Adult Basic Education William S. Griffith, Ann P. Hayes, 1970 Teaching Science to Every Child John Settlage, Sherry A. Southerland, 2007 Teaching Science to Every Child proposes a fresh perspective for teaching school science and draws upon an extensive body of classroom research to meaningfully address the achievement gap in science education Settlage and Southerland begin from the point of view that science can be thought of as a culture rather than as a fixed body of knowledge Throughout this book the idea of culture is used to illustrate how teachers can guide all students to be successful in science while still being respectful of students ethnic heritages and cultural traditions By combining a cultural view of science with instructional approaches shown to be effective in a variety of settings the authors provide elementary and middle school teachers with a conceptual framework as well as pedagogical approaches which support the science learning of a diverse array of students Teaching What They Learn, Learning What They Live Brad Olsen, 2015-11-17 Cogent interesting and provocative from the foreword by Ann Lieberman Teaching What They Learn Learning What They Live explores the multiple social political and epistemological domains that comprise learning to teach Based on a study of eight beginning English teachers at four different university teacher preparation programs this book examines the ways in which beginning teachers personal dispositions and conceptions combines with their teacher preparation programs professional knowledge and contexts to form their understandings of and approaches toward teaching Brad Olsen recasts learning to teach as a continuous situated identity process in which prior experiences produce deeply embedded ways of viewing the world that go on to organize current future experience into meaning Since experience shapes learning and everyone acquires different sets of experience no individual teacher's knowledge is exactly like another's Yet Olsen shows also that the process by which a teacher constructs professional knowledge is common the what of teacher knowledge varies but the how remains the same

HLM50+ Towards a Social Architecture Tony Monk, 2017-07-06 Since its sudden and dramatic formation upon winning the competition to design Paisley Civic Centre in 1963 Hutchison Locke and Monk HLM Architects has consistently served and adapted to the changing requirements of Britain's welfare state and has instinctively dedicated its professional services to community architecture Conceived from the perspective of founding partner Tony Monk this book reveals the inside story of how the partnership has grown over 50 years to become a leading UK national practice It sets out the early influences and progressive design philosophy of HLM Architects and analyses how they developed their design ethos from late modern through contextual post modern architectural styles by the early 1980s and then matured into producing its own contemporary designs explaining why these changes took place over that period As well as reflecting the transformations in the social and political landscapes and in aesthetic approaches it also inevitably records the changing social history of the architectural profession from labour intensive manual presentations using drafting pens and drawing boards through to the slick mass produced computer modelling that accompanied the digital revolution and the fundamental adjustments needed to meet the realities of managing an efficient modern commercial business Working with the HLM Board the authoritative contributors are Directors who have used their knowledge and experience in responding to government legislation with innovative architectural solutions in their specialist fields HLM Chairman Christopher Liddle is a leading exponent of defence and custodial procurement alongside Caroline Buckingham in education and Leslie Welch in healthcare Their award winning projects now help formulate current policy The critical Introduction by Dr Edward Denison re examines the practice s philosophy and contribution to the evolving welfare state during the second half of the twentieth century The conclusion is a perceptive assessment of the future direction of the architectural profession and a statement of HLM s continuing commitment to improving our society The complex relationships described shed new light on previous architectural theories and in doing so this book adds to the knowledge of post war British architecture

The Betty G's Gold Jacques Evans,2010-06-23 There was no name on the C 46 but the ground and flight crews who flew the Hump called her the Betty G The airplane was identified by a painting of a scantily clad female on the left side of the nose In 1944 the Betty G encountered severe turbulence and crashed into the side of a mountain The wreckage was located in an uncharted area and attempts to reach the site were futile Rumors circulated that gold coins for Chiang Kai shek s payroll were aboard the Betty G Fifty years later faced with exorbitant taxes from inheriting the family business the young owner is unable to raise the money Desperate and unwilling to sell the business and having heard about the Betty G from his father he obtains satellite photographs and pinpoints the location of the aircraft With help from his congressman he receives permission from the Indian government to search for World War II artifacts and sets out to search for the Betty G s gold
