A Tinker's Damn! Pierce Kelley,2008-03 Pierce Kelley's best work yet Readers will sympathize with Kevin Coffee's dilemma even as they hope never to meet him in person. His story makes it clear how the handicaps of poverty and persecution are powerful inducements to amoral behavior. Kelley's attention to legal and technical details shines as always. Jenna McKenna, Editor, Cedar Key Beacon. Kevin Coffee becomes a thief at a young age in order to survive after his father leaves him, his mother, and three siblings to fend for themselves in Hell's Kitchen, New York City. As an adult, he moves to Miami Beach and becomes a drug smuggler. He meets members of the IRA and supplies them with guns. With their help, he finds his father, who is a Tinker in Ireland. He falls in love with Maeve Connelly, a member of a radical splinter group of the IRA. When Kevin is arrested and seems headed for prison, despite the best lawyering, Siobhan O'Sullivan can provide him the means to flee and hide out with Maeve on a remote island off the northwest coast of Ireland after a bank heist and one last gun deal.

Confessions of a Dying Thief Darrell J. Steffensmeier, 2017-07-12. Recipient of the American Society of Criminology's 2006 Michael J. Hindelang Award for a book published within the past three calendar years that is the most outstanding contribution to research in criminology. Nominated for the 2007 Outstanding Book Award of the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences. Sam Goodman was a long-time thief, fence, and quasi-legitimate businessman. He had a criminal career that spanned fifty years, beginning in his mid-teens and ending with his death when he was in his mid-sixties. Confessions of a Dying Thief is an in-depth ethnographic study of Sam and his world based on continuous contact with him for many years, on multiple interviews with his network of associates in crime and business, and on a series of interviews with him shortly before he died. The book updates and greatly expands the case study of Sam Goodman's fencing activity found in Steffensmeier's award-winning 1986 book The Fence in the Shadow of Two Worlds. It combines Sam's colorful narrative accounts with substantive commentary by the authors to provide a more nuanced portrayal of criminal careers, illegal enterprise, and the broad landscape comprising the entity called crime. To more fully understand pathways into and out of crime, as well as the social organization of illegal enterprise, the authors propose an integrative learning opportunity commitment framework that combines differential association, social learning theory, and an extended conceptualization of criminal opportunity with a three-fold theory of commitment to crime This framework offers an integrated and more complete way of understanding mechanisms that underlie criminal offending and criminal careers It also recognizes the complexity and scope of the criminal landscape and its embeddedness in the fabric of the larger society including its criminal justice system Sam s illness and death are a sobering backdrop th
