Genesis A Practical Commentary:

Genesis Claus Westermann, 1987 The abridged version of Westermann's classic three volume work on Genesis This work presents a magisterial commentary in a condensed and more popular form Included are a fresh translation of Genesis the philological reasoning behind the translation an examination of the historical background of the original text a survey of all that has been written about Genesis together with full references and a consideration of the problems and questions the text of Genesis raises for today Claus Westermann is Professor Emeritus of Old Testament at the University of Heidelberg

Genesis Claus Westermann, 1987 Genesis - Complete Bible Commentary Verse by Verse Matthew Henry, 2016-04-14 This is another volume in the series of Bible Commentaries of Matthew Henry In this Volume the entire text of the Genesis is commented with notes of each chapter are easy to read and understand providing explanation and interpretation of Biblical text This Commentary will help you better understand the Holy Bible and explains Bible passages Sunday school preparation Churches theological seminaries and Bible schools will find an excellent aid in this biblical commentary on the Genesis The Gospel of the Childhood. A Practical Commentary on ... St. Luke II., 41 to the End Edward Meyrick GOULBURN (Dean of Norwich.), 1873 Conceiving a Nation Mira Morgenstern, 2010-11-01 The Understanding of Adultery in the Hebrew Bible Alexander Izuchukwu Abasili, 2016-06-09 Adultery though not an umbrella concept for all the sexual prohibitions in the Hebrew Bible enjoys a certain pride of place Remarkably it is the one sexual prohibition attested in all biblical genres which makes it very representative in the Hebrew Bible It is the only Hebrew biblical sexual prohibition explicitly mentioned in the Decalogue A solid understanding of Hebrew biblical adultery therefore is an important step towards grasping the vital role of human sexuality in the Hebrew Bible both in terms of inter human relationships and the relationship between the human and the divine Without prejudice to the contents of the Hebrew biblical lexicons and theological dictionaries this work aims at providing a comprehensive understanding of adultery in the Hebrew Bible its meaning punishments and the implications thereof Among others it corrects some wrong assumptions about the concept of adultery in the Hebrew Bible and provides a balanced and unbiased Hebrew biblical conception of adultery and the implications thereof for today's couples Salvation History Sungku Kang, 2018-11-15 Salvation history can be thought of as twofold one is that God Himself personally takes action and the other is God has humans act An example of the latter is Exodus in which God had Moses lead the Israelites from Egypt to Canaan The skin garment that God made with slain animals for the fallen Adam is an example of the former Adam's fall is the very starting point of God's saving acts in human history In His saving acts God utilized his sin as the means of salvation However God's plan on saving human beings began far ahead of the creation of Adam for omniscient God already knew of Adam's fall before the world had begun As Apostle Peter confirms God's will to save lost sinners was planned from the very beginning and Jesus Christ was chosen before the creation of the world as our Savior In His saving plan Almighty God reversed all the negatives that would arise from Adam's fall into positives triumphing over them by the cross We need to be clothed in the robe of righteousness the garments of salvation through Jesus Christ The fig leaf coverings sewn by human efforts cannot cover our nakedness In essence the grace of salvation originates from God not from fallible humans Current human history has been heading towards a thorough restoration of God's image When the full and perfect restoration of God's image is accomplished salvation history will finally be complete Although heavily infected by sin we have constantly been advancing towards the perfect restoration of God's image and likeness When Jesus Christ returns to us our defiled image of God will be transformed into His perfect likeness On the day when He appears as Apostle John says we shall be like Him That day will be the very end of human history On that very day at long last God's redemptive plan will be completed

The Bible and the Comic Vision J. Modern Catholic Social Teaching Kenneth R. Himes, 2018-01-02 Including contributions from twenty two leading moral theologians this volume is the most thorough assessment of modern Roman Catholic social teaching available In addition to interrogations of the major documents it provides insight into the biblical and philosophical foundations of Catholic social teaching addresses the doctrinal issues that arise in such a context and explores the social thought leading up to the modern era which is generally accepted as beginning in 1891 with the publication of Pope Leo XIII's Rerum Novarum. The book also includes a review of how Catholic social teaching has been received in the United States and offers an informed look at the shortcomings and questions that future generations must address. This second edition includes revised and updated essays as well as two new commentaries: one on Pope Benedict XVI's encyclical Caritas in Veritate and one on Pope Francis's encyclical Laudato Si'. An outstanding reference work for anyone interested in studying and understanding the key documents that make up the central corpus of modern Catholic social teaching.

