Freak to Chic Dominic Janes,2021-07-01 In this unique intervention in the study of queer culture Dominic Janes highlights that under the gaze of social conservatism gay life was hiding in plain sight Indeed he argues that the worlds of glamour fashion art and countercultural style provided rich opportunities for the construction of queer spectacle in London Inspired by the legacies of Oscar Wilde interwar and later 20th century men such as Cecil Beaton expressed transgressive desires in forms inspired by those labelled freaks and thereby made major contributions to the histories of art design fashion sexuality and celebrity Janes reinterprets the origins of gay and queer cultures by charting the interactions between marginalized freaks and chic fashionistas He establishes a new framework for future analyses of other cities and media and of the roles of women and diverse identities

Malice in Wonderland Hugo Vickers,2021-10-05 The witty and perceptive diaries kept by Cecil Beaton's authorized biographer during his many fascinating encounters with extraordinary often legendary characters in his search for the real Cecil Beaton Hugo Vickers's life took a dramatic turn in 1979 when the legendary Sir Cecil Beaton invited him to be his authorised biographer The excitement of working with the famous photographer was dashed only days later when Cecil Beaton died But the journey had begun Vickers was entrusted with Beaton's papers diaries and most importantly access to his friends and contemporaries In Malice in Wonderland Vickers shares excerpts from his personal diaries kept during this period For five years Vickers travelled the world and talked to some of the most fascinating and important social and cultural figures of the time including royalty such as the Queen Mother and Princess Margaret film stars such as Grace Kelly Audrey Hepburn and Julie Andrews writers such as Truman Capote and photographers such as Irving Penn and Horst And not only Beaton's friends Vickers sought out the enemies too notably Irene Selznick He was taken under the wings of Lady Diana Cooper Clarissa Avon and Diana Vreeland Drawn into Beaton's world and accepted by its members Vickers the emerging biographer also began his own personal adventure The outsider became the insider Beaton's friends became his friends Malice in Wonderland is a fascinating portrait of a now disappeared world and vividly and sensitively portrays some of its most fascinating characters as we travel with Vickers on his quest

the second generation of the iconic Bloomsbury Group who inspired their elders to new heights of creativity and passion while also pushing the boundaries of sexual freedom and gender norms in 1920s England In the years before the First World War a collection of writers and artists Virginia Woolf E M Forster and Lytton Strachey among them began to make a name for themselves in England and America for their irreverent spirit and provocative works of literature art and criticism They called themselves the Bloomsbury Group and by the 1920s they were at the height of their influence Then a new generation stepped forward creative young people who tantalized their elders with their captivating looks bold ideas and subversive energy Young Bloomsbury introduces us to this colorful cast of characters including novelist Eddy Sackville West who wore elaborate make up and dressed in satin and black velvet artist Stephen Tomlin who sculpted the heads of his male and female lovers and author Julia Strachey who wrote a searing tale of blighted love Talented and productive these larger than life figures had high achieving professional lives and extremely complicated emotional lives The group had always celebrated sexual equality and freedom in private feeling that every person had the right to live and love in the way they chose But as transgressive self expression became more public this younger generation gave Old Bloomsbury a new voice Revealing an aspect of history not yet explored and with effervescent detail Juliet Nicolson author of Frostquake Young Bloomsbury celebrates an open way of living and loving that would not be embraced for another hundred years Catholic World ,1915

Baptist Missionary Magazine ,1896 Me, a Missionary?

James Heywood Horsburgh,Ninel Lazar,2025-05-30 Me a missionary This is a very good question for every true Christian to ask In fact I think there is no true Christian who is not passionately interested in proclaiming the Gospel in Jerusalem in all Judea in Samaria and to the uttermost parts of the world But when it comes to practice we hear too often questions and objections such as Charity begins at home We cannot afford to send men and money out of the country or But we are not ALL called to be missionaries or Oh Evangelizing the Nations is the missionaries business It does not concern me or I am not educated enough to be a missionary I have not been to Seminary In this book Ninel Lazar an evangelist serving in Romania Europe provides you with an upgraded annotated and carefully revised version of a 100 year old book by missionary James Heywood Horsburgh and gives biblical and common sense sometimes humorous answers to 101 commonly asked questions and objections to the global missions In addition Ninel has put together some of the statistical data on today s Christianity in the world thereby compiling a list of the countries and regions of the world where the Gospel is most needed And you would be shocked to see the results of his research as his conclusions often go against what is commonly known among Evangelicals today Don t miss his foreword where he puts the call for evangelism and missions in the biblical context of the new birth in 2Cor 5 and investigates the root causes for neglecting this call
