Citizen Canine

David Grimm,2014-04-08 Dogs are getting lawyers Cats are getting kidney transplants Could they one day be fellow citizens Cats and dogs were once wild animals Today they are family members and surrogate children A little over a century ago pets didn t warrant the meager legal status of property Now they have more rights and protections than any other animal in the country Some say they re even on the verge of becoming legal persons How did we get here and what happens next In this fascinating exploration of the changing status of dogs and cats in society pet lover and award winning journalist David Grimm explores the rich and surprising history of our favorite companion animals He treks the long and often torturous path from their wild origins to their dark days in the middle ages to their current standing as the most valued animals on Earth As he travels across the country riding along with Los Angeles detectives as they investigate animal cruelty cases touring the devastation of New Orleans in search of the orphaned pets of Hurricane Katrina and coming face to face with wolves and feral cats Grimm reveals the changing social attitudes that have turned pets into family members and the remarkable laws and court cases that have elevated them to quasi citizens The journey to citizenship isn t a smooth one however As Grimm finds there s plenty of opposition to the rising status of cats and dogs From scientists and farmers worried that our affection for pets could spill over to livestock and lab rats to philosophers who say the only way to save society is to wipe cats and dogs from the face of the earth the battle lines are being drawn We are entering a new age of pets one that is fundamentally transforming our relationship with these animals and reshaping the very fabric of society For pet lovers or anyone interested in how we decide who gets to be a person in today s world Citizen Canine is a must read It is a pet book like no other

The Limits of Blame Erin I. Kelly,2018-11-12 Faith in the power and righteousness of retribution has taken over the American criminal justice system Approaching punishment and responsibility from a philosophical perspective Erin Kelly challenges the moralism behind harsh treatment of criminal offenders and calls into question our society s commitment to mass incarceration The Limits of Blame takes issue with a criminal justice system that aligns legal criteria of guilt with moral criteria of blameworthiness Many incarcerated people do not meet the criteria of blameworthiness even when they are guilty of crimes Kelly underscores the problems of exaggerating what criminal guilt indicates particularly when it is tied to the illusion that we know how long and in what ways criminals should suffer Our practice of assigning blame has gone beyond a pragmatic need for protection and a moral need to repudiate harmful acts publicly It represents a desire for retribution that normalizes excessive punishment Appreciating the limits of moral blame critically undermines a commonplace rationale for long and brutal punishment practices Kelly proposes that we abandon our culture of blame and aim at reducing serious crime rather than imposing retribution Were we to refocus our perspective to fit the relevant moral circumstances and legal criteria we could endorse a humane appropriately limited and more productive approach to criminal justice     Pet Parents Coleen Ellis,2011-07-22 Coleen Ellis lost her baby girl in 2003 and she was devastated No one understood how she could be so upset over losing just a dog and she could never really say goodbye to her terrier schnauzer mix Mico To help pet parents everywhere she opened the first standalone pet funeral home in the United States in Indianapolis In this guidebook she helps pet parents veterinarians death care professionals and others celebrate the special bonds we share with our animal companions Drawing upon her experiences helping thousands of pet parents and pet care professionals Ellis provides ideas to help celebrate the special bonds people share with their pets checklists to choose the right cremation provider or funeral home heartwarming stories that show how pets can be honored in life and in death information on how death care professionals veterinarians and others are taking steps to serve pet parents additional resources to help people remember their pets the way they want People everywhere want to honor the lives of their pets and even if you aren't a pet owner you need to understand why this is important Help yourself and those you care about with Pet Parents A Journey Through Unconditional Love and Grief     Secret Service Dogs Maria Goodavage,2017-10-31 In an age fraught with terrorism United States Secret Service canine teams risk their lives to safeguard the president vice president their families visiting heads of state and a host of others Unprecedented access to these heroic dog teams has allowed a fascinating first time ever look at a very special breed of heroes Wherever the president goes there will be dogs They'll be there no matter what the country or state They'll be there regardless of the political climate the danger level the weather or the hour If you let down your guard on the job says Special Agent Bill G canine program manager it can change the history of the world It's a burden Secret Service dog handlers take extremely seriously regardless of their specialty Tactical dog handlers on the White House lawn handlers whose dogs sniff for explosives around the world and those who walk their amiable floppy eared dogs up and down Pennsylvania Avenue all live one common mantra Not on my watch Or my dog's Secret Service Dogs immerses readers into the heart of this elite world of canine teams who protect first families popes and presidential candidates the selection of dogs and handlers their year round training their missions around the world and most important the bond the glue that holds the teams together and can mean the difference between finding bombs and terrorists or letting them slip by These animals will gladly run into a hail of gunfire says Stew a Secret Service ERT tactical canine unit supervisor All they ask in return is for
