The Economic of the Central Chin Tribes H. N. C. Stevenson, 1970 Economy and Ritual Stephen Gudeman, Chris Hann, 2017-05 According to accepted wisdom rational practices and ritual action are opposed Rituals drain wealth from capital investment and draw on a mode of thought different from practical ideas The studies in this volume contest this view Comparative historical and contemporary the six ethnographies extend from Macedonia to Kyrgyzstan Each one illuminates the economic and ritual changes in an area as it emerged from socialism and re entered market society Cutting against the idea that economy only means markets and that market action exhausts the meaning of economy the studies show that much of what is critical for a people s economic life takes place outside markets and hinges on ritual understood as the negation of the everyday world of economising Rationality and Irrationality in Economics Maurice Godelier, 2014-07-08 This book is the result of a research project begun by the author in 1958 with the aim of answering two questions First what is the rationality of the economic systems that appear and disappear throughout history in other words what is their hidden logic and the underlying necessity for them to exist or to have existed Second what are the conditions for a rational understanding of these systems in other words for a fully developed comparative economic science The field of investigation opened up by these two questions is vast touching on the foundations of social reality and on how to understand them The author being a Marxist sought the answers as he writes not in philosophy or by philosophical means but in and through examining the knowledge accumulated by the sciences The stages of his journey from philosophy to economics and then to anthropology are indicated by the divisions of his book Godelier rejects at the outset any attempt to tackle the question of rationality or irrationality of economic science and of economic realities from the angle of an a priori idea a speculative definition of what is rational Such an approach can yield only he feels an ideological result Rather he treats the appearance and disappearance of social and economic systems in history as being governed by a necessity wholly internal to the concrete structures of social life Edmund Leach Stanley J. Tambiah, 2002-02-14 Intellectual biography of Edmund Leach a leading social anthropologist of his generation with illustrations Routledge Handbook of Highland Asia Jelle J.P. Wouters, Michael T. Heneise, 2022-08-09 The Routledge Handbook of Highland Asia is the first comprehensive and critical overview of the ethnographic and anthropological work in Highland Asia over the past half a century Opening up a grand new space for critical engagement the handbook presents Highland Asia as a world region that cuts across the traditional divides inherited from colonial and Cold War area divisions the Indian Subcontinent South Asia Southeast Asia China East Asia and Central Asia Thirty two chapters assess the history of research identify ethnographic trends and evaluate a range of analytical themes that developed in particular settings of Highland Asia They cover varied landscapes and communities from Kyrgyzstan to India from Bhutan to Vietnam and bring local voices and narratives relating trade and tribute ritual and resistance pilgrimage and prophecy modernity and marginalization capital and cosmos to the fore The handbook shows that for millennia Highland Asians have connected far flung regions through movements of peoples goods and ideas and at all times have been the enactors repositories and mediators of world historical processes Taken together the contributors and chapters subvert dominant lowland narratives by privileging primarily highland vantages that reveal Highland Asia as an ecumene and prism that refracts and generates global history social theory and human imagination In the currently unfolding Asian Century this compels us to reorient and re envision Highland Asia in ethnography in theory and in the connections between this world region made of hills highlands and mountains and a planetary context The handbook reveals both regional commonalities and diversities generalities and specificities and a broad orientation to key themes in the region An indispensable reference work this handbook fills a significant gap in the literature and will be of interest to academics researchers and students interested in Highland Asia Zomia Studies Anthropology Comparative Politics Conceptual History and Sociology Southeast Asian Studies Central Asian Studies and South Asian Studies as well as Asian Studies in general

Stories from an Ancient Land Magnus Fiskesjö, 2021-08-13 The Wa people have a rich civilization of their own and a deep history in the mountains of Southeast Asia Their mythology suggests their land is the first place inhabited by humans which they care for on behalf of the world This book introduces aspects of Wa culture including their approach to the world's troubles and the lessons others might learn from it It also presents a new interpretation of Wa headhunting questioning explanations that see it as a primitive custom and instead placing it within the fraught history of the last few centuries

