Gender And Agency:

Gender and Agency Lois McNay, 2000-08-08 This book reassesses theories of agency and gender identity against the backdrop of changing relations between men and women in contemporary societies McNay argues that recent thought on the formation of the modern subject offers a one sided or negative account of agency which underplays the creative dimension present in the responses of individuals to changing social relations An understanding of this creative element is central to a theory of autonomous agency and also to an explanation of the ways in which women and men negotiate changes within gender relations In exploring the implications of this idea of agency for a theory of gender identity McNay brings together the work of leading feminist theorists such as Judith Butler and Nancy Fraser with the work of key continental social theorists In particular she examines the work of Pierre Bourdieu Paul Ricoeur and Cornelius Castoriadis each of whom has explored different aspects of the idea of the creativity of action McNay argues that their thought has interesting implications for feminist ideas of gender but these have been relatively neglected partly because of the huge influence of the work of Michel Foucault and Jacques Lacan in this area She argues that despite its suggestive nature feminist theory must move away from the ideas of Foucault and Lacan if a more substantive account of agency is to be introduced into ideas of gender identity This book will appeal to students and scholars in the areas of social theory gender studies and feminist theory

Gender, Agency, and Coercion S. Madhok, A. Phillips, K. Wilson, Clare Hemmings, 2013-01-16 Drawing on recent feminist discussions this collection critically reassesses ideas about agency exploring the relationship between agency and coercion in greater depth and across a range of disciplinary perspectives and ethical contexts Gender, Agency and Violence Dr Ulrike Gutzlaff, 2013-10-03 Gender Agency and Violence European Perspectives from Early Modern Times to the Present Day centres on literary cinematic and artistic male and female perpetrators of violence and their discourses This volume takes an interdisciplinary and cross European approach covering French German English and Italian case studies from the sixteenth to the twentieth century and allowing for the exploration of recurrent themes The contributions also facilitate an insight into how the arts and media respond to historical turning points which time and again challenge the link between gender agency and violence for individuals and society alike Gender, Agency and War Tina

Managhan, 2012-01-30 This book traces practices of militarization and resistance that have emerged under the sign of motherhood in US Foreign Policy Gender Agency and War examines this discourse against the background of three key moments of American foreign policy formation the anti nuclear movement of the 1980s the Gulf War of the early 1990s and the recent invasion of Iraq For each of these moments the author explores the emergence of a historically specific and emblematic maternalized mode of female embodiment ranging from the hysterical antinuclear protester to the figure of Supermom in order to shed light onto the various practices which define and enable expressions of American sovereignty In so doing the text argues that the emergence of particular raced gendered and maternalized bodies ought not to be read as merely tangential to affairs of state but as instantiations of global politics This work urges an approach that rereads the body as an event with significant implications for the ways in which international politics and gender are currently understood This book will be of much interest to students of gender politics critical security studies US foreign policy and IR in general

War, Violence and Women's Agency in Pakistan Rehana Wagha, 2024-02-29 War Violence and Women's Agency in Pakistan investigates the prominent features of gender ideology in the Swat region Pakistan and how they influence the norms and forms of women's agency during conflict After 9 11 the War on Terror brought a new wave of anarchy extremism and violence to the valley of Swat This book investigates the socio political structures in the region and examines their impact on women's political behaviour The author asks how these patriarchal socio political structures have contributed to the formation of women's subjectivities and their ability to subvert and resist patriarchal regimes of oppression She examines how women experienced militancy what led them to support or resist the Taliban and how they coped with everyday violence displacement and resettlement in the period from 2005 to 2010 Multidisciplinary in its approach the book analyses the norms and forms of women's agency under the postmodern structure and agency framework of feminist political theory which views structure and agency as co constituted and mutually dependent Focusing on women's narratives and the norms and forms of their behaviour from a woman's perspective this book is a welcome addition to the analysis of the violence in the Swat region Pakistan It will be of interest to scholars of Gender Studies War and Conflict Studies and South Asian Studies

Black Women, Agency, and the New Black Feminism Maria del Guadalupe Davidson, 2017-02-17 The powerful Beyonc formidable Rihanna and the incalculable Nikki Minaj Their images lead one to wonder are they a new incarnation of black feminism and black women's agency or are they only pure fantasy in which instead of having agency they are in fact the products of the forces of patriarchy and commercialism More broadly one can ask whether black women in general are only being led to believe that they have power but are really being drawn back into more complicated systems of exploitation and oppression Or are black women subverting patriarchy by challenging notions of their subordinate and exploitable sexuality In other words who is playing who Black Women Agency and the New Black Feminism identifies a generational divide between traditional black feminists and younger black women While traditional black feminists may see for example sexualized images of black women negatively and as an impediment to progress younger black women tend to embrace these new images and see them in a positive light After carefully setting up this divide this enlightening book will suggest that a more complex understanding of black feminist agency needs to be developed one that is adapted to the complexities faced by the younger generation in today's world Arguing the concept of agency as an important theme for black feminism this innovative title will appeal to scholars teachers and students interested in black feminist and feminist philosophy identity construction subjectivity and agency race gender and class

