communication and education      Journal of Horticulture and Practical Gardening ,1870      The Journal of Horticulture and Home Farmer ,1908      Sufi Castigator Lloyd Ridgeon,2006-09-27 Sufi Castigator investigates the writings of Ahmad Kasravi one of the foremost intellectuals in Iran It studies his work within the context of Sufism in modern Iran and mystical Persian literature and includes translations of Kasravi s writings Kasravi provides a fascinating topic for those with interests in Sufism and Iranian studies as he attempted to produce a form of Iranian identity that he believed was compatible with the modern age and Iranian nationalism His stress on reason and the de mystification of religion caused him to repudiate Sufism and much of the Sufi literary heritage as backwards and believed it a reason for the weakness of modern Iran Kasravi s historical observations were weak and his writings indicate that he was working towards pre determined conclusions However his works are of significance because they contributed to a major discussion in the 1930s to 1940s about the ideal image and identity that Iranians should adopt Despite the academic weaknesses of Kasravi s works he had a profound effect on the next generation of thinkers Sufi Castigator is stimulating and meticulously researched book and includes two lengthy translations of Kasravi s works Sufism and What does Hafez Say and will appeal to scholars of middle eastern studies

Western Sufism Mark Sedgwick,2016-10-18 Western Sufism is sometimes dismissed as a relatively recent new age phenomenon but in this book Mark Sedgwick argues that it has deep roots both in the Muslim world and in the West In fact although the first significant Western Sufi organization was not established until 1915 the first Western discussion of Sufism was printed in 1480 and Western interest in Sufi thought goes back to the thirteenth century Sedgwick starts with the earliest origins of Western Sufism in late antique Neoplatonism and early Arab philosophy and traces later origins in repeated intercultural transfers from the Muslim world to the West in the thought of the European Renaissance and Enlightenment and in the intellectual and religious ferment of the nineteenth century He then follows the development of organized Sufism in the West from 1915 until 1968 the year in which the first Western Sufi order based on purely Islamic models was founded Western Sufism shows the influence of these origins of thought both familiar and less familiar Neoplatonic emanationism perennialism pantheism universalism and esotericism Western Sufism is the product not of the new age but of Islam the ancient world and centuries of Western religious and intellectual history Using sources from antiquity to the internet Sedgwick demonstrates that the phenomenon of Western Sufism draws on centuries of intercultural transfers and is part of a long established relationship between Western thought and Islam      Paperbound Books in Print
