Restoring a Presence Peter Nabokov, Lawrence Loendorf, 2016-01-18 Placing American Indians in the center of the story Restoring a Presence relates an entirely new history of Yellowstone National Park Although new laws have been enacted giving American Indians access to resources on public lands Yellowstone historically has excluded Indians and their needs from its mission Each of the other flagship national parks Glacier Yosemite Mesa Verde and Grand Canyon has had successful long term relationships with American Indian groups even as it has sought to emulate Yellowstone in other dimensions of national park administration In the first comprehensive account of Indians in and around Yellowstone Peter Nabokov and Lawrence Loendorf seek to correct this administrative disparity Drawing from archaeological records Indian testimony tribal archives and collections of early artifacts from the Park the authors trace the interactions of nearly a dozen Indian groups with each of Yellowstone's four geographic regions. Restoring a Presence is illustrated with historical and contemporary photographs and maps and features narratives on subjects ranging from traditional Indian uses of plant, mineral, and animal resources to conflicts involving the Nez Perce, Bannock, and Sheep Eater peoples. By considering the many roles Indians have played in the complex history of the Yellowstone region, authors Nabokov and Loendorf provide a basis on which the National Park Service and other federal agencies can develop more effective relationships with Indian groups in the Yellowstone region.

Mountain Time Paul Schullery, 2010-01-07 Mountain Time a thoughtful and often moving work is not only about Yellowstone as a superb sample of American wildness but also about a man named Paul Schullery and his relationship to it. This fact gives the book much richness and power for Schullery comes across clearly as a caring, observant, undogmatic person whose reasonable and intelligent opinions are reinforced by plenty of facts. In a certain mood it is possible to wish vainly that people of his civilized caliber were the only ones allowed to open their mouths very widely on any subject that really matters as Yellowstone definitely does.

John Graves author of Goodbye to a River and From a Limestone Lodge Paul has pushed outdoor writing to new limits. I pay him the highest compliment I can. I wish I had written Mountain Time.

Cross Country Chaos Lesli Richardson, 2021-06-23 Kelly Alexander is a divorced single mom. Her younger son Denny, who uses a wheelchair because of spina bifida, wants to participate in sports like his big brother. Then Kelly learns about the Junior National Disability Games but they're being held in Spokane, Washington, literally on the other end of the continent from their Florida home. She's clueless about her next steps to help him fulfill his dreams to compete. Enter Mart Rawlings. The handsome single athlete and coach also happens to use a wheelchair. He volunteers to help Denny qualify for Nationals, falling hard for Kelly in the process. Winning over Denny and his brother and Kelly's mom is the easy part. Kelly's past heartache because of her cheating ex left deep scars in her soul and fuels her reluctance to get romantically involved. She fears Denny will lose his coach should things head south between her and Mart. Besides getting Denny qualified is only half the battle. Now Kelly must survive a grueling cross-country drive with her sons and mother to get Denny to Spokane. But more importantly, can she overcome her fears and take a chance on love with Mart? This MF second-chance romance features a hunky hero who is an adaptive sports athlete, a single divorced mom doing the best she can, an aggravating cross-country drive with family, and a guaranteed HEA. This book was previously released by another publisher. It has been heavily revised and expanded for re-release.
