Learning From Robben Island The Prison Writings Of Govan Mbeki:

Learning from Robben Island Govan Mbeki, 1991 South Africa has jailed so many gifted men and women that there already exists a sizeable body of prison writing. The essays by Govan Mbeki which comprise this book add to this distinguished list. Yet they differ in important respects from all others: they were written, circulated and preserved in prison. They were never intended for publication but to be read by other prisoners; their aim is not to share an experience but to educate politically. They are remarkable documents. They offer historians and political scientists valuable raw material for any study of the ANC-SACP alliance. They provide activists with a distillation of practical lessons about political organisation learned in the most testing conditions. They include extended historical, political and economic analyses that must be read alongside Mbeki's other writings in any assessment of the intellectual history of the South African left. And they are pages in a truly international literature, a record throughout the ages of the creativity and indomitability of people imprisoned for their beliefs. These prison essays mark a victory in the continuing contest between the pen and the sword. Professor Colin Bundy in his introduction.

Learning from Robben Island Govan Mbeki, 1991      Robben Island and Prisoner Resistance to Apartheid Fran Lisa Buntman, 2003-10-27 Table of contents      Govan Mbeki Colin Bundy, 2013-04-09 Govan Mbeki 1910-2001 was a core leader of the African National Congress, the Communist Party and the armed wing of the ANC during the struggle against apartheid. Known as a hard liner, Mbeki was a prolific writer and combined in a rare way the attributes of intellectual and activist, political theorist and practitioner. Sentenced to life in prison in 1964 along with Nelson Mandela and others, he was sent to the notorious Robben Island prison where he continued to write even as tension grew between himself, Mandela and other leaders over the future of the national liberation movement. As one of the greatest leaders of the anti-apartheid movement and the father of Thabo Mbeki, president of South Africa from 1999 to 2008, the elder Mbeki holds a unique position in South African politics and history. This biography by noted historian Colin Bundy goes beyond the narrative details of his long life; it analyzes his thinking expressed in his writings over fifty years. Bundy helps establish what is distinctive about Mbeki as African nationalist and as committed Marxist, and more than any other leader of the liberation movement, he sought to link theory and practice, ideas and action. Drawing on exclusive interviews, Bundy did with Mbeki, careful analysis of his writings and the range of scholarship about his life, this biography is personal, reflective, thoroughly researched and eminently readable.

The Man Who Killed Apartheid: The Life of Dimitri Tsafendas Harris Dousemetzis,2024-03-04 On 6 September 1966 inside the House of Assembly in Cape Town Dimitri Tsafendas stabbed to death Hendrik Verwoerd South Africa s Prime Minister and so called architect of apartheid Tsafendas was immediately arrested and before he had even been questioned by the authorities they declared him a madman without any political motive for the killing In the Cape Supreme Court Tsafendas was found unfit to stand trial on the grounds that he suffered from schizophrenia and that he had no political motive for killing Verwoerd Tsafendas spent the next 28 years in custody making him the longest serving detainee in South African history For most of his incarnation he was subjected to cruel and inhumane treatment by the prison authorities From 2009 to 2018 Harris Dousemetzis extensively researched the assassination of Verwoerd and the life of Tsafendas For this research he travelled to South Africa Mozambique Greece France and Turkey and interviewed about 150 people who either knew Tsafendas or Verwoerd or were involved with the case of the assassination He discovered about 12 000 pages of documents on the case most of them previously unpublished in archival collections in South Africa Portugal and the UK Dousemetzis collaborated with prominent South African jurists psychiatrists and psychologists and concluded his research by writing the Report to the Minister of Justice in the Matter of Dr Verwoerd s Assassination The report conclusively proved that Tsafendas had assassinated Verwoerd for political reasons and that the apartheid authorities had orchestrated a massive operation to declare him insane and apolitical This ground breaking report and this book corrected the historical record regarding Verwoerd s assassination and Tsafendas The Man Who Killed Apartheid based on Dousemetzis s groundbreaking research chronicles in detail Tsafendas s life and conclusively demonstrates that he was a perfectly sane and deeply political person with a long history of political activism At the same time the book exposes the lie at the heart of apartheid s posture on the assassination of Hendrik Verwoerd and provides a rare picture of how the racist regime operated and what it was like to live and die under apartheid

The Long Road to Freedom Ime John Ukpanah,2005 Inkundla Ya Bantu was the only independent African journal to play a significant role in the resistance press against the white minority government It was launched in 1938 as a moderate African nationalist community paper and would cease publication in 1951 just seven months before the launch of the Defiance Campaign Ime Ukpanah tells the story of the paper and the people who founded it later to be key figures in the ANC Having no official press of its own the ANC adopted Inkundla Ya Bantu as its PR organ

Falling Monuments, Reluctant Ruins Hilton Judin,2021-06-01 This edited collection looks at ruins and vacant buildings as part of South Africa s oppressive history of colonialism and apartheid and ways in which the past persists into the present Falling Monuments

