Protests and Generations: Legacies and Emergences in the Middle East, North Africa and the Mediterranean, 2017-04-18 The aim of Protests and Generations is to problematize the relations between generations and protests in the Middle East North Africa and the Mediterranean Most of the work on recent protests insists on the newness of their manifestation but leave unexplored the various links that exist between them and what preceded them Mark Muhannad Ayyash and Ratiba Hadj Moussa Eds argue that their articulation relies at once on historical ties and their rejection It is precisely this tension that the chapters of the book address in specifically documenting several case studies that highlight the generating processes by which generations and protests are connected. What the production and use of generation brings to scholarly understanding of the protests and the ability to articulate them is one of the major questions this collection addresses. Contributors are Mark Muhannad Ayyash, Lorenzo Cini, ric Gobe, Ratiba Hadj Moussa, Andrea Hajek, Chaymaa Hassabo, Gal Levy, Ilana Kaufman, Sunaina Maira, Mohammad Massala, Matthieu Rey, G kb r Sarp, Tanyildiz and Stephen Luis Vilaseca. Protests and Generations is now available in paperback for individual customers.

The Folktales of Palestine Farah Aboubakr, 2019-03-21. Folktales are instrumental in ensuring the survival of oral traditions and strengthening communal bonds. Both the stories and the process of storytelling itself help to define social, cultural and political identity. For Palestinians, the threat of losing their heritage has engendered a sense of urgency among storytellers and Palestinian folklorists. Yet there has been remarkably little academic scholarship dedicated to the tradition. Farah Aboubakr here analyses a selection of folktales, edited, compiled and translated by Ibrahim Muhawi and Sharif Kanaana in Speak Bird Speak Again (1989). In addition to the folktales themselves, Muhawi and Kanaana's collection is renowned for providing readers with extensive folkloric, historical and anthropological annotations. Here, for the first time, the folktales and the compilers' work on them are the subject of scholarly analysis. Synthesising various disciplines including memory studies, gender studies and social movement studies, Aboubakr uses the collection to understand the politics of storytelling and its impact on Palestinian identity. In particular, the book draws attention to the female storytellers who play an essential role in transmitting and preserving collective memory and culture. The book is an important step towards analysing a significant genre of Palestinian literature and will be relevant to scholars of Palestinian politics and popular culture, gender studies and memory studies, and those interested in folklore and oral literature.

Embedded Generations Liu Jieyu, 2025-11-25. An interconnected, nuanced and nonlinear view of Chinese family life since 1949. With Embedded Generations, Liu Jieyu offers a comprehensive examination of Chinese family life since the Chinese Communist Revolution of 1949. Grounding her account in the analysis of 260 life history narratives and rich ethnographic data, Liu traces the changing ways families have navigated such experiential milestones as childhood, courtship and marriage, sex and intimacy and aging over the past seven decades. Using generation, the urban-rural divide and gender as her analytical lenses, she provides an alternative narrative of Chinese family life, countering the dominant Eurocentric accounts of modernization and family change. Liu proposes the concept of embedded generations to capture the ongoing relational and socioeconomic shaping of family life, taking account of variation within and across generations and of both intergenerational transmission and individual adaptations to changing conditions of everyday life. Resisting the notion that social and family changes are linear historical progressions, Liu reveals a family portrait of complex change, continuity and diversity. Rather than a straightforward transition from the traditional to the modern and postmodern, she argues changes in Chinese family life have entailed the adaptation and re-serving of traditional ideas and practices to produce a bricolage of modern and traditional elements
