Mindful Leadership Jeffrey L. Buller, 2019-03-12 This book applies the concept of mindfulness to the challenges faced by academic leaders such as department chairs deans provosts presidents or chancellors and faculty leaders In addition to instructing academic leaders how to become more mindful the book also provides clear and practical explanations about what mindful leadership means in the setting of higher education Unlike other books on mindfulness this work does not assume that the only pathway to becoming more mindful is meditation Although meditation is discussed as a technique the book also presents numerous others strategies for becoming a more mindful leader without a meditation practice The book is designed for use by individual academic leaders administrative teams in a retreat leadership workshops or training programs and courses in higher education leadership     The Power Of Positivity Davies Guttman, 2014-06-04 Do you think you can make a difference to your own life just by changing the way you think Your answer to this might just tell you something about your own view of the world and your receptiveness to positive thinking But it is a topic worth keeping an open mind on and it does warrant further investigation and scrutiny There is a large body of published work on the subject and this collection draws on some it and point up a lot of other ideas and sources It also views the scientific evidence for the principles and the practical outcomes that some people appear to have extracted from using the concept You can make your own mind up on how useful and genuine this all is If you feel your life is going nowhere what have you got to lose     My Recollections of Lord Byron Teresa Guiccioli (contessa di), 1869     My Recollections of Lord Byron ... New edition Countess Teresa GUICCIOLI (afterwards ROUILLÉ DE BOISSY (Teresa) Marchioness.), 1869     Shakespearean Issues Richard Strier, 2022-09-06 A collection of thought provoking essays that treat the political social and philosophical themes of Shakespeare s plays In Shakespearean Issues Richard Strier has written a set of linked essays bound by a learned view of how to think about Shakespeare s plays and also how to write literary criticism on them The essays vary in their foci from dealing with passages and key lines to dealing with whole plays and to dealing with multiple plays in thematic conversation with each other Strier treats the political social and philosophical themes of Shakespeare s plays through recursive and revisionary close reading revisiting plays from different angles and often contravening prevailing views Part I focuses on characters Moments of bad faith of unconscious self revelation and of semi conscious self revelation are analyzed along with the problem of describing characters psychologically and ethically In an essay on Happy Hamlet the famous melancholy of the prince is questioned as is the villainy of Rosencrantz and Guildenstern while another essay asks the reader to reconsider moral judgments and negative assessments of characters who may be flawed but do not seem obviously wicked such as Edgar and Gloucester in King Lear Part II moves to systems arguing that Henry IV Measure for Measure and The Merchant of Venice raise doubts about fundamental features of legal systems such as impartiality punishments and respect for contracts Strier reveals King Lear s radicalism analyzing its concentration on poverty and its insistence on the existence and legitimacy of a material substratum to human life Essays on The Tempest offer original takes on the play s presentation of coercive power of civilization and its discontents and of humanist ideals Part III turns to religious and epistemological beliefs with Strier challenging prevailing views of Shakespeare s relation to both A culminating reading sees The Winter s Tale as ultimately affirming the mind s capacities and as finding a place for something like religion within the world Anyone interested in Shakespeare s plays will find Shakespearean Issues bracing and thought provoking     The Baptist Memorial and Monthly Record ,1845     The Ulster Magazine and Monthly Review of Science and Literature.. ,1861     The Autobiography, Times, Opinions, and Contemporaries of Sir Egerton Brydges.
