Films For Anthropological Teaching Fifth Edition:

Films for Anthropological Teaching Karl G. Heider, 1995 Principles of Visual Anthropology Paul Hockings, 2012-05-18 This edition contains 27 articles written by scholars and film makers who are generally acknowledged as the international authorities in the field. The book covers ethnographic filming and its relations to the cinema and television applications of filming to anthropological research the uses of still photography archives and videotape interdisciplinary applications in ethnography archeology bio anthropology museology and ethnohistory and overcoming the funding problems of film production Toward a Science of Man Timothy H. Thoresen, 2011-06-03 No detailed description available for Toward a Science of Man Ethnomusicology Kay Kaufman Shelemay, 2013-10-28 This anthology of 25 scholarly articles offers a broad historical overview of the history definition and scope of ethnomusicology. The essays range from early summaries of the field's subject matter and state of research to later comprehensive discussions spanning the discipline at large its intellectual history and future prospects. Ethnomusicology surveys the field its methods philosophy and goals and is well suited for use as an introductory text. SPECIAL FEATURES The study of non Western or world music which is the subject of this anthology is currently one of the hottest areas in music education. Covers key historical methodological and theoretical topics from the early part of the century to the mid 1980s providing a scholarly overview to research topics. Collects in a single volume articles that come from a wide variety of sources. Suitable for Courses in Ethnomusicology Multiculturalism in Music Introduction to Music Music History World Music Cultural and Social Anthropology Folk Music and Folklore and Myth ESSENTIALS OF CULTURAL ANTHROPOLOGY A. R. N. SRIVASTAVA, 2012-09-19 This well organized text continues to present the social cultural anthropological concepts and theories which have influenced the mankind in the past particularly in the twentieth century between the years 1965 and 2000. The new edition is incorporated with two new sections one defining the major concepts of sociology defining society community association and so on and the other an Appendix on Tribal Movement in India. The book further provides an anthropological analysis of cultural institutions relating to society economy polity folklore and art. The description of the relation between language and culture and a separate chapter on Cultural Change make this text unique. Examples are taken from all across the world to describe socio economic political and religious institutions and give a panoramic view of the diverse cultures. This book is intended to serve as a text for undergraduate students of Anthropology and postgraduate students of Anthropology and Sociology. In addition it would also be beneficial for the students preparing for various competitive examinations. KEY FEATURES Provides theoretical orientations in cultural anthropology. Contains annotated references at the end of each chapter. Gives an insight into the contributions of well known anthropologists. Illustrates concepts through diagrams and charts thus enhancing the value of the text Ethnographic Film Karl G. Heider, 2009-04-20 From reviews of the first edition Ethnographic Film can rightly be considered a film primer for anthropologists. Choice This is an interesting and useful book about what it means to be ethnographic and how this might affect ethnographic filmmaking for the better It obviously belongs in all departments of anthropology and most ethnographic filmmakers will want to read it Ethnohistory Even before Robert Flaherty released Nanook of the North in 1922 anthropologists were producing films about the lifeways of native peoples for a public audience as well as for research and teaching Ethnographic Film 1976 was one of the first books to provide a comprehensive introduction to this field of visual anthropology and it quickly became the standard reference In this new edition Karl G Heider thoroughly updates Ethnographic Film to reflect developments in the field over the three decades since its publication focusing on the work of four seminal filmmakers Jean Rouch John Marshall Robert Gardner and Timothy Asch He begins with an introduction to ethnographic film and a history of the medium He then considers many attributes of ethnographic film including the crucial need to present whole acts whole bodies whole interactions and whole people to preserve the integrity of the cultural context Heider also discusses numerous aspects of making ethnographic films from ethics and finances to technical considerations such as film versus video and preserving the filmed record He concludes with a look at using ethnographic film in teaching
