Heritage Horizons:

Heritage Horizons , Heritage & Horizons Robert Bryant Mitchell,1982 Heritage and Horizon Harry A. Renfree,2007-03-16 In this age of hi tech impersonal living our individual identities are in danger of being submerged and our collective past is easily forgotten History is therefore more important now than it has been in any previous time It is a corrective that insists we are not defined as a number in a data bank but as people who have lived in relation to time and circumstances Our roots lie not in a code but in interactions with other people and in the flow of daily events Canadian Baptists have eagerly awaited the day that someone would produce a comprehensive candid and faithful report of who we are and what major events helped shape our identity This book can only strengthen Canadian Baptist relationships as it brings to mind our common or similar beginnings The author of this history Dr Harry A Renfree has done us an immense service by giving us a history worth reflecting upon and one which ought to spur us on to glorify God in His church s mission Well qualified to share his gifts as writer and interpreter Dr Renfree is a Canadian Baptist who has given lifelong leadership in the cause of Christ in this country My hope is that the readers of this book will come to understand how Canadian Baptists have sought to serve Christ throughout their history and right up to the present day May God s leading in this historic endeavour cause us to grieve over the errors of the past to rejoice in the grace of God that has marked our joyful times and to firmly resolve to go forth in this day in our land to honour the Baptist name through true humility and servanthood R C Coffin General Secretary Treasurer Canadian Baptist Federation Our Reading Heritage: Wide horizons Harold H. Wagenheim,1963 Horizons Circled Ernst Krenek,2023-11-15 This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1974 Official Master Register of Bicentennial Activities American Revolution Bicentennial Administration,1975 Our Heritage Tsenay Serequeberhan,2000 In this compelling and engaging work Tsenay Serequeberhan discusses recent themes in African American and African Philosophy from a hermeneutical perspective while paying special attention to the question of how we relate to our past i e our hertiage and the open possibilities of our future Our Heritage carefully examines the variety of approaches to African philosophy and argues for a historically engaged and existentially attuned paradigm shift The result is an approach that explores the contemporary situation of African and African American existence in view of emancipatory struggles that have established the confines of the present The Reporter ,2007 Applied Study of Cultural Heritage and Clays J. L. Pérez Rodríguez,2003 Human origin sites and the World Heritage Convention in Eurasia Sanz, Nuria (UNESCO),2015-09-07 Essays on Astronomical History and Heritage Steven Gullberg,Peter Robertson,2023-08-14 This multidisciplinary work celebrates Wayne Orchiston s career and accomplishments in historical and cultural astronomy on the occasion of his 80th birthday Over thirty of the world's leading scholars in astronomy astrophysics astronomical history and cultural astronomy have come together to honor Wayne across a wide range of research topics These themes include Astronomy and Society Emergence of Astrophysics History of Radio Astronomy Solar System Observatories and Instrumentation Ethnoastronomy and Archaeoastronomy This exceptional collection of essays presents an overview of Wayne's prolific contributions to the field along with detailed accounts of the book's diverse themes It is a valuable and insightful volume for both researchers and others interested in the fields of historical astronomy and cultural astronomy Index of Bicentennial Activities American Revolution Bicentennial Administration,1976 Decolonizing Heritage Ferdinand De

Jong,2022-03-17 Senegal features prominently on the UNESCO World Heritage List As many of its cultural heritage sites are remnants of the French empire how does an independent nation care for the heritage of colonialism How does it reinterpret slave barracks colonial museums and monuments to empire to imagine its own national future This book examines Senegal's decolonization of its cultural heritage Revealing how Leopold Sedar Senghor's philosophy of Négritude inflects the interpretation of its colonial heritage Ferdinand de Jong demonstrates how Senegal's reinterpretation of heritage sites enables it to overcome the legacies of the slave trade colonialism and empire Remembering and reclaiming a Pan African future De Jong shows how World Heritage sites are conceived as the archive of an Afrotopia to come and in a move towards decolonization how they repair colonial time The Bicentennial of the United States of America American Revolution Bicentennial Administration,1977

Re-imagining Heritage Interpretation Russell Staiff,2016-04-08 This book challenges traditional approaches to heritage interpretation and offers an alternative theoretical architecture to the current research and practice Russell Staiff suggests that the dialogue between visitors and heritage places has been too focused on learning outcomes and so heritage interpretation has become dominated by psychology and educational theory and over-reliant on outdated thinking Using his background as an art historian and experience teaching heritage and tourism courses Russell Staiff weaves personal observation with theory in an engaging and lively way He recognizes that the digital revolution has changed forever the way that people interact with their environment and that a new approach is needed

Congressional Record United States. Congress,1975 Extractives, Manufacturing, and Services David O. Whitten,1997-04-22 The second volume in the Handbook of American Business History series this book offers concise histories of extractive manufacturing and service industries as well as extensive bibliographic essays pointing to the leading sources on each industry and bibliographic checklists Supplementing other bibliographic materials in business history this volume provides researchers with a much needed path through the vast array of material available in the library and on the Internet Indicating which resources to check and which to bypass the book is a guide to a sometimes overwhelming amount of information Each of the book's chapters provides a concise industry history beginning with the industry's rise to importance in the U S and continuing to the present The bibliographic essays provide a narrative outline of the leading sources published or made available in archives libraries or museum collections since 1971 when Lovett's American Economic and Business History Information Sources was published Each discussion concludes with a bibliographic checklist of the titles mentioned in the essay as well as other titles In a rapidly expanding information society researchers teachers and students may be easily overwhelmed by the exhaustive material available in print and electronically What is useful and what can be ignored is a strategic question and few know where to begin This book provides a guide

Minnesota's Natural Heritage John R. Heritage Futures Rodney Harrison, 2020-07-28 Preservation of natural and cultural heritage is often said to be something that is done for the future or on behalf of future generations but the precise relationship of such practices to the future is rarely reflected upon Heritage Futures draws on research undertaken over four years by an interdisciplinary international team of 16 researchers and more than 25 partner organisations to explore the role of heritage and heritage like practices in building future worlds Engaging broad themes such as diversity transformation profusion and uncertainty Heritage Futures aims to understand how a range of conservation and preservation practices across a number of countries assemble and resource different kinds of futures and the possibilities that emerge from such collaborative research for alternative approaches to heritage in the Anthropocene Case studies include the cryopreservation of endangered DNA in frozen zoos nuclear waste management seed biobanking landscape rewilding social history collecting space messaging endangered language documentation built and natural heritage management domestic keeping and discarding practices and world heritage site management

History Comes Alive M. J. Rymysz-Pawlowska, 2017-10-03 During the 1976 Bicentennial celebration millions of Americans engaged with the past in brand new ways They became absorbed by historical miniseries like Roots visited museums with new exhibits that immersed them in the past propelled works of historical fiction onto the bestseller list and participated in living history events across the nation While many of these activities were sparked by the Bicentennial M J Rymysz-Pawlowska shows that in fact they were symptomatic of a fundamental shift in Americans relationship to history during the 1960s and 1970s For the majority of the twentieth century Americans thought of the past as foundational to but separate from the present and they learned and thought about history in informational terms But Rymysz-Pawlowska argues that the popular culture of the 1970s reflected an emerging desire to engage and enact the past on a more emotional level to consider the feelings and motivations of historic individuals and most importantly to use this in reevaluating both the past and the present This thought provoking book charts the era's shifting feeling for history and explores how it serves as a foundation for the experience and practice of history making today
