Under Fire Elizabeth Goodenough,Andrea Immel,2008 An eclectic multidisciplinary collection that explores the representation of war and its aftereffects in children s books and documentary film Brings together internationally known contributors to examine the ongoing influence of violence and war on children s literature by studying the childhood experiences of authors writing for children the children represented in war stories and the experiences of children who make up the stories readership From publisher description      Jews and Jewishness in British Children's Literature Madelyn

Travis,2013-09-02 In a period of ongoing debate about faith identity migration and culture this timely study explores the often politicised nature of constructions of one of Britain s longest standing minority communities Representations in children s literature influenced by the impact of the Enlightenment the Empire the Holocaust and 9 11 reveal an ongoing concern with establishing maintaining or problematising the boundaries between Jews and Gentiles Chapters on gender refugees multiculturalism and historical fiction argue that literature for young people demonstrates that the position of Jews in Britain has been ambivalent and that this ambivalence has persisted to a surprising degree in view of the dramatic socio cultural changes that have taken place over two centuries Wide ranging in scope and interdisciplinary in approach Jews and Jewishness in British Children s Literature discusses over one hundred texts ranging from picture books to young adult fiction and realism to fantasy Madelyn Travis examines rare eighteenth and nineteenth century material plus works by authors including Maria Edgeworth E Nesbit Rudyard Kipling Richmal Crompton Lynne Reid Banks Michael Rosen and others The study also draws on Travis s previously unpublished interviews with authors including Adele Geras Eva Ibbotson Ann Jungman and Judith Kerr

Representing the Holocaust in Children's Literature Lydia Kokkola,2013-10-15 Writing about the Holocaust and writing for young readers evoke two quite separate sets of concerns which are not always mutually compatible The first half of Representing the Holocaust focuses on how literary material can present historically verifiable material The second half examines how such materials will be perceived by young readers whether they will be able to determine any boundaries between fictionality and factuality and what motivates young readers to keep reading The work concludes by placing the study in the context of Holocaust education      The Best in Children's Books University of Chicago. Center for Children's Books,1986-08 Designed to aid adults parents teachers librarians in selecting from the best of recent children s literature this guide provides 1 400 reviews of books published between 1979 and 1984 This volume carries on the tradition established by Zena Sutherland s two earlier collections covering the periods from 1966 to 1972 and 1973 to 1978 Her 1973 edition of The Best in Children s Books was cited by the American School Board Journal as one of the
