Faith and English Language Teaching and Learning Mary Shepard Wong, Carolyn Kristjansson, Zoltan Dornyei, 2013-02-15 Ideological and educational political aspects of the link between language and faith especially between Global English and Christianity is a topic of growing interest in the field of English language teaching This book explores the possible role and impact of teachers and students faith in the English language classroom Bringing together studies representing a diversity of experiences and perspectives on the philosophies purposes practices and theories of the interrelationship of Christianity and language learning and teaching it is on the front line in providing empirical data that offers firm insights into the actual role that faith plays in various aspects of the language learning teaching experience By adding a data based dimension the volume contributes to the cultivation of valid research methods and innovative ways to analyze and interpret studies of the intersection of Christian faith and the practice of teaching and learning language A Philosophy of Prayer George Pattison, 2024-07-02 Exploring the silence of prayer in Post Kantian philosophy and traditional spirituality A Philosophy of Prayer explores prayer within the perspective of post Kantian philosophy Against a background of traditional sources including Augustine The Cloud of Unknowing and the seventeenth century French school of spirituality the book uses Schleiermacher Kierkegaard Dostoevsky Heidegger Berdyaev Tillich Marcel Simone Weil Emmanuel Levinas and Jean Louis Chr tien to provide an interpretation of what is meant by the passivity and self annihilation of the praying self suggesting an apophatics of the personality Pattison pays particular attention to the question of language and the implications of the role given to silence in traditional texts arguing that language remains a defining element of the human God relationship and that silence is not to be construed as the negation of language but as the revelation of the depth of language itself The basic structure of prayer is shown to be implicitly eschatological oriented toward a coming kingdom of justice and peace while at the same time expressing a deep desire for ontological homecoming a tension manifest in respectively Levinas and Heidegger On Pattison s reading prayer calls for and develops a particular orientation of the self toward existence corresponding to the virtue of humility long understood as the basic Christian virtue This is shown to be in tension with modernity s commitment to strong versions of autonomy However the choice of humility is not presented as the reinstatement of religious heteronomy but as a free choice of the praying self Language as Prayer in Finnegans Wake Colleen Jaurretche,2020-03-31 This innovative analysis shows how James Joyce uses the language of prayer to grapple with profoundly human ideas in Finnegans Wake the dreamlike masterpiece that critics have called his book of the night Colleen Jaurretche moves beyond what scholars know about how Joyce composed this work to suggest why he wrote and arranged it as he did Jaurretche provides a sequential reading of the four chapters and corresponding themes of the Wake from the perspective of prayer She examines image manifested by the letters of the alphabet and the Book of Kells magic which Joyce equates with the workings of language dreams which he relates to poetry and speech glorified in the Wake for its potential to express emotions and ecstasy Jaurretche bases her study on important thinkers from antiquity to the present including Origen of Alexandria Giambattista Vico and Giordano Bruno She demonstrates how these philosophers influenced Joyce s view that prayer can imbue language with power This book is an illuminating and much needed interpretation of a work that abounds with echoes and cadences of sacred language Jaurretche s insights will guide readers understanding of the style and structure of Finnegans Wake A volume in the Florida James Joyce Series edited by Sebastian D G Knowles Be As A Child K.L. Schell,2019-03-12 Christ often used children as examples for believers He told Nicodemus that unless one is born again they cannot see the Kingdom John 3 3 But what is it about children that makes them a model for the Christian life Through psychological science we have learned much about the way children perceive think and act from the moment they are born and throughout their childhood If we apply this knowledge to the theology that Christ brought during His ministry it becomes clear why the child is the model for faith In this book we will see through the child s eyes and hopefully recapture the wonder we all felt when we first believed We will walk through childhood together learning not only about the psychology of children but also insights about our faith our spiritual growth the role of the Church and other important topics X God's Prayer Book Ben Patterson,2008 The psalms often stretch and perplex readers as they teach but they also open a divine window on prayer This collection features meditations on more than 75 psalms and offers brief thoughts and background as well as suggested ways to use the psalms in prayer Indigenous Educational Leadership Through Community-Based Knowledge and Research Robin Zape-tah-hol-ah Minthorn,Shawn L.