Rice, Rupees, and Ritual D. George Sherman, 1990-04-01 In this ethnographic study of the small mountain village of Huta Ginjang in the Samosir area of northern Sumatra the author pursues three main themes the role of rice in the Batak economy of feasting and the cultural ecology of dry and flooded field rice growing Two important questions emerge How did the social and economic changes resulting from Dutch colonization particularly the adoption of money as a medium of exchange affect Samosir Batak culture Have the values that largely shape the local economy been fundamentally altered by the effects of colonization and subsequent Japanese and Indonesian administrations After introductory chapters present the environmental and historical background of the Samosir region the author describes the socio cultural base on which its agricultural economy rests indigenous political and religious institutions concepts of patrilineal descent and marriage alliance and most importantly the ideology of the feasting system He then examines in detail and in comparative perspective the agricultural practices of Huta Ginjang and also deals more generally with the economic relations and institutions of the villagers notably marketing credit and cooperative endeavours Since the key production units are nuclear families the author analyzes the development of households and the organization of labor in cultivating crops He then turns to the distribution of livestock and land by both ritual and nonritual means The book is illustrated with photographs line drawings and maps

The Golden Peninsula Charles F. Keyes, 1994-12-01 The Golden Peninsula Culture and Adaptation in Mainland Southeast Asia has long been recognized as the best all around introduction to the diverse cultural traditions found in Burma Thailand Laos Cambodia and Vietnam First published in 1977 it continues to offer useful insights to students and travelers to the region In five well defined and succinct chapters Professor Keyes a leading specialist in the field offers a jargon free copiously annotated synthesis of knowledge about the cultural history of tribal Theravada Buddhist and Vietnamese societies He combines analysis of traditional cultural practices with examination of cultural conflict in the colonial and post colonial periods The book remains unique in providing a detailed examination of urban life as well as of life in rural communities

Smallholders and Stockbreeders P. Boomgaard, David E.F. Henley, 2021-11-15 Historians of Southeast Asia have traditionally preferred to write about politics and culture rather than economics and ecology and where they have looked at the history of agriculture they have most often concentrated on cash crops like sugar coffee and rubber which figure prominently in colonial records Smallholders and stockbreeders by contrast provides a rare survey of the history of foodcrop farming and a unique look at the history of animal husbandry in the Southeast Asian region Thirteen contributions by an international selection of expert authors cover topics ranging from the agricultural economy of precolonial Java to the growth of rice production in the Mekong Delta since 1950 and from the breeding of horses on the northern borderlands of mainland Southeast Asia to the production and consumption of beef in the Philippines New light is shed on old questions regarding the directions in which Southeast Asian agriculture has evolved over the centuries and new questions raised regarding the cultural demographic economic and political determinants of farming practices While the geographical and chronological scales of analysis vary most chapters deal with relatively large areas and with developments over periods of 100 years or more Besides production for subsistence commercial aspects of livestock and foodcrop farming are also given due attention and prove to have been important in many parts of the region from very early periods Smallholders and stockbreeders is essential reading for anyone interested in the agricultural history of Southeast Asia whether for its own sake or in connection with other aspects of regional history or for purposes of comparison with other parts of the world

The Emergence of Civilization Charles Keith Maisels, 2003-12-16 The Emergence of Civilisation is a major contribution to our understanding of the development of urban culture and social stratification in the Near Eastern region Charles Maisels argues that our present assumptions about state formation based on nineteenth century speculations are wrong His investigation illuminates the changes in scale complexity and hierarchy which accompany the development of civilisation The book draws conclusions about the dynamics of social change and the processes of social evolution in general applying those concepts to the rise of Greece and Rome and to the collapse of the classical Mediterranean world      Moving Mountains Jean Michaud,Tim Forsyth,2011-01-01 The mountainous borderlands of socialist China Vietnam and Laos are home to some seventy million minority people of diverse ethnicities In Moving Mountains anthropologists geographers and political economists with first hand experience in the region explore these peoples survival strategies as they respond to unprecedented economic and political change Although highland peoples are typically represented as marginalized and powerless this volume argues that ethnic minorities draw on culture and ethnicity to indigenize modernity and maintain their livelihoods This unprecedented glimpse into a poorly understood region shows that development initiatives must be built on strong knowledge of local cultures in order to have lasting effect      Developmental Issues in Contemporary India M. R. Biju,2010      Entangled Lives Joy L. K. Pachuau,Willem van Schendel,2022-11-10 Entangled Lives is a case study in environmental history multispecies history more than human history posthumanism and environmental humanities Its main objective is to foreground that history is co created but that its contours are locally specific
