Here Stories:

Here in Our Auschwitz and Other Stories Tadeusz Borowski, 2021-09-14 The most complete English language collection of the prose of Tadeusz Borowski the most challenging chronicler of Auschwitz with a foreword by Timothy Snyder author of On Tyranny In 1943 the twenty year old Polish poet Tadeusz Borowski was arrested and deported to Auschwitz as a political prisoner What he experienced in the camp left him convinced that no one who survived Auschwitz was innocent All were complicit the camp regime depended on this Borowski's tales present the horrors of the camp as reflections of basic human nature and impulse stripped of the artificial boundaries of culture and custom Inside the camp the strongest of the prisoners form uneasy alliances with their captors and one another watching unflinchingly as the weak scabble and struggle against their inevitable fate In the last analysis suffering is never ennobling and goodness is tantamount to suicide Bringing together for the first time in English Borowski's major writings and many previously uncollected works this is the most complete collection of stories in a new authoritative translation with a substantial foreword by Timothy Snyder that speaks to its enduring relevance

Stories from Here and There Robert Karman, 2013-05 This book Stories from Here There which includes history and some stories of fiction seems to merge very well with the present Karman has taken basic situations and put them into humorous stories Mentioned here are art thieves bootleggers the sinking of the Lusitania Houdini the Romans and their toilet habits the Royal wedding daredevils kite flying nasty critters aliens and far too many more to mention here This book of easy storytelling has sketches drawn by the author The sketches add to the stories in visualizing a scene or location Hopefully reading this will trigger some of your own past memories All drawings in this book are by the author

All Our Stories Are Here Brady Harrison, 2009-01-01 This wide ranging collection of essays addresses a diverse and expanded vision of Montana literature offering new readings of both canonical and overlooked texts Although a handful of Montana writers such as Richard Hugo A B Guthrie Jr D Arcy McNickle and James Welch have received considerable critical attention sizable gaps remain in the analysis of the state's ever growing and ever evolving canon The twelve essays in All Our Stories Are Here not only build on the exemplary foundational work of other writers but also open further interpretative and critical conversations Expanding on the critical paradigms of the past and bringing to bear some of the latest developments in literary and cultural studies the contributors engage issues such as queer ambivalence in Montana writing representations of the state in popular romances and the importance of the University of Montana's creative writing program in fostering the state's literary corpus The contributors also explore the work of writers who have not yet received their critical due take new looks at old friends and offer some of the first explorations of recent works by well established artists All Our Stories Are Here conveys a sense of continuity in the field of Western literary criticism while at the same time challenging conventional approaches to regional literature

The Story Factor Annette Simmons, 2009-03-17 This modern classic teaches you to use the art of storytelling to persuade motivate and inspire in life and business Anyone seeking to influence others must first know their own story and how to tell it properly Whether you're proposing a risky new venture trying to close a deal or leading a charge against injustice you have a story to tell Tell it well and you will create a shared experience with your listeners that can have profound results In this modern classic Annette Simmons reminds us that the oldest tool of influence is also the most powerful Showcasing over a hundred examples of effective storytelling drawn from the front lines of business and government as well as myths fables and parables from around the world Simmons illustrates how story can be used to persuade motivate and inspire in ways that cold facts bullets points and directives can't These stories combined with practical storytelling techniques show anyone how to become a more effective communicator and achieve their goals I'll

Be Here in the Morning Brian T. Atkinson, 2011-11-28 The writer of such influential songs as Pancho and Lefty To Live s to Fly If I Needed You and For the Sake of the Song Townes Van Zandt exerted an influence on at least two generations of Texas musicians that belies his relatively brief deeply troubled life Indeed Van Zandt has influenced millions worldwide in the years since his death and his impact is growing rapidly Respected singer songwriter John Gorka speaks for many when he says Pancho and Lefty changed it unchained my idea of what a song could be In this tightly woven intelligently written book Brian T Atkinson interviews both well known musicians and up and coming artists to reveal in the performers own words how their creative careers have been shaped by the life and work of Townes Van Zandt Kris Kristofferson Guy Clark Billy Joe Shaver Rodney Crowell Lucinda Williams and Lyle Lovett are just a few of the established musicians who share their impressions of the breathtakingly beautiful tunes and lyrics he created along with their humorous poignant painful and indelible memories of witnessing Van Zandt's rise and fall Atkinson balances the reminiscences of seasoned veterans with the observations of relative newcomers to the international music scene such as Jim James My Morning Jacket Josh Ritter and Scott Avett the Avett Brothers presenting a nuanced view of Van Zandt's singular body of work his reckless lifestyle and his long lasting influence Forewords by Cowboy Jack Clement and longtime Van Zandt manager and friend Harold F Eggers Jr open the book and each chapter begins with an introduction in which Atkinson provides context and background linking each interviewee to Van Zandt s legacy Historians students and fans of all music from country and folk to rock and grunge will find new insights and recall familiar pleasures as they read I ll Be Here in the Morning The Songwriting Legacy of Townes Van Zandt

How Long Have I Been Here Ross Klatte,2021-07-14 How Long Have I Been Here is a collection of a variety of stories some set in 1960s Chicago others in Mexico around the same period and later and still others concerned with wayward youth versus adult loneliness with worship of a dead writer with isolation with old age All in one form or another have to do with love and longing with the complexities of human relationships

Claiming Power in Doctor-Patient Talk Nancy Ainsworth-Vaughn,1998-06-25 Nancy Ainsworth Vaughn studied stories topic control true questions and rhetorical questions in 101 medical encounters in US private practice settings In exceptionally lucid and accessible style Ainsworth Vaughn explains how power was claimed by and co constructed for both patients and doctors previous studies have focused upon doctors power The discourse varied along a continuum from interview like talk to conversational talk Six chapters are organized around data and include extended examples of actual talk in detailed transcription four of these data oriented chapters focus upon dynamic moment to moment use of speech activities in emerging discourse such as doctors and patients stories that co constructed selves and a patient s sexual rhetorical questions Two more chapters offer non statistical quantitative data on the frequency of questioning and sudden topic changes in relation to gender diagnosis and other factors Contributing to discourse theory Ainsworth Vaughn significantly modifies previous definitions for topic transitions and rhetorical questions and discovers the role of storytelling in diagnosis The final chapter provides implications for physicians and medical educators
