B. Lekha, Pradeep Kumar M., 2024-08-30 Lekha Kumar M and their team of contributors embark on a transformative exploration of Intersectionality in the Indian context where gender culture and development intersect to shape the destinies of diverse groups Drawing from extensive research and nuanced analyses by scholars across the country and a few scholars on India from outside the country the handbook uncovers the intricate connections between gender inequalities cultural norms and practices and developmental trajectories that illuminate how these factors intersect and shape the lives of individuals communities and societies beyond India's borders The book encompasses discussions on the category of gender and the practice of gender studies workspace economy and technology It explains the intricate intersections between gender labour migration and informal economies offering a deeper understanding of the composite factors that shape women as the workforce and their role within the workplace and the economy It also delves into the multifaceted influences of culture on various aspects of society including gender roles language agriculture and development The focus upon the sociocultural dimensions connected to the portrayal of gender in the media elaborated on how diverse media platforms ranging from digital interfaces to televised serials play a pivotal role in shaping and mirroring gender identities roles and societal norms within their specific environments Most importantly it critically engages with issues of education marginalization inclusion and sustainable development Case studies on marginalized communities such as the urban poor elderly sweepers and widows contribute to broader discourses on developmental paradigms vis vis poverty and social exclusion Academics researchers and students interested in gender culture and development studies will find this handbook invaluable in understanding and addressing gender inequities cultural imbalances and development complexities Policymakers NGOs and activists committed to social progress will appreciate the evidence based insights enabling them for informed actions and policies that transcend conventional boundaries

Women and Housing Patricia Kennett, Kam Wah Chan, 2010-12-07 In the context of contemporary economic political social and cultural transformations this book brings together contributions from developed and emerging societies in Europe the USA and East Asia in order to highlight the nature extent and impact of these changes on the housing opportunities of women The collection seeks to contribute to comparative housing debates by highlighting the gendered nature of housing processes locating these processes within wider structured and institutionalized relations of power and to show how these socially constructed relationships are culturally contingent and manifest and transform over time and space The international contributors draw on a wide range of empirical evidence relating to labour market participation wealth distribution family formation and education to demonstrate the complexity and gendered nature of the interlocking arenas of production reproduction and consumption and the implications for the housing opportunities of women in different social contexts Worldwide examples are drawn from Australia China Great Britain Hong Kong Japan Spain Sweden Taiwan and the USA

Social Construction of Gender Inequality in the Housing System Paul Pennartz, Anke Niehof, 2019-05-23 First published in 1997 this volume recognises the issue of gender inequality in Hong Kong housing The invisibility of the housing problem is compounded by the dominant patriarchal Chinese culture in Hong Kong The issue remains marginal in Western countries as well despite increasing concern Kam Wah Chan makes meaningful insightful progress on the housing issue in Hong Kong by focusing on the crucial issues of housing for lone mothers and for women in new towns Bangladesh Gender Equality Diagnostic of Selected Sectors Asian Development Bank,2018-01-01 Over the last two decades Bangladesh has made progress in women s participation in the labor force gender parity in primary education and women s political representation Areas of concern include the high prevalence of violence against women obstacles to women s access to resources and assets unequal terms of their labor engagement and impact of their overwhelming responsibility for care work The Government of Bangladesh has made policy commitments toward gender equality and established an institutional framework to fulfill these This publication intends to support the government in its attempt to address persisting gender inequalities and gaps through a multisector approach across policies programs and projects It provides insights into gender issues in urban transport energy and skills vocational and tertiary education and gives suggestions for strengthening gender mainstreaming in projects Departments of Veterans Affairs and Housing and Urban Development, and Independent Agencies Appropriations for 1994 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on VA, HUD, and Independent Agencies,1993 Land Tenure, Housing Rights and Gender in Mexico ,2005 Land Tenure, Housing Rights and Gender in Brazil ,2005 Land Tenure, Housing Rights and Gender in Colombia ,2005 Gendered Approaches to Spatial Development in Europe Barbara Zibell,Doris Damyanovic,Ulrike Sturm,2019-03-27 This book explores the extent to which gendered approaches are evident and effective in spatial development in selected European countries Beginning with an introduction to theories and concepts of gender space and development the book includes a brief historical review of gender in spatial planning and development throughout Europe in general and an overview of different national frameworks in European countries comparing legal organisational and cultural similarities and differences This is followed by a critical reflection on how simplifications and stereotypes of gender concepts are used in the practice of spatial development The main part of the book offers a transnational discussion of planning practices on selected thematic topics It starts with gender sensitivity in urban master planning and at neighbourhood level referring to different types of planning manuals Furthermore the book focuses on gender sensitive evaluation in urban planning as well as international agendas for sustainable development as a framework for a new generation of gender equality policies The chapter authors assert that climate change migration and austerity have threatened gender equality and therefore spatial development needs to be especially alert to gender dimensions The editors end with an outlook and suggestions for further action and research on gender issues in spatial development With inputs from some of Europe s leading thinkers on gender space and development this volume is designed to inspire students scholars and practitioners to reflect upon the contribution that gendered approaches can make in the various fields of spatial development and environmental planning Gender in Contemporary Iran Rokhsana Bahramitash,Eric Hooglund,2011-03-29 This book examines gender and the dynamics of social change in contemporary Iran documenting the changes in women s lives and showing how women have now become agents of social change rather than victims Bringing together the detailed primary research of a number of eminent scholars working in Iran this collection provides unique perspectives on the past decade in Iranian society Chapters document and examine how different Iranian groups and classes are negotiating resisting and pressing for political and social change to explore the complexity of a society that often is portrayed in monolithic stereotypes in the international media Thematically arranged sections explore discourses around gender and the impact of these discourses on women the gendered impact of educational employment communications and cultural changes changing gender attitudes among the post revolutionary generation of youth and the ways economic changes have been affecting women Providing an important basis for understanding social and political developments in a country that has been a focus of international attention for much of the last decade this collection will be an important reference for scholars of Iranian studies gender studies political science and sociology Land Tenure, Housing Rights and Gender in Nicaragua ,2005

Gender and housing in Soviet Russia Lynne Attwood,2013-07-19 This book explores the housing problem throughout the 70 years of Soviet history looking at changing political ideology on appropriate forms of housing under socialism successive government policies on housing and the meaning and experience of home for Soviet citizens She examines the use of housing to alter gender relations and the ways in which domestic space was differentially experienced by men and women Much of Attwood s material comes from Soviet magazines and journals which enables her to demonstrate how official ideas on housing and daily life changed during the course of the Soviet era and were propagandised to the population Through a series of in depth interviews she also draws on the memories of people with direct experience of Soviet housing and domestic life Attwood has produced not just a history of housing but a social history of daily life which will appeal both to scholars and those with a general interest in Soviet history Land Tenure, Housing Rights and Gender in Zambia ,2005
