Lectures To Professing Christians The Higher Christian Life:

Lectures to Professing Christians Charles Grandison Finney, 1876 Lectures to Professing Christians ... Third edition Charles G. Finney, 1839 The Primitive Methodist Magazine, 1876 Catherine Booth John Read, 2014-01-30

Catherine Booth's achievements as a revivalist social reformer champion of women's rights and with her husband William Booth co-founder of the Salvation Army were widely recognized in her lifetime. However, Catherine Booth's life and work has since been largely neglected. This neglect has extended to her theological ideas even though they were critical to the formation of Salvationism, the spirituality of the movement she co-founded. This book examines the implicit theology that undergirds Catherine Booth's Salvationist spirituality and reveals the ethical concerns at the heart of her soteriology and the integral relationship between the social and evangelical aspects of Christian mission in her thought. Catherine Booth emerges as a significant figure from the Victorian era, a British theologian and church leader with a rare if not unique intellectual and theological perspective that of a woman.

Public Relations and Religion in American History Margot Opdycke Lamme, 2014-02-18 Winner of The American Journalism Historians Association Book of the Year Award 2015. This study of American public relations history traces evangelicalism to corporate public relations via reform and the church-based temperance movement. It encompasses a leading evangelical of the Second Great Awakening, Rev. Charles Grandison Finney, and some of his predecessors, early reformers at Oberlin College where Finney spent the second half of his life, leaders of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and the Anti-Saloon League of America, and twentieth-century public relations pioneer Ivy Ledbetter Lee, whose work reflecting religious and business evangelism has not yet been examined. Observations about American public relations history icon P. T. Barnum, whose life and work touched on many of the themes presented here, also are included as thematic bookends. As such, this study cuts a narrow channel through a wide swath of literature and a broad sweep of historical time from the mid-eighteenth century to the first decades of the twentieth century to examine the deeper and deliberate strategies for effecting change for persuading a community of adherents or opponents or even a single soul to embrace that which an advocate intentionally presented in a particular way for a specific outcome, prescriptions as it turned out, not only for religious conversion but also for public relations initiatives.

Lectures on Missions and Evangelism Andrew Somerville, 1874 Lectures on Christian Theology Enoch Pond, 1867 The Lay Preacher, 1884 Lectures on Missions and Evangelism, Delivered to the Students of the Senior Hall of the United Presbyterian Church Andrew Somerville, 1874 Bibliotheca Sacra and Theological Review, 1921 The American Catalog, 1885 Perfect, but not perfected ... Second edition Charles O. ELDRIDGE, 1876 The gospel of the kingdom, a vade-mecum of texts and prayers of intercession Hugh Croskery, 1877 The Princeton Theological Review, 1921. The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature George Thomas Kurian, James D. Smith III, 2010-04-16. The written word is one of the defining elements of Christian experience. As vigorous in the 1st century as it is in the 21st

Christian literature has had a significant function in history and teachers and students need to be reminded of this powerful literary legacy. Covering 2 000 years, The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature is the first encyclopedia devoted to Christian writers and books. In addition to an overview of the Christian literature, this two volume set also includes 40 essays on the principal genres of Christian literature and more than 400 bio bibliographical essays describing the principal writers and their works. These essays examine the evolution of Christian thought as reflected in the literature of every age. The companion volume also features bibliographies, an index, a timeline of Christian Literature and a list of the greatest Christian authors. The encyclopedia will appeal not only to scholars and Christian evangelicals but students and teachers in seminaries and theological schools as well as to the growing body of Christian readers and bibliophiles.

The Reference Catalogue of Current Literature, 1884 Revivalism and Social Reform Timothy L. Smith, 2004-11-09 This is an important work which should be read by anyone who is trying to understand nineteenth century America. It will be of especial interest to students of church history, intellectual history and social reform. Henry Lee Swint, Mississippi Valley Historical Review. This is a brilliant study full of stimulating suggestions, rich bibliographical leads and well chosen quotations. A chief feature of the work, which won the Brewer prize for 1955, is its apt and extensive documentation. The author has industriously ranged through mountains of books, periodicals and fugitive materials and competently supported his well written narrative with illuminating footnotes which happily and helpfully appear where they belong at the foot of each and almost every page. Hence his judgments are backed by impressive scholarship. Robert T. Handy, Church History. So many historians have tracked the trail of the American revivalists that it is difficult for anyone to discover something new about that trail. Timothy Smith claimed to discover that they were more oriented towards social reform than their critics saw them to be. He backed up with solid documentation his claim that they were in their own way fathers of the Social Gospel. His book represented one of those rare moments in the study of American church history, the development of an original thesis, one worthy of the argument which it has during the past decade inspired and survived. Martin E. Marty.
