reoriented their economies away from Russia A third group typified by Ukraine demonstrated no coherent economic policy at all regarding dependence Abdelal distinguishes the Nationalist tradition in international political economy from the Realist tradition and shows that economic nationalism is different than mercantilism He demonstrates the ways that national identity affects economic policy and explains why some governments seek economic autonomy while others prefer regional reintegration He then applies his approach to other cases of economic reorganization after the end of empire eastern Europe in the 1920s after the Habsburgs 1950s Indonesia and French West Africa in the 1960s
