playing jazz guitar New to the Game Mark Schoedl, 2020-08-18 There appears to be a distance between the person one presents and the real person hidden beneath the veneer Many more people from all walks of life have surrendered to their image to achieve recognition to make ends meet or to live the quiet life away from all the hullabaloo One cannot escape one's fate no matter how hard one tries So perhaps the impossible is possible just be yourself Many laugh behind their breath at this supposition However does winning a game or holding onto fractured relationships make your world a flawed yet wholesome endeavor that you can rest your hat on These are questions we all ask ourselves in our own private lives away from the hardened world around us Since we only have now perhaps it is time to feel the disparate sorrows and pitfalls we have created and to walk out into the world anew without all those pent up preconceived notions that we cannot seem to shed After all our egos are as fractured and sullen as everyone around us It's a new day Who knows what today will bring I too fall within this conundrum My stories reach into what I have seen and experienced throughout my life I cannot make sense of what the game of life has offered me Even in America things are quite bleak when I cannot seem to muster the effort to confront them just because I need to survive like everybody else It is hard for all of us So let us drop the supposition that just go along to get along is our calling card in this world After all it is only a world that we have accepted as the best of all possible worlds Voltaire I refuse to accept this as my path Path Is not this world a pathless land My sixteen stories from my new book New to the Game run over the same conflicts and escapism that many have held onto over the generations and yet some daring persons see their own masked reality feel its searing anguish and let it fall to touch and feel new worlds worlds they had no idea existed until they have had enough of their own biased and contrived ideals The New Face of Jazz
