Filiation And Affiliation Harold W Scheffler, 2018-02-23 Announcements in the 1970s and 1980s of the death of kinship and descent as subjects of anthropological study were highly premature These subjects continue routinely to be encountered in the course of empirical ethnographic research and to be reported upon in ethnographies or they are ignored at the peril of ethnographers pathetically unprepared to deal with them Moreover considerable evidence has accumulated that systems of social relations built on relations of genealogical connection exhibit a remarkable degree of orderliness about which it is possible already to make a number of substantial empirical generalizations especially about the qualities of social relations within and between groups As the masters of the subject always stressed kinship and political and jural organization are closely interdependent structures In this wide ranging theoretical and comparative ethnographic study Harold Scheffler demonstrates that there is a simple reason why detection of this order has been too long delayed and has given rise to more destructive than to constructive debate in social anthropology

Affiliations Jeffrey R. Di Leo, 2003-01-01 It s not what you know but who you know It s not what you do but where you do it Underlying such facile assertions there lies at least a little truth and for academics a complex web of relationships Academic affiliations confer value and identity on individuals disciplines and institutions They have a formative and formidable role in determining the status and self image of academics and institutions The subtleties and implications of such a system in personal and professional terms are the subject of this timely and thought provoking volume Here writers from all walks of academic life interweave personal experiences and critical insights to reveal the inner workings of affiliation in contemporary academic culture These essays take up topics ranging from scholars attitudes toward their affiliated institutions to publishing in academic journals from the phenomenon of the academic star system to activism among tenured professors from the perils of crossing disciplinary boundaries to the merits of mentoring through affiliation Together they offer a frank firsthand view of the ways and means and the uses and abuses of affiliation in higher education today a view

Said,1983 Said demonstrates that critical discourse has been strengthened by the writings of Derrida and Foucault and by influences like Marxism structuralism linguistics and psychoanalysis But he argues these forces have compelled literature to meet the requirements of a theory or system ignoring complex affiliations binding the texts to the world      Focus: Filiation and Affiliation in Blok and Mandel'shtam Angela Brintlinger,2004      Racial Dimensions of Life Writing in Education Lucy E. Bailey,KaaVonia Hinton,2022-09-01 This collection presents life writing projects that explore or represent the racial dimensions of life writing research in diverse educational spaces using diverse methodologies and inquiry approaches We believe this collection is long overdue To quote Melva R Grant and Signe E Kastberg s succinct phrasing this volume racialized inquiry matters While some rich texts explore the racial aspects and anti racist potential of social science research Blee 2018 Lopez Sefa Dei Twine Warren 2000 and include examples from educational contexts there are no collections which focus on the intersections of life writing inquiry as educative projects that highlight racial dimensions of the work and lives under study Drawing from Toni Morrison s enduring wisdom a visionary writer whose work has explored the racial dimensions of culture and lived experience we centralize race in life writing in this collection rather than obscuring it or leaving it as a lurking absent presence in the craft Racial Dimensions of Life Writing Research offers a wealth of ideas and perspectives from which scholars teachers and students can draw to support their work The 14 chapters in this collection attend to national international and local concerns include varied theoretical and methodological approaches and reflect a range of ethnic and racial heritages Chapters consider practical theoretical ethical and educational issues involved in projects concerning under represented educational actors important for the terrain of life writing The authors include established and emerging scholars university researchers directors and professors academic advisors graduate and undergraduate students activists and former elementary and secondary school teachers It is our hope that this volume will spark conversation debate and reflection and will be a valuable resource that inspires scholarship about how race and its intersections shape the life writing inquiry process ENDORSEMENT This is an exceptionally important volume interrogating intersections of race racism and life writing Authors recenter life narrative as a necessary anchor for studying teaching about and learning through complex racial dynamics This book should be read by any of us serious about studying and advancing knowledge on race and writing Richard Milner Vanderbilt University      The Space and Place of Modernism Adam McKible,2013-01-11 This book examines reactions to the Russian Revolution by four little magazines of the teens and twenties TheLiberator The Messenger The Little Review and TheDial in order to analyze some of the ways modernist writers negotiate the competing demands of aesthetics political commitment and race Re examining interconnections among such superficially disparate phenomena as the Harlem Renaissance Greenwich Village bohemianism modernism and Leftist politics this book rightly emphasizes the vitality of little magazines and argues for their necessary place in the study of modernism

Towards a Dialogical History of Modern Architecture Jorge Francisco Liernur, 2024-07-15 The book challenges three perspectives on the modern architectural canon explanations that disregard impacts and effects beyond the North Atlantic monologic superficial modifications that simply add Other figures to the canon and views that reject the canon itself Instead it recognizes the canon's significance in comprehending architecture while seeking to uncover its presumed Western centric integrity through a shift from a monological to a dialogical approach This approach integrates concepts of identity and Otherness as dialectically articulated and mutually interrelated In essence the book's main thesis contends that the canon's historiographic construction overlooked the existence of Otherness specifically neglecting the world beyond the North Atlantic nucleus of the West By examining a global context to comprehend the canon formation the book proposes a more accurate understanding of the history of modern architecture Recognizing that this task cannot emanate from a single hegemonic center it presents the prospect of a coral type architectural history This narrative should and could encompass voices from diverse cultures to explore the particular circumstances of the world intertwined with each piece or figure transiently integrated into that canon As a result the ideal readers of this book position themselves within multiple settings keen on engaging in a critical global conversation about modern architectural discourse It will be of interest to researchers and students of architecture architectural history and cultural studies

Kinship in Action Andrew Strathern, Pamela J Stewart, 2015-07-02 For courses in Social Organization Kinship and Cultural Ecology Kinship has made a come back in Anthropology Not only is there a line of noted general introductory works and readers in the topic but theoretical discussions have been stimulated both by technological changes in mechanisms of reproduction and by reconsiderations of how to define kinship in the most productive ways for cross cultural comparisons In addition kinship studies have moved away from the minutiae of kin terminological systems and the kinship algebra often associated with these to the broader analysis of processes historical changes and fundamental cultural meanings in which kin relationships are implicated In this changed and changing context both Andrew Strathern and Pamela J Stewart both of the University of Pittsburgh bring together a number of interests and concerns in order to provide pointers for students as well as scholars in this field of study Taking an explicitly processual approach the authors examine definitions of terms such as kinship itself approach the topic in a way that is invariably ethnographic and deploy materials from field areas where they themselves have worked

Questions of Travel Caren Kaplan, 1996-08-21 Contemporary theory is replete with metaphors of travel displacement diaspora borders exile migration nomadism homelessness and tourism to name a few In Questions of Travel Caren Kaplan explores the various metaphoric uses of travel and displacement in literary and feminist theory traces the political implications of this traveling theory and shows how various discourses of displacement link rather than separate modernism and postmodernism Addressing a wide range of writers including Paul Fussell Edward Said James Clifford Gilles Deleuze Jean Baudrillard Gayatri Spivak Edward Soja Doreen Massey Chandra Mohanty and Adrienne Rich Kaplan demonstrates that symbols and metaphors of travel are used in ways that obscure key differences of power between nationalities classes races and genders Neither rejecting nor dismissing the powerful testimony of individual experiences of modern exile or displacement Kaplan asks how mystified metaphors of travel might be avoided With a focus on theory s colonial discourses she reveals how these metaphors continue to operate in the seemingly liberatory critical zones of poststructuralism and feminist theory The book concludes with a critique of the politics of location as a form of essentialist identity politics and calls for new feminist geographies of place and displacement
