Voluntary Servitude and the Erotics of Friendship Marc D. Schachter, 2016-12-05 Focusing primarily on three early modern French authors this book explores the erotics and politics of voluntary servitude in classical antiquity and the early modern period These authors tienne de La Bo tie Michel de Montaigne and Marie de Gournay pursue related inquiries into voluntary servitude and self control in marriage friendship pederasty and politics Marc Schachter shows how Montaigne s intimate textual relationship with La Bo tie provides him the opportunity to honor his beloved friend while transforming many of his ideas Similarly Marie de Gournay s editorial voluntary servitude to Montaigne provides her the occasion to authorize her own practice as a woman author and to engage critically with Montaigne s ideas even as she celebrates her friendship with him Schachter s analyses are pursued particularly through the lens of Michel Foucault s concept of governmentality which like voluntary servitude operates on three interrelated scales self control control in interpersonal relationships and political control Schachter argues that thinking about the function of voluntary servitude through the lens of governmentality leads to a more nuanced understanding both of Foucault s late work and of the transformational possibilities offered by friendship and voluntary servitude in early modern France
