Learning From Our Lives Women Research And Biography In Education:

Learning from Our Lives Pierre Dominice, 2000-07-31 This guide to using educational biography with adult learners offers anecdotes and narratives interpretations and analyses and numerous examples of different biographical approaches

Learning from Our Lives Anna Neumann, Penelope L. Peterson, 1997 Eleven women who are eminent educational researchers speak out intimately and from these autobiographical accounts readers experience how research that emerges from diverse women's lives shapes and reshapes educational knowledge and discourse

Biography and Education

Michael Erben, 2005-08-12 Over recent years biographical studies have gained an increasingly important place in academic study The two are inextricably linked Education uses biography in teaching and in biography education features strongly as a formative stage in personal development This book elaborates on the analytical work that has drawn attention to biography and education and seeks to expand the understanding of lives in educational contexts Mainstream sociology has been quick to embrace this treatment of individuals as biographical appearances but it is even more relevant in the field of education

Diversity and Education H. Richard Milner, 2009 Explicit examples of what these constructs mean and how they are used is provided The book is complemented by an overview of each chapter and section Written by some of the leading scholars in education and beyond this book will be a valuable resource for practicing teachers teacher educators graduate students undergraduate students and educational researchers

BOOK JACKET Gendered Futures in Higher Education Becky Ropers-Huilman, 2012-02-01 This volume addresses the ways in which gender takes shape in and is shaped by higher education environments Focusing on historical knowledge and contemporary experience the contributors identify several key gender issues affecting students faculty and leaders in higher education They examine such diverse topics as what lessons women's colleges have to offer violence on campus women faculty and part time employment and intersecting identities of race and gender and they apply critical perspectives to suggest needed change While they may not agree on the necessary strategies to improve higher education environments they do agree that those environments are currently deeply and problematically gendered

Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04 First published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Using Biographical Methods in Social Research Barbara Merrill, Linden West, 2009-05-18 Using Biographical Methods in Social Research provides an informative comprehensive accessible and practical guide to the nature and use of biographical methods combining a consideration of theoretical issues with practical guidance as well as reflections on the personal experience of doing research Barbara Merrill and Linden West consider important questions about who and what research is for and what makes it valid alongside the practical business of interviewing transcribing analyzing and writing up of biographical data The authors draw on their sociological and psychological orientations to provide a truly interdisciplinary approach to the subject and provide numerous examples of biographical research across the social sciences This book will equip students with all the skills necessary to undertake

Theories of Learning Knud Illeris, 2009-05-07 In this definitive collection of today's most influential learning theorists sixteen world renowned experts present their understanding of what learning is and how human learning takes place Professor Knud Illeris has collected chapters that explain both the complex frameworks in which learning takes place and the specific facets of learning such as the acquisition of learning content personal development and the cultural and social nature of learning processes Each international expert provides either a seminal text or an entirely new pr cis of the conceptual framework they have developed over a lifetime of study Elucidating the key concepts of learning Contemporary Theories of Learning provides both the perfect desk reference and an ideal introduction for students It will prove an authoritative guide for researchers and academics involved in the study of learning and an invaluable resource for all those dealing with learning in daily life and work It provides a detailed synthesis of current learning theories all in the words of the theorists themselves

The theories of Knud Illeris Peter Jarvis Robert Kegan Yrj Engestr m Bente Elkjaer Jack Mezirow Howard Gardner Peter Alheit John Heron Mark Tennant Jerome Bruner Robin Usher Thomas Ziehe Jean Lave Etienne Wenger Danny Wildemeersch Veerle Stroobants In their own words Teacher Education Policy Rob McBride,1996 To improve schools we need to improve teachers This volume provides recent research evidence that suggests that current education policy is not Promoting Effective Teacher Education And That Teacher Education Policy has failed to support the formation of professional partnerships in initial teacher education has almost ignored the induction of newly qualified teachers and has narrowed in service education into support for the implementation of central policy The evidence gathered in this book is used to argue for new forms of teacher education in every phase built upon the foundation of professional partnership between schools and institutions of higher education It is suggested that the funding for such changes could be drawn from less effective forms of school improvement such as National Curriculum development and school inspection With the implementation of such changes it is argued good quality teacher education programmes would prosper and foster a broad consensus about educational development that is often absent Pedagogies of Resistance Margaret Crocco,Petra Munro Hendry,1999 The stories of six women for whom a career in education serves as leverage to live their lives as agents of change By profiling women as educational activists the book challenges historical interpretations that have cast women as passive in the face of educational change Handbook of Research in the Social Foundations of Education Steven Tozer,Bernardo P. Gallegos,Annette Henry,Mary Bushnell Greiner,Paula Groves Price,2011-07-05 This groundbreaking volume helps readers understand the history evolution and significance of this wide ranging often misunderstood and increasingly important field of study
