Location for the Nations Pat Allen Chapter 80 The Lord s Model of Prayer for the Kingdom Darrell W Johnson 1 Timothy Aida Besancon Spencer, 2014-08-28 In a thorough and insightful commentary on Paul's letter to his co worker Timothy which the Apostle wrote before and during Nero's persecution Aida Besancon Spencer carefully examines each part of the letter and relates it to the overall flow of the argument and in light of the larger biblical historical social and cultural contexts How Paul's writing related to the ancient communities is highlighted in the light of original data gleaned from her explorations on location in Ephesus and throughout Greece In addition Paul's rhetorical and ministry strategies especially as they relate to women and their role in the church are explored Throughout Spencer presents an in depth exegesis in a readable format Redeeming the Screens Jeanne C. DeFazio, William David Spencer, 2016-05-03 How enhanced by forty years of ministry does the future look to us Well clearly we realize we now live in a world of screens from the microcosmic universe of to smartphone to the imposing vigil of the multiplex giants looming over us in Imax and 3 D more real than real and to all the screens in between from computers to iPads to muted high definition flat screens pouring out images in homes restaurants banks businesses schools doctors offices and hospitals and on and on everywhere we turn We cannot change this reality so what these Christians and so many like them are doing is trying to find ways to redeem what we put on these screens what message we are sending out in word and image to the watching world So clearly our task whether we have been called to create or not is to join these artists as screen redeemers assisting the Holy Spirit in reconciling the world to God 2 Cor 5 18 19 through helping the pervasively influential means of the media adjust its goals to the mission of Jesus Christ and Creative Voices Sung Wook Chung, Dieumeme Noelliste, 2015-09-24 As the twentieth century passed its midpoint and was rushing toward its end a growing number of Majority World theologians came to realize that they could in fact do theology in their own contexts for the benefit of their own people Thus from the 1960s onward theologians in the global South have embarked on a form of theological construction that has sometimes been described as contextual reflection or contextualized theology This volume is motivated by the conviction that these efforts have resulted in theological work that is also beneficial for Christians in other parts of the world The editors have invited Majority World theologians to share their reflections on several themes of Christian faith from their own socio historical perspectives but with an unswerving commitment to the authority of Scripture It is hoped that these fresh reflections will help Christians in the West to engage and benefit from the perspectives of fellow believers in the global South The Dialogical Spirit Amos Yong, 2014-10-22 Contemporary proposals for Christian theology from postliberalism to Radical Orthodoxy and beyond have espoused their own methodological paradigms Those who have ventured into this domain of theological method however have usually had to stake their claims vis a vis trends in what may be called the contemporary post al age whether of the postmodern post Christendom post Enlightenment post Western or postcolonial varieties This volume is unique among offerings in this arena in suggesting a way forward that engages on each of these fronts and does so from a particularistic Christian perspective without giving up on Christian theology's traditional claims to universality This is accomplished through the articulation of a distinctive dialogical methodology informed by both pentecostalism and evangelicalism one rooted in the Christian salvation history narrative of incarnation and Pentecost that is yet open to the world in its many and various cultural ethnic religious and disciplinary discourses Amos Yong here engages with twelve different interlocutors representing different ecumenical religious and disciplinary perspectives The Dialogical Spirit thus not only proffers a model for Christian theological method suitable for the twenty first century global context but also exemplifies this methodological approach through its interactions across the contemporary scholarly academic and theological landscape Empowering English Language Learners Jeanne C. DeFazio, William David Spencer, 2018-06-13 Empowering English Language Learners showcases strategies of those who teach English as a second language in pre schools graduate schools secular public schools and private Christian schools What makes this book unique is the way each teacher evaluates teaching strategy through personal experience This book explains what works and what doesn t With additional contributions from Dean Borgman Julia Davis Jean Dimock Cherry Gorton Seong Park Olga Soler Virginia D Ward Gemma Wenger Berkeley Street Theatre Jeanne C.
