A Hero of Our Time Russian Ger y n shevo vr meni is a novel by Mikhail Lermontov written in 1839 published in 1840 and revised in 1841 It is an example of the superfluous man novel noted for its compelling Byronic hero or antihero Pechorin and for the beautiful descriptions of the Caucasus Pechorin treats women as an incentive for endless conquests and does not consider them worthy of any particular respect He considers women such as Princess Mary to be little more than pawns in his games of romantic conquest which in effect hold no meaning in his listless pursuit of pleasure This is shown in his comment on Princess Mary I often wonder why I m trying so hard to win the love of a girl I have no desire to seduce and whom I d never marry The only contradiction in Pechorin s attitude to women are his genuine feelings for Vera who loves him despite and perhaps due to all his faults At the end of Princess Mary one is presented with a moment of hope as Pechorin gallops after Vera The reader almost assumes that a meaning to his existence may be attained and that Pechorin can finally realize that true feelings are possible Yet a lifetime of superficiality and cynicism cannot be so easily eradicated and when fate intervenes and Pechorin s horse collapses he undertakes no further effort to reach his one hope of redemption I saw how futile and senseless it was to pursue lost happiness What more did I want To see her again For what Pechorin s chronologically last adventure was first described in the book showing the events that explain his upcoming fall into depression and retreat from society resulting in his self predicted death The narrator is Maxim Maximytch telling the story of a beautiful Circassian princess Bela whom Azamat abducts for Pechorin in exchange for Kazbich s horse Maxim describes Pechorin s exemplary persistence to convince Bela to give herself sexually to him in which she with time reciprocates After living with Bela for some time Pechorin starts explicating his need for freedom which Bela starts noticing fearing he might leave her Though Bela is completely devoted to Pechorin she says she s not his slave rather a daughter of a Circassian tribal Chieftain also showing the intention of leaving if he doesn t love her Maxim s sympathy for Bela makes him question Pechorin s intentions

Pechorin admits he loves her and is ready to die for her but he has a restless fancy and insatiable heart and that his life is emptier day by day He thinks his only remedy is to travel to keep his spirit alive A Hero of Our Time Mikhail Iŭŭr'evich Lermontov,1928 Lermontov's "A Hero of Our Time" Lewis Bagby,2002-06-05 Mikhail Lermontov s book A Hero of Our Time was written in 1840 and is an important work of psychological realism This volume includes articles by theorists from various perspectives A Hero of Our Time Михаил Юрьевич Лермонтов,1957 Hero of Our Time Mikhail Lermontov,2025-01-31 A Hero of Our Time is a pioneering psychological novel that offers a profound exploration of human nature fate and moral ambiguity Mikhail Lermontov presents a critical portrait of Russian society in the early 19th century through the enigmatic figure of Pechorin a Byronic antihero whose actions reflect the contradictions and disillusionment of his era The novel structured as a series of interconnected narratives delves into themes of existential struggle power and the destructive allure of romantic idealism Since its publication A Hero of Our Time has been recognized as a groundbreaking work in Russian literature influencing later psychological and existentialist fiction Its fragmented narrative and deep character study challenge traditional storytelling offering insight into the complexity of human motives Lermontov s sharp social critique and exploration of Pechorin s inner conflicts continue to captivate readers making the novel a timeless meditation on identity and alienation The novel s enduring significance lies in its ability to dissect the tensions between individual desires and societal expectations By presenting a protagonist who defies easy moral categorization A Hero of Our Time compels readers to confront the paradoxes of ambition freedom and self destruction ensuring its place as a foundational text in literary history A Hero of Our Time (Illustrated) Mikhail Lermontov,2011-10-30 A Hero of Our Time is a novel by Mikhail Lermontov published in 1840 It tells the story of a young officer Pechorin sent to the Caucasus after a duel This is what the author himself wrote about his idea of Pechorin in the preface Pechorin my dear readers is in fact a portrait but not of one man only he is a composite portrait made up of all the vices which flourish full grown amongst the present generation You will tell me as you have told me before that no man can be so wicked as this and my reply will be If you believe that such persons as the villains of tragedy and romance could exist in real life why can you not believe in the reality of Pechorin If you could admire far more terrifying and repulsive types why aren t you more merciful to this character even if it is fictitious Isn t it because there s more truth in it than you might wish This edition includes 22 illustrations by M Lermontov M Vrubel V Serov V Polyakov and other artists of the late 19th and early 20th century A Hero of Our Time Mikhail Lermontov,2013-04-11 In A Hero of Our Time the first great Russian novel a young officer passionate and world weary is posted to the Caucasus and becomes involved in a series of adventures A dazzlingly original work of fiction the novel is newly translated together with Pushkin s travel narrative A Journey to Arzrum with introduction and notes A Hero of Our Time Mikhail Yurievich Lermontov,2018-08-11 A Hero of Our Time Large Print By Mikhail Lermontov Mikhail Lermontov s pioneering psychological novel A Hero of Our Time is probably his most impactful work one which influenced the works of other great Russian authors such as Dostoyevsky and Tolstoy The novel's narrative is the story of Pechorin a young officer in the army whose story is told in five non chronological parts Drawing upon his own experiences in the military Lermontov creates a fascinating anti hero in Pechorin a man who is intelligent calculating manipulative emotionally unavailable arrogant cynical nihilistic yet also sensitive The principal accomplishment of A Hero of Our Time is the introduction of the Byronic anti hero to Russian literature a departure from the traditional idealized protagonist of the Romantic period which signifies a pivotal move towards the realism of the Modernist literary movement As Lermontov describes in his preface A Hero of Our Time my dear readers is indeed a portrait but not of one man It is a portrait built up of all our generation's vices in full bloom You will again tell me that a human being cannot be so wicked and I will reply that if you can believe in the existence of all the villains of tragedy and romance why wouldn't believe that there was a Pechorin This edition is printed on premium acid free paper and includes an introduction by George Reavey We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience

