Gustav Stickley His Craft A Daily Vision:

Gustav Stickley--his Craft A. Patricia Bartinique,1992 Arts and Crafts Architecture Maureen Meister,2014-11-04
This book offers the first full scale examination of the architecture associated with the Arts and Crafts movement that spread throughout New England at the turn of the twentieth century Although interest in the Arts and Crafts movement has grown since the 1970s the literature on New England has focused on craft production Meister traces the history of the movement from its origins in mid nineteenth century England to its arrival in the United States and describes how Boston architects including H H Richardson embraced its tenets in the 1870s and 1880s She then turns to the next generation of designers examining buildings by twelve of the region s most prominent architects eleven men and a woman who assumed leadership roles in the Society of Arts and Crafts founded in Boston in 1897 Among them are Ralph Adams Cram Lois Lilley Howe Charles Maginnis and H Langford Warren They promoted designs based on historical precedent and the region s heritage while encouraging well executed ornament Meister also discusses revered cultural personalities who influenced the architects notably Ralph Waldo Emerson and art historian Charles Eliot Norton as well as contemporaries who shared their concerns such as Louis Brandeis Conservative though the architects were in the styles they favored they also were forward looking blending Arts and Crafts values with Progressive Era idealism Open to new materials and building types they made lasting contributions with many of their designs now landmarks honored in cities and towns across New England The Design Encyclopedia Mel Byars,2004 Design has an increasingly high profile figures like Philippe Starck are as venerated and well known as more traditional artists But where the literature on fine art is vast design is still comparatively ill served This encyclopedia provides an account of the still largely unknown story of design American Bungalow ,2002 The Craftsman Gustav Stickley,1916 An illustrated monthly magazine in the interest of better art better work and a better more reasonable way of living Gustav Stickley and American "Home-making" in The Craftsman Debra Lynn Hegstrom,2007
 American Furniture ,1993 The Beautiful Necessity Bruce Smith,2009-09 Though the functional beauty of the Arts and Crafts movement has long been a part of American culture it is now revitalized by simplicity seekers trying to counteract the fast pace of contemporary living The elegant simplicity of Craftsman ideals is time defying as the rooms and furnishings of The Beautiful Necessity Decorting With Arts and Crafts will reveal From the traditional Greene and Greene Gustav Stickley Frank Lloyd Wright and others to the contemporary Berkely Mills Warren Hiles East West Furniture Design and more the Arts and Crafts movement is represented All 140 exquisite photographs demonstrate how the Craftsman style has brought stunning warmth yet utilitarian ease to homes past and present Theodore Roosevelt Kathleen Dalton,2007-12-18 He inherited a sense of entitlement and obligation from his family yet eventually came to see his own class as suspect He was famously militaristic yet brokered peace between Russia and Japan He started out an archconservative yet came to champion progressive causes These contradictions are not evidence of vacillating weakness instead they were the product of a restless mind bent on a continuous quest for self improvement In Theodore Roosevelt historian Kathleen Dalton reveals a man with a personal and intellectual depth rarely seen in our public figures She shows how Roosevelt's struggle to overcome his frailties as a child helped to build his character and offers new insights into his family life uncovering the important role that Roosevelt's second wife Edith Carow played in the development of his political career She also shows how TR flirted with progressive reform and then finally committed himself to deep reform in the Bull Moose campaign of 1912 Incorporating the latest scholarship into a vigorous narrative Dalton reinterprets both the man and his times to create an illuminating portrait that will change the way we see this great man and the Progressive Era Industrial Design Philip H. Stevens, 2002 Describes the Industrial Design profession gives a brief history and offers perspectives from artists craftsmen and engineers Practical aid to industrial design students Artists at Continent's End Scott A. Shields, 2006-04-17 From 1875 to the first years of the twentieth century artists were drawn to the towns of Monterey Pacific Grove and then Carmel Artist at Continent's End is the first in depth examination of the importance of the Monterey Peninsula which during this period came to epitomize California art Beautifully illustrated with a wealth of images including many never before published this book tells the fascinating story of eight principal protagonists Jules Tavernier William Keith Charles Rollo Peters Arthur Mathews Evelyn McCormick Francis McComas Gottardo Piazzoni and photographer Arnold Genthe and a host of secondary players who together established an enduring artistic legacy prospectus Empire's Nature Amy R. Meyers, Margaret Beck Pritchard, 2012-12-01 Completed in 1747 Mark Catesby's Natural History of Carolina Florida and the Bahama Islands was the first major illustrated publication on the flora and fauna of Britain's American colonies Together with his Hortus Britanno Americanus 1763 which detailed plant species that might be transplanted successfully to British soil Catesby's Natural History exerted an important though often overlooked influence on the development of art natural history and scientific observation in the eighteenth century Inspired by a major traveling exhibition of Catesby's watercolor drawings from the Royal Library Windsor Castle this collection of interdisciplinary essays considers Catesby's endeavors as a naturalist artist scientific explorer experimental horticulturist ornamental gardener and early environmental thinker in terms of the interests held by the various overlapping communities in which he functioned particularly as those interests related to the British colonial enterprise The contributors are David R Brigham Joyce E Chaplin Mark Laird Amy R W Meyers Therese O Malley and Margaret Beck Pritchard The Official Price Guide to American Arts and Crafts David Rago, Bruce E. Johnson, 2003 Now in an all new third edition this guide features every major artist object and