Citron, 2024-04-22 A classic in gender studies in music Marcia J Citron's comprehensive balanced work lays a broad foundation for the study of women composers and their music Drawing on a diverse body of feminist and interdisciplinary theory Citron shows how the western art canon is not intellectually pure but the result of a complex mixture of attitudes practices and interests that often go unacknowledged and unchallenged Winner of the Pauline Alderman Prize from the International Alliance of Women in Music Gender and the Musical Canon explores important elements of canon formation such as notions of creativity professionalism and reception Citron surveys the institutions of power from performing organizations and the academy to critics and the publishing and recording industries that affect what goes into the canon and what is kept out She also documents the nurturing role played by women including mothers in cultivating female composers In a new introduction she assesses the book's reception by composers and critics especially the reactions to her controversial reading of Cile Chaminade's sonata for piano A key volume in establishing how the concepts and assumptions that form the western art music canon affect female composers and their music Gender and the Musical Canon also reveals how these dynamics underpin many of the major issues that affect musicology as a discipline

The Vinyl Revival, Gender, and Collecting Aesthetics Veronica Skrimsjö, 2025-09-08 The book explores record collecting and vinyl consumption in the 21st century within the context of the vinyl revival The book highlights gender and how gender disparity is expressed in vinyl communities Veronica Skrimsjö considers vinyl consumerism and collecting and how the collector identifies themselves within the socio political environment of the Global North with a particular focus on gender The book includes considerations of Record Store Day DIY and DI together cultures as well as the historic context needed to evaluate record collecting in the 21st century The work is aimed at both an academic and a general readership and as such strikes a more informal tone Personal experiences are emphasised throughout because vinyl consumers are not a homogenous group and it is only via personal experiences that we can understand the complexity of consumption The personal experience also helps make the content more relatable which is crucial as old stereotypes helped distance the collector from the everyday consumer Readers will benefit from a different perspective on record collecting and consumptions as the book highlights active creative consumption and provides an in depth innovative analysis of how gender inequality is constructed within this context

Mono no Aware and Gender as Affect in Japanese Aesthetics and American Pragmatism Johnathan Flowers, 2023-03-20 Mono no Aware and Gender as Affect in Japanese Aesthetics and American Pragmatism places the naturalistic pragmatism of John Dewey in conversation with Motoori Norinaga's mono no aware a Japanese aesthetic theory of experience to examine gender as a felt experience of an aware or an affective quality of persons By treating gender as an affect Johnathan Charles Flowers argues that the experience of gendering and being gendered is a result of the affective perception of the organization of the body in line with cultural aesthetics embodied in Deweyan habit or Japanese kata broadly understood as culturally mediated transactions with the world On this view how the felt sense of identity aligns with the affective organization of society determines the nature of the possible social transactions between individuals As such this book intervenes in questions of personhood broadly and identity specifically by treating personhood itself as an affective sense In doing so this book demonstrates how questions of personhood and identity are themselves affective judgments By treating gender and other identities as aware this book advocates an expanded recognition of the how to be in the world through cultivating new ways of perceiving the affective organization of persons