Women, Agency and Religion Ilaria Valenzi, 2024-11-28 On both Mediterranean shores women's agency is articulated by new social and legal actors that face the religious factor both as an asset and as a brake This book explores how female agency is defined and takes place in the region The collection brings together contributions of both theoretical and thematic nature mapping various experiences on the public role of women in the Mediterranean context In particular the book relates the two sides observing affinities and differences in the affirmation of women s agency This synoptic approach avoids essentialist contraposition and dialectic between different cultural religious and political universes and emphasizes the role of a common geopolitical space where women s agency is playing an increasingly decisive role in the building and defense of constitutional democratic political systems The reflection is enriched by the specific analysis of the role of a religious factor in the process of affirmation or in contrast as a restraint on women s agency The book focuses both on the role of women believers in the processes of transformation of the political contexts of the North African and Euro Mediterranean area and on the role of women within religions questioning from inside the patriarchal traditions of the latter The book applies a multidisciplinary approach to the theme of women s agency in which law sociology theology and philosophy interact with each other As such it will be a valuable resource for those working in the areas of Human Rights Law Law and Religion Socio legal Studies and Gender Studies

Contesting Masculinities and Women's Agency in Kashmir Amya Agarwal,2022-07-18 What is the significance of gender and masculinities in understanding conflict Through an ethnographic study conducted between 2013 and 2016 this book explores the politics of competing and sometimes overlapping masculinities represented by the state armed forces and the non state actors in the Kashmir valley In addition the book broadens the understanding of women s agency through its engagement with the construction performance and interplay of masculinities in the conflict Combining existing elements of both feminist research and critical scholarship on men and masculinities the book highlights the significance of foregrounding the interplay of men s identities in conflicts to understand agency in a meaningful way Through the focus on the simultaneous play of multiple masculinities the book also questions the oversimplified and monolithic usage of masculinity being associated only with violence in conflicts The empirical data in the book includes interviews and narratives of multiple stakeholders belonging to diverse vantage points in the Kashmir conflict. Some of these include activists, widows, wives of the disappeared, ex-militants, surrendered militants, participants of the stone pelting movement, mothers of sons killed in the conflict, women representatives of the village Halqa Panchayats and army personnel. The book also draws from alternative material in the form of graffiti, folk songs, poetry on graves and slogans. Through anecdotal reminiscence, the author reflects on the challenges of field research in Kashmir that served as an opportunity for self-contemplation.

Women Out of Place Brackette Williams, 2013-12-02. These essays investigate the links between agency and race with regard to constructions of masculinity and femininity among radical groups resisting varied forms of political and economic domination. Building on the work of anthropologists, historians, sociologists, literary critics, and feminist philosophers of science, the essays in Women Out of Place investigate the links between agency and race for what they reveal about constructions of masculinity and femininity and patterns of domesticity among groups seeking to resist varied forms of political and economic domination through a subnational ideology of racial and cultural redemption.

Women's Agency and Mobile Communication Under the Radar Xin Pei, Pranav Malhotra, Rich Ling, 2024-02-01. This volume maps the role of mobile communication in the daily lives of women around the globe, shedding light on the use of mobile communication to display a nuanced understanding of social impacts that may affect the gender construction processes of women at the individual, institutional, and societal levels. A global team of authors focus on the use of mobile communication by women in the lower rungs of their respective societies as well as those who migrate with marginalized statuses within and across the national borders to demonstrate how under the radar use of mobile communication is deeply inscribed within diversified social, cultural, historical, and political milieus. Illuminating the social structural constraints faced by women under their dynamic negotiation of agentic mobile phone use for self-empowerment, the chapters cover women's economic activities, health care, well-being, migration, gendered identity, and the practices of different gender roles. This comprehensive and interdisciplinary volume will be of interest to scholars and students of media and communication, new and digital media, mobile communication, gender studies, sociology, anthropology, political science, and cultural studies.

Women's Agency and Self-Fashioning in Early Modern Tuscany Autori Vari, 2022-06-13T13:24:00+02:00. The women profiled in these chapters come from diverse cultural, social, economic, and spiritual backgrounds, from patrician heads of household to widows, from saints to artistic patrons. Each of the women featured in this interdisciplinary study offers us fresh insight and a broader perspective on the position and role of female protagonists in the history of early modern Tuscany. Employing a variety of methodological approaches and aided by new archival material, this volume examines women's ordinary and extraordinary experiences through their writings, cultural and religious activities, social and political networks, and commercial endeavors. In so doing, the volume raises insightful questions about the scope of women's accomplishments and provides new direction for the future study of women's agency and self.

fashioning Muslim Women, Agency and Resistance Politics Inshah Malik, 2018-11-16 This book investigates agency in the historical resistance movement in Kashmir by initiating a fresh conversation about Muslim Kashmiri women. It exhibits Muslim women not merely as accidental victims but conscientious agents who choose to operate within the struggles of self-determination. The experience of victimization stimulates women to take control of their lives and press for change. Despite experiencing isolating political conditions, Kashmiri women do not internalize their supposed inferiority. The author shows that women's struggles against patriarchy are at the heart of a very complex historical resistance to the Indian rule.
