Encyclopedia of the Developing World

Thomas M. Leonard, 2013-10-18 A RUSA 2007 Outstanding Reference Title The Encyclopedia of the Developing World is a comprehensive work on the historical and current status of developing countries Containing more than 750 entries the Encyclopedia encompasses primarily the years since 1945 and defines development broadly addressing not only economics but also civil society and social progress Entries cover the most important theories and measurements of development relate historical events movements and concepts to development both internationally and regionally where applicable examine the contributions of the most important persons and organizations and detail the progress made within geographic regions and by individual countries The Commonwealth Yearbook 2005 Richard Green, 2005-09 The Commonwealth Yearbook 2005 is an essential guide to the 53 member countries of the Commonwealth and the many organizations that work to promote international cooperation among the governments professions and cultures of nearly two billion people Feminism in Public Debt Juan Pablo Bohoslavsky, Mariana Rulli, 2024-05-16 EPDF and EPUB available open access under CC BY NC ND licence As many developing countries are facing increasingly higher levels of debt and economic instability this interdisciplinary volume explores the intersection of sovereign debt and women s human rights Through contributions from leading voices in academia civil society international organizations and national governments it shows how debt related economic policies are widening gender inequalities and argues for a systematic feminist approach to debt issues Offering a new perspective on the global debt crisis this is an invaluable resource for readers who seek to understand the complex relationship between economics and gender Education, Creativity, and Economic Empowerment in Africa T. Falola, J. Abidogun, 2014-08-20 Education and the arts offer multiple mutually clarifying lenses through which to examine and understand issues of poverty and empowerment Here both are combined in a fascinating look at how these two often overlooked elements promote social equality and cultivate personal agency across Africa s diverse political economic landscapes Rural SME Business Management Peter L. Nuthall, 2024-12-20 This book is about managerial ability and how it might be assessed and improved and it focuses on rural Small and Medium Enterprises SMEs Traditionally business studies have seldom covered the manager as a person and a decision maker in any great depth Personnel management production economics financing operations analysis techniques etc tend to be emphasized but the personal attributes of the decision makers have as much influence on success as the rules of good decision making This book aims to correct this imbalance The human characteristics of managers that define how a manager operates are explored as are their impact on managerial ability The details of the competencies a manager must possess are also presented and discussed as well as potential detracting biases The book concludes with methods and techniques covering personal characteristic changes and associated managerial improvement The concepts and conclusions of this book are all based on a body of research excerpts of which are quoted in the text drawn from the rich sources available in the international literature Case studies describing successful managers and management advisors are used throughout Critical Reflections on Public Private Partnerships

Jasmine Gideon, Elaine Unterhalter, 2020-12-21 This book argues that despite the hype within many policy circles there is actually very little evidence to support the presumed benefits of Public Private Partnerships PPPs in reducing poverty and addressing inequalities in the provision of and access to public services Taking a cross sectoral comparative approach this book investigates how PPPs have played out in practice and what the implications have been for inequalities Drawing on a range of empirical case studies in education healthcare housing and water the book picks apart the roles of PPPs as financing mechanisms in several international and national contexts and considers the similarities and differences between sectors The global COVID 19 pandemic has raised significant questions about the future of social provision and through its analysis of the emergence and expansion of the role of PPPs the book also makes a vital contribution to current discussion over this rapidly changing landscape Overall this wide ranging guide to understanding and evaluating the role of PPPs in the Global South will be useful to researchers within development international relations economics and related fields as well as to policy makers and practitioners working in development related policy International Co-operation for Habitat and Urban Development Directory of Non-governmental Organisations in OECD Countries OECD, 1997-12-19 This specialised Directory provides information on over 1 700 non governmental organisations NGOs active in the field of habitat and urban development
