Mooney, Ann T. Mausbach, 2008-02-14 This is our THIRD school improvement plan Why aren t we seeing any results We have all of this data but we don t know what to do with it What does this workshop have to do with the goals we set for our school Many of today s school leaders have all the latest tools techniques and programs for school improvement Unfortunately some leaders fail to create real sustainable results for their schools because they use one or two flavor of the month strategies without connecting all the pieces together for real improvement In Align the Design A Blueprint for School Improvement Nancy J Mooney and Ann T Mausbach emphasize the importance of coordinating essential school improvement processes to increase staff capacity improve student achievement and develop effective schools The authors show school leaders how to use power tools to Develop effective curriculum Make the most of their school s data Create successful school improvement plans Implement valuable professional development sessions and workshops Use efficient supervisory techniques Foster leadership for school improvement Each chapter includes personal reflections from the authors and lists of touchstone texts that have inspired their efforts At a time when school leaders are trying to translate urgent calls for higher achievement into actions that work Align the Design provides expert guidance and practical tools that will help educators work more purposefully together to create better schools for their students

Schools as Professional Learning

Communities Sylvia M. Roberts, Eunice Z. Pruitt, 2003-06-26 Schools as Professional Learning Communities is an extraordinary achievement. It brings together what a long time practitioner can see and sense. It is an illumination of an exciting path to a constantly improving instructional community. S. David Adler, Superintendent retired, Bergen County Schools, Newton, New Jersey. Much has been written about professional learning communities as part of the change and restructuring process, but Sylvia M. Roberts and Eunice Z. Pruitt manage to move the discussion from theory to practice. Their book features such practitioner friendly items as learning activities, more than 25 short cases and scenarios, tips for teachers and administrators, information about online resources, reproducible forms and worksheets. The authors cover professional development strategies that build community, such as classroom observation, mentoring, collaborative assessment of student work, professional portfolios, peer coaching, team teaching, and teacher leadership. For teachers and administrators focused on improved student achievement, school change, equity, and teacher leadership, this is a must have resource.

Subject Leadership and School Improvement Hugh Busher, Alma Harris, 2000. Curriculum and subject leadership in schools has recently gained substantial attention from both researchers and policy makers. The Teacher Training Agency (TTA) has reinforced the importance of subject leadership in school improvement, proposing a new measure of such leadership competence through the creation of national subject leader standards. NPQSL Subject Leadership and School Improvement reflects critically on the work of subject and curriculum leaders, especially in schools in England and Wales, that is those within the policy framework of The National Curriculum and the Teacher Training Agency. The book debates the functions of subject leaders in primary and secondary schools using current research.

Curriculum Change and Innovation

Yiu Chun LO 呂耀宗, Shirley S. Y. Yeung 葉秀英, John T. S. Lam 林國榮, Anthony W. L. Leung 梁國榮, 2012-06-01 Curriculum Change and Innovation is an introductory textbook on Hong Kong's school curriculum. Written in an approachable style using illustrative case studies, the textbook provides an introduction to the basic concepts and theories of curriculum as a field of study. It also discusses how sociopolitical and economic changes, as well as technology advancements, help transform teachers' roles and reshape curriculum policies. The chapters cover a wide range of topics including curriculum design, planning, implementation, and evaluation. These discussions are included to help readers critically reflect on their roles as change agents in curriculum development. Shirley S. Y. Yeung is an assistant professor in the Department of Curriculum and Instruction at the Hong Kong Institute of Education. John T. S. Lam is an assistant professor in the Department of Curriculum and Instruction at the Hong Kong Institute of Education. Anthony W. L. Leung is an assistant professor in the Department of Curriculum and Instruction at the Hong Kong Institute of Education. Yiu Chun Lo is an associate professor of the Department of Curriculum and Instruction at the Hong Kong Institute of Education.

Academic Library Outreach Nancy D. Courtney, 2008-12-30. Traditionally, academic library outreach has meant reaching out to the campus community, providing services to faculty and students. Many universities and colleges however now have a new or renewed emphasis on outreach beyond the campus seeking to ensure their institutions relevance to the community at large How can and do academic libraries participate in this type of outreach What types of collaborations or partnerships are academic libraries forming with schools public libraries or community groups How do academic librarians partner with faculty or campus departments on their community projects What role does service learning play Nancy Courtney has assembled a sampling of approaches from the innovative to the tried and true each written in the voice of its strongest champion The School as a Learning Organisation Kholeka Constance Moloi,2005

Why School Leaders Need Vision Bruce S. Cooper,Carlos R. McCray,Stephen V. Coffin,2017-08-29 The concept of visionary leadership is defined and applied in this book as supervision in schools requires a level of SUPER VISION that can be best developed through quality leadership mentoring and mutual ideas and support for adding more value to the school This book shows just how vision is important and useful in all schools and districts Time has thus come to find build and use high quality visionary school leadership in its many dimensions thus this book takes at least ten different views in the chapters of the visionary roles and functions of education leadership in K 12 building on the roles theories and visionary actions of key players in the schools No single perspective is enough as all views must work in concert to the benefit of teachers and students today School leaders moreover need to have their own vision about the following a what their work entails b their school should be and look like and c what their staff and students and schools can achieve