The Spirit Renews the Face of the Earth Amos Yong, 2009-04-01 This collection of essays was first presented at the 37th annual meeting of the Society for Pentecostal Studies held jointly with the Wesleyan Theological Society at Duke University in March 2008 under the conference theme Signs, Sighs, and Significance: Pentecostal and Wesleyan Explorations of Science and Creation. Along with a companion volume of Wesleyan essays published also by Pickwick Publications, the twelve chapters here represent both Pentecostal reflections, responses to the science religion discussion, and Pentecostal contributions to the ongoing exchange by biblical studies specialists, historians, and theologians among those trained in other disciplines. Together, the essayists model an actual dialogue in which Pentecostal scholarly reflection is impacted by science religion discourses on the one hand, while Pentecostals reach deep into their own tradition to explore how their pre-understandings and commitments might enable them to speak with their own voice into pre-existing conversations on the other hand. This volume thus represents one of the first, hopefully the first of many, in which Pentecostals register their perspectives on a major issue of our time. In a world dominated by science and at a time when theologies of creation that encourage and require care for creation and the environment are proliferating, The Spirit Renews the Face of the Earth provides a set of Pentecostal perspectives on these important matters.

Postmodern Christianity John W. Riggs, 2003-04-01 John Riggs argues for a common ground between postmodernism and Christianity, focusing on how this applies to issues such as reproductive rights and the ordination of women, gay men, and lesbians, and suggests that Christianity avoid the extreme positions of either completely accommodating itself to or completely rejecting postmodern culture.

Images of God in the Old Testament Mary E. Mills, 1998 This book is about the many faces of the God of Israel to be found in the Old Testament. Bringing together a wealth of biblical scholarship, both contemporary and traditional, Dr. Mills invites us to see the canon of Scripture as a reference library in which all the texts have something to say about God. God is a key character in each book, but God's role and character nevertheless vary between books and between genres of writing.

Challenging the Myths of Gender Equality Michael Muonwe, 2014-07-26 CHALLENGING THE MYTHS OF GENDER EQUALITY: THEOLOGY AND FEMINISM The book offers critical insight into the significance of synergy between feminist theory and theological anthropology in combating sexism in our society today. The analysis of feminism's challenge of male chauvinistic discourse that has been for centuries an instrument of patriarchal manipulation is very elucidating The authors use of Genesis creation narrative to show how God intends that all live in love and communion and show equal regard to each other is exceptionally provocative Even though Michael believes that Jesus may not be rightly termed a feminist in the modern understanding of the term he demonstrates how Jesus critical stance towards some androcentric structures of his day is a testimony to his vision and mission of inclusive kingdom where all are equal The book is very important for anyone committed to ensuring a society devoid of gender based discriminations and violence Prof Dr Annemie Dillens remarks on the book is worth noting Michael Muonwe has made it clear that the experiences by women of social exclusion and disadvantage require a thorough dialogue between feminism and Christianity In a global context where Christianity and feminism are mutually condemning each other this book offers a profound insight into many differences within feminism and feminist theology and thus avoids all too easy generalizations Both the author and his work continue to encourage me and I hope all readers will also acknowledge the value the richness and the joy of doing theology Catholic University of Leuven Belgium According to Prof em Dr Peter Schmidt This book should be known by many not only by those who are already engaged on the problem of gender inequality but maybe still more by those who have no real knowledge of the problem and its urgency The author is not only an expert on the matter but both his clarity of thought and style and his genuine commitment to the cause make it a most commendable reading Catholic University of Leuven Belgium

The Student's New Testament Compilation ,1928 The Debilitating Duo Roche Coleman,2023-10-02 Is it possible to violate God s moral law without experiencing guilt and shame Can a person silence their conscience from the strange emotions that emerge when one sin An examination of the original design of humanity in the imago Dei suggests one cannot sin and avoid the debilitating duo Humanity is created to live within the moral structure established by God Therefore a violation of the divine laws which is sin leads to guilt and shame The strange emotions were innate sensation imparted to humanity to stop rebellion against the moral laws and to compel an offender to acknowledge the offense through the confession of sin Unconfessed sin debilitates the physical and mental functions of a person created in the image of God Guilt and shame are the strange emotions that serve as mental guardians for an individual as well as for the society in general The duo was given as silent deterrents to immoral behaviors

Learning from the Stranger David Smith,2009-06-09 Cultural differences increasingly impact our everyday lives Virtually none of us today interact exclusively with people who look talk and behave like we do David Smith here offers an excellent guide to living and learning in our culturally interconnected world Learning from the Stranger clearly explains what culture is discusses how cultural difference affects our perceptions and behavior and explores how Jesus call to love our neighbor involves learning from cultural strangers Built around three chapter length readings of extended biblical passages from Genesis Luke and Acts the book skillfully weaves together theological and practical concerns and Smith s engaging readable text is peppered with stories from his own extensive firsthand experience Many thoughtful readers will resonate with this insightful book as it encourages the virtues of humility and hospitality in our personal interactions and shows how learning from strangers not just imparting our own ideas to them is an integral part of Christian discipleship