A Hero of Our Time [Paperback] Mikhail Lermontov Mikhail Lermontov, 2025-05-09 Mikhail Lermontov's pioneering psychological novel A Hero of Our Time is probably his most impactful work one which influenced the works of other great Russian authors such as Dostoyevsky and Tolstoy Set against the stunning backdrop of the Caucasus Mountains the novel follows the life of Pechorin a young Russian officer whose enigmatic personality and reckless behavior make him both captivating and enigmatic Through a series of interconnected stories Lermontov paints a vivid portrait of Pechorin's adventures loves and ultimately his tragic downfall As Pechorin navigates the treacherous landscape of 19th century Russia he grapples with questions of honor identity and the nature of heroism From his passionate affair with the beautiful Princess Mary to his fateful encounters with fellow officers and indigenous tribesmen Pechorin's journey is a gripping exploration of the human psyche and the eternal struggle between passion and reason

Hero of Our Time M Y Lermontov, 2011-01-12 A Hero of Our Time M Y Lermontov The book is divided into five short stories or novellas with an authorial preface added in the second edition There are three major narrators The first is a young unnamed officer in the Russian army travelling through the Caucasus mountains He is documenting his travels for publication later Almost as soon as the story begins he meets Captain Maxim Maximovich who is significantly older and has been stationed in the Caucasus for a long time He is therefore wise to the lifestyle of Russian soldiers in this region and immediately demonstrates this to the narrator through his interactions with the local Ossetian tribesman Maxim Maximych serves as the second narrator relaying to his traveling companion stories of his interactions with Grigory Alexandrovich Pechorin the main character of the story and the ultimate Byronic hero Maxim Maximych was stationed in the Caucasus with Pechorin for some time though when and for how long is not specified Ultimately Maxim Maximych gives Pechorin s diaries to the unnamed narrator Pechorin seemingly abandoned them when he was discharged from his post and the old Captain has been carrying them around since The third narrator is Pechorin himself However unlike the other two he is not actually a character immediately in the story Instead he narrates through his diaries which were published along with the unnamed narrator s travel notes after Pechorin s death The diaries however seem to switch at least once from the past tense as a diary would be written to the present tense Pechorin the hero of our time is shown to be alternately impulsive and calculating through Maxim Maximych s stories He is shown to be calculating manipulative emotionally unavailable and arrogant through his own recollections However he is both sensitive and cynical as well as intelligent a fact he is all too aware of In the longest novella Princess Mary Pechorin flirts with the Princess of the title while conducting an affair with his ex lover Vera and kills his friend Grushnitsky of whom he is secretly contemptuous in a duel in which the participants stand in turn on the edge of a cliff so that the loser s death can be explained as an accidental fall Eventually he rejects one woman only to be abandoned by the other