manufacturer of the Arts and Crafts period and lists the most current prices for their works 330 photos Historic House Museums in the United States and the United Kingdom Linda Young, 2016-12-13 Historic House Museums in the United States and the United Kingdom A History addresses the phenomenon of historic houses as a distinct species of museum Everyone understands the special nature of an art museum a national museum or a science museum but house museum nearly always requires clarification In the United States the term is almost synonymous with historic preservation in the United Kingdom it is simply unfamiliar the very idea being conflated with stately homes and the National Trust By analyzing the motivation of the founders and subsequent keepers of house museums Linda Young identifies a typology that casts light on what house museums were intended to represent and their significance or lack thereof today This book examines heroes houses once inhabited by great persons e g Shakespeare s birthplace Washington s Mount Vernon artwork houses national identity as specially visible in house design style and technique e g Frank Lloyd Wright houses Modernist houses collectors houses a microcosm of collecting in situ domesticu subsequently presented to the nation as the exemplars of taste e g Sir John Soane s Museum Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum English country houses the palaces of the aristocracy maintained thanks to primogeniture but threatened with redundancy and rescued as museums to be touted as the peak of English national culture English country houses the palaces of the aristocracy maintained for centuries thanks to primogeniture but threatened by redundancy and strangely rescued as museums now touted as the peak of English national culture Everyman woman s social history houses the modern demotic response to elite houses presented as social history but tinged with generic ancestor veneration e g tenement house museums in Glasgow and New York Bibliographie D'histoire de L'art ,1994 House Beautiful ,1993 Aircraft Design of WWII Lockheed Aircraft Corporation,2020-05-21 Treasure trove of cutaway views of 1940s aircraft features magazine art that focuses on American models The extensive notes and explanations also include details on select British and German planes The Imperial Church Katherine D. Moran,2020-05-15 Through a fascinating discussion of religion s role in the rhetoric of American civilizing empire The Imperial Church undertakes an exploration of how Catholic mission histories served as a useful reference for Americans narrating US settler colonialism on the North American continent and seeking to extend military political and cultural power around the world Katherine D Moran traces historical celebrations of Catholic missionary histories in the upper Midwest Southern California and the US colonial Philippines to demonstrate the improbable centrality of the Catholic missions to ostensibly Protestant imperial endeavors Moran shows that as the United States built its continental and global dominion and an empire of production and commerce in the Gilded Age and Progressive Era Protestant and Catholic Americans began to celebrate Catholic imperial pasts She demonstrates that American Protestants joined their Catholic compatriots in speaking with admiration about historical Catholic missionaries the Jesuit Jacques Marquette in the Midwest the Franciscan Jun pero Serra in Southern California and the Spanish friars in the Philippines Comparing them favorably to the Puritans Pilgrims and the American Revolutionary generation commemorators drew these missionaries into a cross confessional pantheon of US national and imperial founding fathers In the process they cast Catholic missionaries as gentle and effective agents of conquest uplift and economic growth arguing that they could serve as both origins and models for an American civilizing empire The Imperial Church connects Catholic history and the history of US empire by demonstrating that the religious dimensions of American imperial rhetoric have been as cross confessional as the imperial nation itself Religion, Art, and Money Peter W. Williams, 2016-02-24

This cultural history of mainline Protestantism and American cities most notably New York City focuses on wealthy urban Episcopalians and the influential ways they used their money Peter W Williams argues that such Episcopalians many of them the country's most successful industrialists and financiers left a deep and lasting mark on American urban culture Their sense of public responsibility derived from a sacramental theology that gave credit to the material realm as a vehicle for religious experience and moral formation and they came to be distinguished by their participation in major aesthetic and social welfare endeavors Williams traces how the church helped transmit a European inflected artistic patronage that was adapted to the American scene by clergy and laity intent upon providing moral and aesthetic leadership for a society in flux Episcopal influence is most visible today in the churches cathedrals and elite boarding schools that stand in many cities and other locations but Episcopalians also provided major support to the formation of stellar art collections the performing arts and the Arts and Crafts movement Williams argues that Episcopalians thus helped smooth the way for acceptance of materiality in religious culture in a previously iconoclastic Puritan influenced society In Pursuit of Beauty Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1986 This project is the first comprehensive study of a phenomenon that not only dominated the American arts of the 1870s and 1880s but also helped set the course of such later developments in the United States as the Arts and Crafts movement the indigenous interpretation of Art Nouveau and even the rise of modernism In fact the early history of the Metropolitan its founding its sponsorship of a school of industrial design and its display of decorative works is inextricably tied to the Aesthetic movement and its educational goals In Pursuit of Beauty Americans and the Aesthetic Movement comprised some 175 objects including furniture metalwork stained glass ceramics textiles wallpaper painting and sculpture Some of these had rarely been displayed others although familiar were being shown in new and even startling contexts The exhibition and catalogue are arranged thematically to illustrate both the major styles of a visually rich movement and the ideas that generated its diversity From publisher's description
