Gender And Knowledge Elements Of A Postmodern Feminism:

Gender and Knowledge Susan J. Hekman, 2013-05-02 After the success of the hardback students and academics will welcome the publication of this book in paperback The aim of the book is to explore the connection between two perspectives that have had a profound effect upon contemporary thought post modernism and feminism Through bringing together and systematically analysing the relations between these Hekman is able to make a major intervention into current debates in social theory and philosophy The critique of Enlightenment knowledge she argues is at the core of both post modernism and feminism Each also offers a basis for critical reflections about the other In particular post modern philosophy provides a means of criticizing aspects of contemporary feminism and thus contributing to the development of a more sophisticated approach to current feminist issues

Feminist Interpretations of Michel Foucault Susan Hekman, 2010-11-01 Despite the possibilities however Foucault's approach has raised serious questions about an equally crucial area of feminist thought politics Some feminist critics of Foucault have argued that his deconstruction of the concept woman also deconstructs the possibility of a feminist politics Several essays explore the implications of this deconstruction for feminist politics and suggest that a Foucauldian feminist politics is not viable

Gender, Ethnicity and Political Ideologies Nickie Charles, Helen Hintjens, 2002-11-01 First Published in 2004 This volume is a collection of the papers from an annual conference in February 1993 of the women's sections of the British Sociological Association and the Political Studies Association at the London School of Economics Its focus was Gender Sexuality and Identity Commonalities and Difference

With the exception of Valerie Bryson's chapter and the introductory chapter all the chapters in this volume originated as papers presented to that conference. There have been a number of political issues that have characterised the post Cold War era such as nationalism, religious fundamentalism, inter ethnic conflict and the process of democratization. In this groundbreaking study the authors develop a feminist perspective on these issues and reveal the way that political ideologies use women as symbols of cultural identity. Included are chapters on inter ethnic conflict in Yugoslavia, the emergence of a male democracy in Chile, women's rights in Israel, the far right and women in France and the experience of immigrants in Britain. Gender, Ethnicity and Political Ideologies is a revealing study of women's involvement with restrictive political ideologies and demonstrates the importance of a feminist politics that enables women to understand and work with each other across the boundaries that divide them.

Key Concepts in Gender Studies Jane Pilcher, Imelda Whelehan, 2016-12-13 The new edition of Key Concepts in Gender Studies is a lively and engaging introduction to this dynamic field. Thoroughly revised throughout, the second edition benefits from the addition of nine new concepts including Gender, Social Movements, Intersectionality and Mainstreaming. Each of the entries begins with a concise definition, outlines the history of each term and the debates surrounding it, includes illustrations of how the concept has been applied within the field, offers examples which allow a critical re-evaluation of the concept, is cross-referenced with the other key concepts, ends with guidance on further reading. A must buy for undergraduate and postgraduate students in a range of social science and humanities disciplines.

Marriage, Gender and Sex in a Contemporary Chinese Village Sun-Pong Yuen, Pui-Lam Law, Yuk-Ying Ho, Fong-Ying Yu, 2015-07-17 This book explores changing concepts of marriage and gender relationships and attitudes toward sex in a rural Chinese community over the past five decades. The book is based on a study of an industrialized peasant village in Guangdong Province from 1994 to 1996 and subsequent visits from 2000 to 2002. According to the authors, the rural economic reforms of the 1980s in southern China have challenged and reinforced the deep structure of Chinese familism and this has led to tensions between tradition and modernity. The first section of the book explores how attitudes toward marriage and courtship have changed over the past fifty years through personal accounts of three different marriages from different generations. In Part II the transition from a traditional to a modern society is discussed from the perspective of several women from different generations. The third section focuses on sexual relationships and the growing sex trade in the village. Part IV includes updates to the original survey and takes a look at village politics.

Rational Woman Raia Prokhovnik, 2012-11-12 To feminists and some postmodernists, reason and emotion, and man and woman represent two fundamental polarities fixed deep within Western philosophy and reflected in the structures of our languages and two sets of hierarchical power relations in patriarchal society. Raia Prokhovnik challenges the tradition of dualism and argues that rational woman need no longer be a contradiction in terms. Prokhovnik examines in turn the nature of dichotomy, its problems and an alternative: the reason/emotion dichotomy, dichotomies central to the man/woman dualism such as sex, gender and the Socio-Cultural Perspectives on Science Education W.W. Cobern, 2012-12-06 Global science education is a reality at the end of the 20th century albeit an uneven reality because of tremendous technological and economic pressures. Unfortunately, this reality is rarely examined in the light of what interests the everyday lives of ordinary people rather than the lives of political and economic elites. The purpose of this book is to offer insightful and thought provoking commentary on both realities. The tacit question throughout the book is: Whose interests are being served by current science education practices and policies? The various chapters offer critical analysis from the perspectives of culture, economics, epistemology, equity, gender, language, and religion in an effort to promote a reflective science education that takes place within rather than taking over the important cultural lives of people. The target audience for the book includes graduate students in education, science education, and education policy; professors; policy and government officials involved with education.
