feared and celebrated in both the Western and the Colonial worlds Similarly and in both Japan and Russia the Battle of Tsushima had a prolonged impact on their respective navies as well as on their geopolitical ambitions in Asia and beyond By relying on a diverse array of primary sources this book examines the battle in depth and is the first to offer a penetrating analysis of its global impact as well as the way its memory has evolved in both Japan and Russia Facets Video Encyclopedia Catherine Foley,Milos Stehlik,1999 Calling it a virtual cinemath que on video the Telluride Film Festival gave its coveted Silver Medallion award to Facets Video Encyclopedia The Encyclopedia lists more than 35 000 rare films on video laser disc and DVD Included are foreign independent classic American silent documentary experimental cult and children s films Each is carefully described and lists director country of origin year and running time credits and is categorized and cross referenced by director and country All films are available for sale or rent from Facets Multimedia 2008 Comic Book Checklist & Price Guide Maggie Thompson,Brent Frankenhoff,Peter Bickford,2007-10-08 Did you know that comic books are being promoted by noted organizations including American Library Association and many educators as a tool for engaging young readers Who's Afraid of Children? Helen Brocklehurst,2017-03-02 Brocklehurst s impressive work breaks new ground in normative international political theory It develops a new theoretical framework which exposes how children are present in international relations and security practices using an empirical and comparative assessment of the role of children and youth in a range of conflicts including Nazi Germany Mozambique South Africa Northern Ireland the Cold War and the British Empire The author argues powerfully that concepts of children are partial and contained through their construction as non political Global in scope this book is a timely and important contribution given the growing visibility of children in international relations evident after September 11 The political and ethical question at the heart of this book is will international relations dare to catch up Rethinking Citizenship in Central and Eastern Europe Nina Kolleck,Ireneusz Pawel Karolewski,2025-05-23 This book delves into the intricate landscape of citizenship practices in Central and Eastern Europe an area often overlooked in research Through an interdisciplinary lens the contributors explore how education and political participation shape these practices in a region marked by historical and social complexities The book offers fresh insights into how citizenship is perceived and practiced highlighting the role of civic education in fostering political engagement By addressing both the challenges and opportunities of citizenship in this dynamic region this volume contributes to broader debates on democracy and civic participation across Europe and beyond Pulp ,1999 Horror and Science Fiction Films IV Donald C. Willis,1997-08-07 This fourth title in a unique series that combines reference and analytical qualities in chronicling the horror and science fiction genres Horror and Science Fiction Films IV brings the earlier three volumes in the series up to date concentrating on the period from 1984 1994 as well as updating entries from the previous volumes and adding newly discovered titles from 1900 1983 Entries in the main list include credits cast synopsis and annotation The introduction lists 1995 releases in the genres and 1996 releases through the summer cites the more memorable films in the genres for both the current period and 1900 1984 and serves as an index to key titles in the main list including long lost titles such as the obscure silent Were Tiger and the 1931 The Phantom Willis includes many films from around the world that are not found in any other English language film reference work One appendix provides thumbnail descriptions of problem and peripheral films another updates entries in the first three books with alternate titles and a third appendix serves as an index to the approximately 7 000 films listed in the first three volumes in the series as well as in the current volume thus bringing the total number of films covered in this series to roughly 11 000 titles
