

The background of the poster is a lush, green landscape with rolling hills and a body of water in the foreground. In the distance, there are large, dome-shaped structures. Two bright blue vertical beams of light descend from the sky, where a large, white, winged aircraft is visible. In the lower right, a man in a blue uniform and a dark cape stands with a young boy in a white shirt. The man has a large, futuristic weapon on his back. The sky is filled with soft, golden light, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The overall tone is cinematic and hopeful.

Rees, 2019-07-25 Avant garde film is almost indefinable It is in a constant state of change and redefinition In his highly acclaimed history of experimental film A L Rees tracks the movement of the film avant garde between the cinema and modern art with its postmodern coda But he also reconstitutes the film avant garde as an independent form of art practice with its own internal logic and aesthetic discourse In this revised and updated edition Rees introduces experimental film and video to new readers interested in the wider cinema as well as offering a guide to enthusiasts of avant garde film and new media arts Ranging from C zanne and Dada via Cocteau Brakhage and Le Grice to the new wave of British film and video artists from the 1990s to the present day this expansive study situates avant garde film between the cinema and the gallery with many links to sonic as well as visual arts The new edition includes a review of current scholarship in avant garde film history and includes updated reading and viewing lists It also features a new introduction and concluding chapter which assess the rise of video projection in the gallery since the millennium and describe new work by the latest generation of experimental film makers The new edition is richly illustrated with images of the art works discussed Film: an Anthology Daniel Talbot, 1975 An anthology of writings on film studies Ritwik Ghatak and the Cinema of Praxis Diamond Oberoi Vahali, 2020-04-24 In a significant departure from other works on Ritwik Ghatak this book establishes him as an auteur and a maestro on par with some of the great film directors like Sergei Eisenstein Satyajit Ray Ingmar Bergman Federico Fellini Kenji Mizoguchi and Luis Bunuel Based on in depth research that follows Ghatak s journey within the context of the Indian People s Theatre Association it fills an important gap in the scholarship around Ghatak by offering crucial insights into Ghatak s unique vision of cinema embedded as it is in the cultural psychic configurations of the people It analyses Ghatak s practice by minutely tracing formal similarities across the language of his cinematic oeuvre in the domain of cinematography lighting music and sound The book develops the way in which cinematic technique enters the domain of conceptual constructs and abstractions It moves on to chronicle Ghatak s political odyssey as reflected in his cinema Moreover it charts the manner in which Ghatak through his cinematic idiom offers a polemic of cinema that further adds to his notion of praxis a thoughtful Marxist paradigm organically associated with the culture and context of India By locating Ghatak within the discourse of nationalism the book brings to the surface Ghatak s critical insights related to the independence of the nation and the trauma of the partition of Bengal Ghatak s cinema served the crucial function of chronicling the mass tragedy of partition and its impact on the human psyche This book appeals to scholars of film studies and filmmaking as well as to researchers and general readers interested in debates pertaining to culture politics art psychoanalysis partition and refugee studies cinema theatre and ideology Movies and Methods Bill Nichols, 1976 Gathers examples of historical genre feminist structural psychoanalytical and phenomenological film criticism
