Genealogies Of Difference:

Genealogies of Difference Nathan Widder, 2002 Lucid and distinctive this volume is an important in depth contribution to contemporary debates on pluralism multiplicity and community Direction and Socio-spatial Theory Matthew Hannah, 2018-12-07 The embodied directedness of human practice has long been neglected in critical socio spatial theory in favor of analyses focused upon distance and proximity This book illustrates the absence of a sense for direction in much theoretical discourse and lays important groundwork for redressing this lacuna in socio spatial theory Many accounts of the social world are incomplete or are increasingly out of step with recent developments of neoliberal capitalism Not least through new technological mediations of production and consumption the much discussed waning of the importance of physical distance has been matched by the increasing centrality of turning from one thing to another as a basic way in which lives are structured and occupied A sensibility for embodied processes of turning and for phenomena of direction more generally is urgently needed Chapters develop wide ranging and original engagements with the arguments of Sara Ahmed Jonathan Beller Edmund Husserl Martin Heidegger Virginia Held Bernard Stiegler Theodore Schatzki Rahel Jaeggi Hartmut Rosa and David Harvey This book reinterprets practice embodiment alienation reification social reproduction and ethical responsibility from a directional perspective It will be a new valuable resource and reference for political and social geography students as well as sociologists and anthropologists The New North American Studies Winfried Siemerling, 2005 Winner of the English Book Award Grand Prix du Livre 2006 de la Ville de Sherbrooke In this original and groundbreaking study Winfried Siemerling examines the complexities of recognition and identity rejecting previous nationalized thinking to approach North American cultural transformations from transnational and interdisciplinary perspectives Using material from the United States and Canada as case studies and drawing on a wide range of texts and theorists he examines postcoloniality and cultural emergence from the sixties to the present against earlier backgrounds Siemerling s argument for a retheorization of the field takes on the full history of multiculturalism debates including radical readings of W E B Du Bois and Charles Taylor and their relation to G W F Hegel and challenging many of the models of multiculturalism in use today Tackling controversial subjects such as identity politics The New North American Studies proposes a fresh outlook on the most central issues of North American cultural politics from debates on canon formation to the role of racial and linguistic difference Concluding with a look at the future of cultural difference Winfried Siemerling s study is an innovative rethinking of the whole field of North American Studies The Poetics of Difference Mecca Jamilah Sullivan, 2021-10-19 Winner of the Modern Language Association MLA s William Sanders Scarborough Prize From Audre Lorde Ntozake Shange and Bessie Head to Zanele Muholi Suzan Lori Parks and Missy Elliott Black women writers and artists across the African Diaspora have developed nuanced and complex creative forms Mecca Jamilah Sullivan ventures into the unexplored spaces of black women s queer creative theorizing to learn its languages and read the textures of its forms

Moving beyond fixed notions Sullivan points to a space of queer imagination where black women invent new languages spaces and genres to speak the many names of difference Black women s literary cultures have long theorized the complexities surrounding nation and class the indeterminacy of gender and race and the multiple meanings of sexuality Yet their ideas and work remain obscure in the face of indifference from Western scholarship Innovative and timely The Poetics of Difference illuminates understudied queer contours of black women s writing

These are the Generations Matthew A. Thomas, 2011-03-17 Using a combination of form critical and linguistic methods the author seeks to understand the role of the toledot formula often translated These are the generations of Name in shaping the book of Genesis and the Pentateuch as a whole An examination of the formula uncovers that it functions primarily as a heading to major sections of text and draws the readers attention to focus on an ever narrower range of characters By starting from the perspective of the surface structure of the text and addressing questions that investigation raises the study is able to uncover and resolve a number of tensions within the text as well as provide insights into a number of other questions surrounding the toledot headings and the organization of the structure of the Pentateuch

The Vocation of Theology Today Tom Greggs, Rachel Muers, Simeon Zahl, 2013-02-08 What is the task of theology in a complex religious and secular world What are theologians called to contribute to society the churches and the academy Can theology be both fully faithful to Christian tradition and Scripture and fully open to the challenges of the twenty first century In this book an international team of contributors including some of the best known names in the field respond to these questions in programmatic essays that set the direction for future debates about the vocation of theology David Ford in whose honor the collection is produced has been for many years a key figure in articulating and shaping the role of contemporary theology The contributors are his colleagues collaborators and former students and their essays engage in dialogue with his work The main unifying feature of this exciting collection is not Ford s work per se however but a shared engagement with the pressing question of theology s vocation today

New Developments in the Cognitive Science of Religion Hans van Eyghen, 2018-07-14 It is widely thought that the cognitive science of religion CSR may have a bearing on the epistemic status of religious beliefs and on other topics in philosophy of religion Epistemologists have used theories from CSR to argue both for and against the rationality of religious beliefs or they have claimed that CSR is neutral vis vis the epistemic status of religious belief However since CSR is a rapidly evolving discipline a great deal of earlier research on the topic has become dated Furthermore most of the debate on the epistemic consequences of CSR has not taken into account insights from the philosophy of science such as explanatory pluralism and explanatory levels This volume overcomes these deficiencies This volume brings together new philosophical reflection on CSR It examines the influence of CSR theories on the epistemic status of religious beliefs it discusses its impact on philosophy of religion and it offers new insights for CSR The book addresses the question of whether or not the plurality of theories in CSR makes epistemic conclusions about religious belief unwarranted It also explores the impact of CSR on other topics in philosophy of religion like the cognitive consequences of sin and naturalism Finally the book investigates what the main theories in CSR aim to explain and addresses the strengths and weaknesses of CSR
