sinners if they inherit evil like a disease In Stricken by Sin Cured by Christ Jesse Couenhoven clarifies the logic and illogic of Augustine s controversial views about human agency The first half of the book examines why Augustine believed we are trapped by evil and why only Christ can save us Couenhoven examines overlooked texts Augustine wrote at the culmination of his career and offers a novel reading of his views about whether we control our personal identities what we should be held culpable for and whether freedom is compatible with necessity The second half of the book develops a philosophically and scientifically astute theory of responsibility that makes it possible to retrieve some of Augustine's most divisive claims Couenhoven makes a case for the surprising thesis that a carefully formulated doctrine of original sin is profoundly humane The claim that sin is original takes seriously our dependence on one another for essential aspects of character and personality our ownership of cognitive and volitional states that are not simply products of voluntary choices and our status as personal agents of evil Attending to these aspects of our lives challenges the idea that each individual's moral and spiritual standing is up to her or him and drives us to ponder not only the nature of our responsibility and the shape of the freedom we seek but also the need for grace we all share

Spirit and Sonship David A. Höhne, 2016-03-09 This book weaves together an interpretation of Christian Scripture with a conversation between Colin Gunton and Dietrich Bonhoeffer concerning the role the Holy Spirit plays in shaping the person and work of Christ The result is a theological description of human personhood grounded in a sustained engagement with and critique of Gunton's theological description of particularity a topic central to all his thinking In the course of the conversation with Bonhoeffer the book also offers one of few broad assessments of his work as a systematic theologian In bringing together the work of two important modern theologians this book explores both the possibilities of theology generated from Christian Scripture and the central importance of the doctrines of Christ and the Trinity in understanding what it means to declare someone or something unique

The Artist and the Trinity Christine M Fletcher, 2014-03-27 The Artist and the Trinity aims to create a Christian theology of work based on Dorothy L Sayers analogy of the Trinity to the process of artistic creation Sayers analogy gives us an account of the person that does not collapse into the atomism of the individual of modern liberal capitalism but is fully relational By putting Sayers into dialogue with Alasdair MacIntyre the book develops a fully Trinitarian theology of work that accounts for the interdependence of human beings and for the ethical requirements of caring for the weak the young and the old in a way that is gender neutral

Creation and Humanity Ian A. McFarland, 2009-01-01 This major sourcebook provides significant primary readings from the history of Christian theology on the topics of creation and humanity Beginning with an extended introduction McFarland fleshes out the topics of creation and humanity in sections such as God as Creator The Human Creature Evil and Sin and Providence and provides a brief introduction to each selection that demonstrates its importance and establishes its historical context This collection will be of special value in classrooms allowing students to experience firsthand some major works that shaped efforts to forge a sound Christian understanding of creation and humanity

All Things New Brock Bingaman, 2014-09-11 For both Maximus the Confessor c 580-662 and Jürgen Moltmann b 1926 understanding what it means to be human springs from a contemplative vision of God This comparative study explores surprising parallels between the theological anthropology of the seventh century Byzantine monk and the contemporary German Protestant Bingaman argues that Maximus and Moltmann root their understanding of the human calling in their Trinitarian and christological reflection in contrast to many modern theologies that tend to devise an account of human being first and then try to find ways in which Christ and the Trinity are somehow relevant to this human being In this constructive work Bingaman demonstrates the intrinsic connection between Maximus and Moltmann's views of human being Christ and the Trinity the church and the human calling in creation Illustrating the richness of these ancient and postmodern theologies in conversation All Things New lays out future trajectories in theological anthropology patristic ressourcement ecologically attuned theology and spirituality and Orthodox Protestant dialogue
