Presenting ideas both imaginative and practical for teachers and advanced students, WRITING THE VISUAL aims to expand our understanding of how visual and verbal elements contribute to a text's effectiveness. Extensively referencing key figures from ancient times to the present who have developed theories, described histories, and provided analyses of images, WRITING THE VISUAL responds to the growing desire for critical and creative engagement with visual language in composition and communication classrooms.

Halfway to Freedom, a Report on the New India in the Words and Photographs of ... Margaret Bourke-White, 1949 Midnight's Furies Nisid Hajari, 2015. Like the Rape of Nanking, the partition of India was a dramatic, bloody crisis that remains a key historical faultline today. Freedom, Trauma, Continuities D. A. Low, Howard Brasted, 1998-09-22. The momentous events of India achieving independence and the simultaneous partitioning of the subcontinent in 1947 have primarily been studied from the political perspective. This path-breaking volume explores neglected aspects of the tremendous upheavals that accompanied these events, concentrating on popular perceptions and psychological impacts. The contributors consider aspects of the appalling massacres which accompanied Partition and Independence, the ensuing mass migrations, efforts to resettle the refugees in the Punjab, Bengal, and Sind, and lingering memories of homes abandoned. The subsequent essay considers the integration of the Princely States into the Indian Union, a process which had few counterparts elsewhere. The remaining essays study the Congress Government in Bihar in the forties, the roots of Pakistan's civil-military state, and the attitude of Indian big business. Overall, this volume significantly widens the perspectives that focus on the crucial decade of the forties in the history of the subcontinent. Saturday Review of Literature, 1949 Solidarity Leah Hunt-Hendrix, Astra
