Between Self and Community Junehui Ahn, 2023-07-14 Between Self and Community investigates the early childhood socialization process in a rapidly changing globalizing South Korea Based on long term ethnographic fieldwork in a South Korean preschool it shows how both children and teachers interactively navigate construct and reconstruct their own multifaceted and sometimes conflicting models of what makes a good child amid Korea s shifting educational and social contexts Junehui Ahn details the conflicting and competing ways in which the ideologies of new personhood are enacted in actual everyday socialization contexts and reveals the confusions dilemmas and ruptures that occur when globally dominant ideals of childhood development are superimposed onto local experiences Between Self and Community pays special attention to the way children as active agents of socialization create construe and sustain their own meanings of their personhood thereby highlighting the dynamism children and their culturally rich peer world create in South Korea s shifting socialization terrain Guanxi and Local Green Development in China Chunhong Sheng,2019-06-19

This book examines the factors which contribute to local green development in China and employs political ecology to analyze the relationship between power and the environment Specifically it looks at which actors control access to resources and are therefore able to promote environmental progress Following the reform and opening up of China in the 1970s entrepreneurs and local officials profited economically and politically and formed close relationships known as guanxi in China As a result they have also been criticized as those responsible for the associated ecological damage This book does not contest this association but instead argues that the current literature places too much emphasis on their negative influence and the positive influence of their environmental work has been neglected Building on three case studies where local green development is being pursued Shanghai Pudong New Area Baoding and Wuning this book shows how local officials and entrepreneurs can also be the crusaders of a greener environment at the local level in China This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of Chinese studies with a particular interest in environmental policy and politics business and society as well as those interested in sustainable development more broadly China's Development from a Global Perspective María Dolores Elizalde,Wang Jianlang,2017-11-06 For a long time the idea of China as a culture and society which was voluntarily secluding itself from the rest of the world was dominant But in reality China has always been part of the world just as the world has always sought to penetrate China The relationship between China and the world was in the past sometimes smooth and at other times it was difficult but nevertheless the bond remained alive This collection presents an analysis of China from a global perspective within a broad temporal and spatial spectrum It reveals the early relations established between the Roman Empire and China the dynamics developed with the countries of the Indian Ocean Southeast Asia and Japan and the gradual path of Europeans and Americans towards China The book reviews the development of diplomatic relations the signing of agreements and alliances and the rise and resolution of conflicts It also analyses the forging of economic relations the establishment of commercial exchanges and the creation of companies professional bodies and institutions of collaboration