Reluctant Ruins The Persistence of the Past in the Architecture of Apartheid interrogates how in the era of decolonization post apartheid South Africa reckons with its past in order to shape its future Architects historians artists social anthropologists and urban planners seek answers in this book to complex and unsettling questions around heritage ruins and remembrance What do we do with hollow memorials and political architectural remnants Which should remain which forgotten and which dismantled Are these vacant buildings cemeteries statues and derelict grounds able to serve as inspiration in the fight against enduring racism and social neglect Should they become exemplary as spaces for restitution and justice The contributors examine the influence of public memory planning and activism on such anguished places of oppression resistance and defiance Their focus on visible markers in the landscape to interrogate our past will make readers reconsider these spaces looking at their landscape and history anew Through a series of 14 empirically grounded chapters and 48 images the contributors seek to understand how architecture contests or subverts these persistent conditions in order to promote social justice land reclamation and urban rehabilitation The decades following the dismantling of apartheid are surveyed in light of contemporary heritage projects where building ruins and abandoned spaces are challenged and renegotiated across the country to become sites of protest inspiration and anger This ground breaking collection is an important resource for professionals academics and activists working in South Africa today

Shakespeare and Virtue Julia Reinhard Lupton, Donovan Sherman, 2023-01-26 This volume maps Shakespearean virtue in all its plasticity and variety providing thirty eight succinct wide ranging essays that reveal a breadth and diversity exceeding any given morality or code of behaviour Clearly explaining key concepts in the history of ethics and in classical theological and global virtue traditions the collection reveals their presence in the works of Shakespeare in interpersonal civic and ecological scenes of action Paying close attention to individual identity and social environment chapters also consider how the virtuous horizons broached in Shakespearean drama have been tested anew by the plays global travels and fresh encounters with different traditions Including sections on global wisdom performance and pedagogy this handbook affirms virtue as a resource for humanistic education and the building of human capacity

One Hundred Years of the ANC Arianna Lissoni, Jon Soske, 2012-11-01 An examination of the ANC in its centennial year On 8 January 2012 the African National Congress ANC of South Africa the oldest African nationalist organisation on the continent celebrated its one hundredth anniversary This historic event has generated significant public debate within both the ANC and South African society at large There is no better time to critically reflect on the ANC s historical trajectory and struggle against colonialism and apartheid than in its centennial year One Hundred Years of the ANC is a collection of new work by renowned South African and international scholars Covering a broad chronological and geographical spectrum and using a diverse range of sources the contributors build upon but also extend the historiography of the ANC by tapping into marginal spaces in ANC history By moving away from the celebratory mode that has characterised much of the contemporary discussions on the centenary the contributors suggest that the relationship between the histories of earlier struggles and the present needs to be rethought in more complex terms Collectively the book chapters challenge hegemonic narratives that have become an established part of South Africa's national discourse since 1994 By opening up debate around controversial or obscured aspects of the ANC's century long history One hundred years of the ANC sets out an agenda for future research The book is directed at a wide readership with an interest in understanding the historical roots of South Africa's current politics will find this volume informative This book is based on a selection of papers presented at the One Hundred Years of the ANC Debating Liberation Histories and Democracy Today Conference held at the University of Witwatersrand Johannesburg from 20-23 September 2011 States of Emergency Stephen Morton, 2013-02-04 This book examines how violent anti colonial struggles and the legal military and political techniques used by colonial governments to contain them have been imagined in literature and law Case studies examined include Ireland India South Africa Algeria Kenya Israel Palestine Iraq Afghanistan and Northern Pakistan The Spirit of Freedom Charles Villa-Vicencio, 2023-09-01 This collection of interviews explores the role of religion in the lives of eminent South Africans who led the struggle against apartheid Nelson Mandela Chris Hani Desmond Tutu Nadine Gordimer and seventeen other political religious and cultural leaders share the beliefs and values that informed the moral positions they adopted often at great cost From all ethnic religious and political backgrounds these men and women have shaped one of the greatest political transformations of the century What emerges from the interviews are reflections on all aspects of life in an embattled country There are stories of the homelands and townships and tales of imprisonment and exile Dedicated communists relate their intense youthful devotion to Christianity Muslim activists discuss the complexity of their relationships with their communities As the respondents grapple with difficult questions about faith politics and authority they expose a more personal picture of their daily lives of their pasts and of the enormous conflicts that arise in a society that continually strains the moral fiber of its citizens Taken together these interviews reveal the many faceted vision that has fueled South Africa's struggle for democracy This collection of interviews explores the role of religion in the lives of eminent South Africans who led the struggle against apartheid Nelson Mandela Chris Hani Desmond Tutu Nadine Gordimer and seventeen other political religious and cultural leaders A Companion to African History William H.
